Semi-Annual Banquet of the Chi Upsilor Society of the Washburn Street Church Held Last Night.

The popular Chi Upsilon society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church held a semi-annual banquet last evening in their room at the church.

The event was the fourth of its kind, and a successful effort was made by the members to surpass the previous efforts. Only the society members, with lady friends, sat at the banquet table. The menu was a delightful one, and was favorably commented on by the banqueters. After the feast had been enjoyed the programme for the evenenjoyed the programme to the event-ing's intellectual treat was begun with introductory remarks by President Will Burrill, teastmaster for the occasion. Mr. Burrill interspersed the numbers with appropriate remarks. "Our Guests" was the first subject for dis-with appropriate remarks. "Our Guests" was the first subject for discussion, and it was well handled by Thomas Patten. Turby Breese recited a comic selection, which afforded amusement to his auditors. A toast on "Southern Sunbeams" followed by C. E. Battenberg. It was a beautiful endeavor, and elicited much applause. "E Pluribus Unum" was the subject selected by C. H. Hall for his remarks. Mr. Hall disposed of the patriotic subject with the fervor of sincerity. "Phiz" was the novel title of Art Morse's talk. The idea was original, and was treated in an original manner. C. J. Helmes selected the all-absorbing subject, "Our Country." The speech showed thought and feeling, and was one of the best of the evening.

"Public Opinion" was the cause of Herbert Yest's effusion on that subject. It was treated in a way that showed how conversant Mr. Yost is on the questions of the day. A selection by the Chi U's Guitar club was much enjoyed. C. H. Derby, of the Times, selected as his subject "Blue Pencil marks." Mr. Derby's effort proved very interesting. Wallace Moser gave an oration in his masterly manner, and was loudly applauded." Shavings" was Hugh Howell's subject. It was a bright endeavor. A select reading which which they are charged. After a short discussion both persons admitted his guilt, and were sentenced to pay a fine of $2 each, and a mutual agreement to settle the costs between them.

A Social Gathering.

Miss May Transue tendered a social gathering to a few of her numerous friends last evening at her home, on Tenth street. Supper was served at 11 o'clock, after which the young people departed for their respective homes. Those present were: Misses Grace Goodrich, Gertrude Fellows, Nellie Fellows and Frank McGovern, Bert Cor-nell, Peter Nott, John Howell, Joseph Wagner and Edward McNulty.

They Borrowed a Mule.

William Thomas and Aaron Evans, two Taylor young men, took a mule from Owen D. Davis, the grinder, last Tuesday. They were arraigned before Alderman John yesterday, and were placed under ball to appear at court. The men stole mule, wagon and harness. They afterward brought the animal back, but the rest of the turnout was in a damaged state, hence the suit.

Whitman-Gillett Nuptials. Miss Rose Gillett, of South Hyde Park avenue, and William Whitman, of this side, were married last evening by Rev. L. C. Floyd, of the Simpson Methodist oburch. The wedding was quietly arranged and the announcement will surprise the friends of each. Mr. and Mrs. Whitman will reside on South Hyde Park avenue.

Threatened with Lockjaw

Mrs. John Garvey, of Pittston avenue, met with a mishap yesterday that was in danger of causing lockjaw. A nall ran up through her shoe and penetrat-el into her foot so far as to make the pain excruciating. Her husband was in the house at the time and he went for Dr. Manley. The nail was extracted and a loilon was applied to the wound, which restored her to a normal con-dition from one of high nervous tension. She was walking in the garden and stepped on a board through which the nail was protruding.

Arrested for False Pretenses. Constable Joseph F. Woelkers, of the Eleventh ward, arrested Gaspare Abato last night and took him for a hearing before Alderman Hobling on a warrant sworn out, charging obtaining money under false pretenses. Abato was bound in the sum of $500 for his appearance at court. The prosecutor is An-tonio Moretta, a stone mason and cellar builder. Abato was recently un-able to pay his rent and Moretta caved his furniture from being sold for the rent by giving him enough of money to Equidate the debt. Abato got the money by representing to Moretta that he would work for him and pay it back. He did neither, it is alleged.

Some of the Plays That Are Billed to Appear in City Theaters.

This evening at the Academy of Music Creston Clarke and company will appear in "The Fool's Revenge Mr. Clark ear in "The Fool's Revenge, Mr. Clark omes from two distinguished familles of actors, his mother being a sister of Edwin Booth, and his father, John Sleeper Clark, the famous old-time comedian, remembered as the great Toodles of his day. The supporting company numbers twenty-six people, including the gifted and beautiful actress, Miss Adelaide Prince.

Faust at the Academy.

Joseph Callahan's grand electrical and spectacular production of "Faust" will be the attraction at the Frothing-ham this evening. He is ably supported by Edwin Boring in the title role of "Faust," Miss Beatrice Ingram as Marguerite, Mrs. Addie Farrell as Martha. and other competent members of the company. Mr. Callahan has become company. Mr. Callahan has become thoroughly familiar with the require-ments of the difficult role of Mephisto through years of study and experience. The electrical effects in the spectacular production of "Faust" are simply indescribable. They surpass any and all features. Joseph Callahan is a young, ambitious actor, and has already done himself credit.

At Fort Bliss

The patrons of the Prothingham will on Saturday evening have the oppor-tunky of witnessing the latest successful American play "At Fort Bliss." The theater-going public is veary of the stereotyped war play and loudly cry out for something new, and this, we be-lieve, they will discover in the above drama. A strong presenting company is promised and some extra fine effects in the way of stage settings and scenery.

Zero Saturday Night

Pretty girls, handsome scenery and beautiful costumes, agaisted by clever comedians, catchy music, funny situations, from a combination that is hard to resist.
