the benefits to be derived from Bovinine. A well-known champion bicyclist heartily commends it. Fred Titus, of the Spaulding Racing Team says, "I have been taking Bovinine while training, am surprised at the strength and renewed vigor I derived from its use. It is grand to take after hard riding, as it very soon restores the life you lose at such times."

is strictly and solely a food stimulant, prepared by a special cold process from lean, raw beef. Its great blood and flesh creating qualities combined with the ease with which it is digested, makes it invaluable as a restorer of depleted tisues, and as trengthmaintainer in all cases of exhaustion, whether caused by disease or over-exertion. Two Wrecks on the Jeff.

Friday morning an extra was taking on coal at Forest City breaker, and was pushing a train of loaded cars, which had been taken out of the breaker switch, up the main line to the crossover at the depot. Three of the cars jumped the track and blocked the road for several hours. A second wreck occurred Friday evening just beyond the depot at Thompson and was the means of blocking the line for the greater part of the night. Passengers on the north bound flyer were held at the point for several hours, and were transferred to another train, by which they ferred to another train, by which they were taken to Susquehanna.
