Injuries Playing with Fire.

Yesterday morning between 7 and 8 o'clock, Robert, 6-year-old son of Gomer Williams, was so badly burned that he died about noon.

The child and his two sisters, aged 11 and 13, were alone in the house. By some means he had gotten a box of cigarettes, it is said, from a young lady living close by. When he attempted to light a cigarette the whole box of matches he had became ignited and these set fire to his clothing. Before assistance arrived he was frightfully burned about the face and body. The boy was a bright little fellow and was an only son. The funeral will be at and o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Mary Williams, the boy's sister, had ber hands badly burned, while trying to extinguish the fire. Rachel, the other rister, who is older, was upstairs at the time of the accident. Mary says that time of the accident. Mary says that Miss Edith Tanner rapped on the win-dow, and when boy raised it she gave om a cigarette and match. The lighted match fell down the sleeve of his cross. He ran out on the porch, and it was there that Mrs. Allen, a neighbor, threw a piece of carpet over him.
