ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT SCRANTON, PA., AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.

Printers Ink, the recognized journal for advertisers, raises THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE as the best advertising medium in the Eastern Pennsylvania.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, issued every Saturday, contains twelve handsome pages, with an abundance of news, fiction, and well-illustrated stories.

THE TRIBUNE is for sale daily at the D. L. and W. Station at Hoboken.

SCRANTON, OCTOBER 19, 1895.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Judges of the Superior Court: CHARLES E. RICE, of Luzerne; E. N. WILLIARD, of Lackawanna; HOWARD J. REEDER, of Northampton; JAMES A. BEAVER, of Centre; JOHN J. WICKHAM, of Beaver; GEORGE N. ORLADY, of Huntington.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For Coroner: SAMUEL P. LONGSTREET, M. D., of Scranton. For Surveyor: EDMUND A. BARTL, of Scranton. Election day, Nov. 5.

Anyhow, the revenue racket introduced us to Colquhoun; and this is much.

Interest on Public Funds.

The emphatic denial of State Treasurer Jackson that he has ever drawn into his personal account, so much as one dollar of interest on the large balances of state funds which are kept by him on deposit among designated banks will be believed.

It is absurd to suppose that any private depositor would be willing to appropriate $4,000,000 among thirty or forty banks without demanding a cent of interest. The capitalist who should rest content with the illness and non-productiveness of so much money, year after year, would be looked upon by the business community as of unsound mind.

It is probable that Governor Hastings will address a message to the next legislature asking for the passage of legislation placing this subject on a business footing. He has recently expressed, in decided terms, the opinion that public funds should draw interest for the public's benefit.

Mr. Olmsted is doubtless now sorry he spoke.

A New Currency Plan.

Ex-Governor Merriam, of Minnesota, one of the ablest of western bankers, has devised a tentative plan for currency reform which he thinks would satisfactorily fulfill four essential conditions. First, it would provide a currency safe and properly secured; secondly, it would at all times be redeemable in gold or its equivalent; thirdly, it would circulate at par in all parts of the United States; and fourthly, it would be sufficiently elastic to accommodate itself, automatically, to the varying conditions of trade.

Let, say, 40 per cent. of the capital stock of a National bank be invested in United States notes, and circulation be issued against the same, the bills remaining in the hands of the treasurer, and currency to an amount equal to the remaining 60 per cent. of the capital stock to be delivered to the bank by the comptroller for issuance when desired.

If the people of Kentucky can stand it to have William Cabell Preston Breckenridge of Madeline Pollard returned to public life, the people of the rest of these United States will have to try to. But it's mighty rough on an innocent public.

The Philadelphia Times is frank enough to say that it all along regarded the objection to the limited vote clause of the Superior court act as nothing but a quibble. The same word, by the way, would cover most of the other objections. Ex-Mayor Hewitt of New York, a Democrat of Democrats, defines Tammany Hall as "an organization maintained for no other purpose than public robbery," and adds: "It has no political principles. It does not represent the Democratic party. It has no notion of those principles which real Democracy suggests. It is simply an organization of men who see an opportunity, through combined action, of controlling the public purse. I wish this community could understand that. I wish men who call themselves Democrats, and who are honorable men, could get some conception of the damage to Democracy which this looting organization causes." Yet it is this monumental conspiracy of convicted hoodlums and knaves that boastfully seeks re-installation in the places of power. Will Gotham be twice bled by the same gang?

Inasmuch as the Philadelphia Lewising job has passed under the control of a non-partisan body of foremost citizens, we see no particular reason why the knife-hunt should be longer postponed. Let the band play.

Republican victory in Maryland, New Jersey and Kentucky next month would have a tendency to debilitate the third-term movement, and it looks as if that movement were slated for a debilitation.

Of the 21,000 decrease in New York city's registration this fall, five-sixths comes from the Tammany strongholds. The tiger, next month, may miss its habitual stalking.

We trust it is not true that this administration, in its eagerness to avoid giving offence to Great Britain, has offered to submit the Monroe doctrine to arbitration.

The Tribune, next Saturday, will contain a stirring, complete story by Rudyard Kipling, entitled "Quinquina." It is written in this master novelist's best vein.

It is worth noticing as an index to local business conditions that the Scranton building "boom" has taken off its things and decided to stay.

The plan now is for Grover to pose as a Jingont until after the November elections. The plan is excellent, but it will not work.

FALL OF 1895. "THE DEVIL AND THE DEEP SEA."

A TIMELY CALL TO WORK.

From the Philadelphia Press. Major Everett Warren, president of the Republican League clubs of Pennsylvania, has issued an earnest call to the members of the various Republican clubs throughout the state.

Luzerne's Judicial Battle.

The morning organ of the Luzerne Democracy is up to its old tricks. It seeks to create prejudice because some of the papers in this city have called attention to the gross impropriety involved in the partisan candidacy of Mr. McLean for a position on the bench of a court that already contains two Democratic and no Republican law judges.

The Tammany campaign in New York is being conducted almost wholly upon the ostensible ground of emollient sympathy for the "poor workman," who, "if he wants his beer on Sunday, ought to have it." But is there any evidence to prove that the workman, in New York or elsewhere, regards as a hardship the deprivation of one-day's beer which means another day's bread?

The Baldwin will be in Atlanta next week. Imagine the sensation that the white Mahama and his hypnotized wife will make in the land of the sun, particularly among the class of people that abound in the south if the Baldwin succeeded in creating such a commotion that of late winter in this public, unexcitable community they will find themselves in the center of a cyclone district.
