be one BEST. THE BEST is THE EQUITABLE. If you wish to know why, send for:

1, the report of the Superintendent of Insurance for the State of New York on the examination of The Equitable; 2, for actual results of maturing policies; 3, for statement of death claims paid in 1894. Then you will know the three great reasons of The Equitable's supremacy: 1st, its financial stability; 2d, its great profits and advantages to living policy-holders; 3d, the prompt-the failure of good news to have any effects on prices. Treasury officials are looking for an early resumption of the gold movement, but bankers as a rule say there will be plenty of cotton bills during the next two weeks, and for that time at least there will be no gold shipments. The market opened firm, but subsequently prices dropped \(\frac{1}{2} \) to \(\frac{1}{2} \) be a control of the particularly weak at this time.

If the passenger was not the original buyer he usually gets scared and walks off with the ticket, and makes the broker take it back. When a ticket is presented and believed to have been bought from a scalper, its num-ber is taken, and if it is presented later, the agent again refuses to stamp it. Already many original buyers have presented their tickets and signed them, but, it is said, the inspector has ordered the agent not to scamp them because the signature on the back did not ex-actly compare with the name written on the face when it was bought.
