Scranton Archdeaconry of the Episcopal Church Meets in Honesdale, Beginning Monday Night-Mr. Peck's Splendid Church Bequests.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Friday, Oct. 11, has this to say of the reception tendered Rev. Warren G. Partridge, who was until recently the pastor of Scranton's Penn Avenue Baptist church:

Fully 1,600 members of the congrega-Foury 1,000 members of the congregation tion and visiting friends attended the rocial reception given last night in honor of Rev. Warren G Partridge, present pastor, at the Ninth Street Bap-tist church. The ladies of the church had done themselves proud in the chaste and beautiful decoration of the lecture thom where the reception was lecture room, where the reception was lecture room, where the reception was given. The platform of honor reserved for Rev. and Mrs. Partridge was a hower of flowers and exoke plants. Tall ferns stood there and in different parts of the room. The fragrance of flowers inherical zest to a delightful go beeing, which in the general char-acter of its cheerfulness, comfort, and brotherly feeling was an evidence that when Christians came together for a when Christians came together for a social dame, they know how to enjoy themselves. During the carlier hours of the reception Rev. Johnson Myers, D. D., was one of the company, and his presence contributed much brightness o the creasion.

Among the ministers present were Rev Dr. S. A. Northrop, Rev. W. E. Loucks, Rev. C. H. Wheeler, Rev. W. O. Shaw, Rev. J. H. Gray and Rev. J. A. Rader.

Cornet soles and duets by H. E. Pugh and Frank Second enfired the hours of the reception, and these were ably assisted by Walter Herr on the plano. Refreshments of lee cream and cake were served, and the entire occasion had a delightful informality and an on cordiality which will long be re-embered by its hundreds of partici-on the Increase. For many years my greatest enemy has been organic heart disease. From an un-cashness about the heart, with paintation more or less severe, it had developed into abnormal action, thumping, fluttering and choking semiations. Dull pain with a pe-cular warm feeling were ever present near the heart. I have tried many physi-cians and taken numberless remedies with very little benefit. Seeing Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart advertised in the Kit-tanning, Pa., papers, I purchased a bot-tie and becan its use, receiving almost mathematic battles of the remedy and can speak most highly in its favor. The choking, abnor-mal beating, thumping and palpitation have almost entirely disappeared. The remedy is certainly a wonder-worker, for my case was chrenic. Rev. L. W. Show-ers, Elderton, Pa.

Gives His Experience with Organic Heart Disease - The Dread Malady on the Increase.
