STOCKS AND BONDS.

New York, Oct. 17.—A little irregular-try characterized the opening trading at the Stock Exchange, but this soon gave way to a firmer tone, especially in the Grangers, which improved 14 to 12. An advance in posted rates of ex-change dampened the bullish ardor and stopped a moderate selling movement and the sales led to a decline of Mal'4.

The range of today's prices for the active stocks of the New York stock market are given below. The quotations are furnished The Tribune by G. du B. Dimmlek, manager for William Linn, Allen & Co., stock brokers, 412 Spruce street, Scranton.

A meeting of the various representatives of the anthracite coal companies was held in New York on Tuesday, and the situation was thoroughly gone over. It was shown that the demand of the present time is far greater than it has een, and that the stock in hand is inadequate to meet all their wants. There was some talk about advancing prices, but nothing definite was done, but it is but nothing definite was done, but it is understood that before the end of the month the prices to tidewater points will be advanced and made uniform. A meeting will be held by the city and line trade agents of the anthracite coal companies shortly to take action on making a further advance in prices to these points. At the present time the coal is selling on a basis of $2.50 a ton for domestic prepared sized at the companies shortly to take making a further advance in prices to these polute.
