LEBECK & CORIN

JERMYN.

Daniel La Rue, engineer at the Richmond breaker, proved his family to be a family of yesterday.

W. R. Dodson is again on duty at the Delaware and Hudson station after a week's absence.

Miss Belle Gardner, C. L. Bell and C. F. Barker are on the programme to take part in the Epworth league convention at Honesdale this week.

A dead line has been placed at Adams to Arthur Day for the house and lot on J street, Consideration, $1,150.

Frank Winter, of Wyoming seminary, spent Sunday with his parents here.

Dr. A. J. Baker, of Duryea, circulated among Jermyrn friends yesterday.

Owing to an accident to the machinery at the electric light works the streets were in total darkness Sunday night.

Professor Crowell, of Carbonate, and Editor Boundy, of the Jermyrn Press, are very successful in the musical and literary entertainments being given by them. The zither on which Professor Crowell is an expert and the original artists in Editor Boundy's most humorous vein cannot fail to please.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Taylor, of Tompkinsville, were Jermyrn visitors yesterday.

F. A. Bryant, at one time engineer at the works of the Moosic Powder company, but recently the proprietor of Bryant's school for stonemasons, has recently graduated from Belvidere college, and is now a full fledged medical doctor. His address is 9 West Fourth street, where his friends will find him from 9 to 11 a. m. and from 1 to 6 p. m.

Mrs. A. C. Howells and children left yesterday for a visit with friends in New York city.

William Bell, of Third street, is seriously ill.

Tickets for the lecture by Chaplain McCabe Oct. 29 are selling rapidly. The diagram for reserved seats is now open at Winter & Co's store and choice seats can still be secured. All the old soldiers are anxious to hear about "The Bright Side of Life in Liberty Prison," when told by one who was there. Remember the date, Oct. 29.

At the annual meeting of the Jermyrn Cemetery association George Cullip and Eugene Avery were elected directors. The affairs of the association are in a flourishing condition.

Mrs. S. D. Davis is in Valley Falls, N. Y., the guest of Mrs. T. C. Church.

Mark Daniels, who is now in Africa, writes glowing accounts of the newly discovered gold fields in Witwatersrand. Some idea of the richness of the field may be had when we know of the large increase in the product which in 1887 was 23,155 ounces. Over 2,024,191 ounces were mined during 1894, this being the first year that the Witwatersrand fields were discovered. Shares are selling at an increase of from 2,000 to 2,700 per cent. and every one is making money.

Alonso Ellis, of Vandling, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Charles Davies, of Cemetery street.

Mrs. Cook and daughter, Miss Fannie, who have been the guests of Mrs. Raymond, at the residence of J. D. Blocker, returned to their home in New York city yesterday.

Daniel Mohun, of the East Side, who has been ill with typhoid fever in convalescent, Dr. Manley is in attendance.

Fred Hartnell and Ambrose Byrne, of Dunmore, were Jermyrn visitors yesterday.

Rev. A. C. Howells is in Honesdale attending a convocation of the diocese of the Episcopal church.

WILKES-BARRE.

INSTITUTE OPENS.

The Annual Gathering of the County Teachers in Wilkes-Barre.

The annual county teachers' institute opened yesterday afternoon at the Grand opera house and early in the morning the teachers began to arrive. The week of institute is always in the nature of a vacation to the teachers. They learn much that is new about their work, but it is taught to them in such a way that it is a pleasure to be instructed. The people of Wilkes-Barre are always glad to see the teachers assemble for their annual institute, and the welcome given by the mayor expresses the feeling of the citizens.

All yesterday morning was given to the enrollment of the teachers at the Grand opera house. The enrollment committee, as composed of D. M. Holmes, of Ashley; David Gildea, of Kingston township; Joseph H. Finn, of Sugar Notch; and J. O. Herman, of Edinburgville.

The executive officers and the members of the other committees are as follows:

Executive officers—Torrence R. Harrison, county superintendent of schools; Joseph Gabriel, superintendent of schools, Foster township; David A. Hartman, superintendent of schools, Hazelton; John J. Muball, superintendent of schools, Nanticoke; James A. Dewey, superintendent of schools, New township.

Committee on Records—J. P. Lord, Hughestown; Asa Callender, Dorrance; Committee on Organization—Frank J. Steller, West Pittston; E. F. Cooke, Nanticoke; J. M. Jones, Jenkins; J. E. Wood, Hazleton; A. W. Martin, Sikeston; G. V. Curry, Plains; Jesse Alden, Foster; P. B. Bush, Plymouth township; Mary Carr, Newbury; Mary Mulachy, Pittston; Mrs. Mary Lewis, Wyoming; Thelma Lindsey, Fredland.

Committee on Resolutions—J. H. Schuman, Forty Fort; Charles T. Hoag, Vancor; Harry C. McElroy, Conyngham; E. J. Elrod, Hanover; M. L. Laubach, Fairmount; Fred Sutcliffe, Shokoham.

The first session of the institute proper began yesterday afternoon at 2:30 with singing, led by Thomas L. Gibbons, after which the invocation was offered up by Rev. Dr. J. Richards, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church.

County Superintendent Harrison then introduced Mayor Nichols, who made a hearty address of welcome, in which he gave the teachers the freedom of the city and said that Wilkes-Barre considers it an honor to entertain them for even a few days each year.

The mayor's address was full of bright sayings and its true delivery pleased the teachers very much.

After the mayor had concluded the session on organization, the first business report, which was accepted. Superintendent Harrison then gave a short talk to the teachers concerning the evening lectures and reserved seats.

He announced that Miss Mathilde E. Coffin, of Detroit, whose name was on the programme, could not be present owing to illness. Miss Landis, of Milwaukee, and the singing of "We are here" will be here shortly and will give some instruction in primary work.

Professor Gibbons then conducted the music lesson, after which, Dr. P. W. Walsh, principal of the Bloomsburg State Normal school, gave a talk on "Letter Writing," which was listened to with the deepest interest. It was one of the best of the kind that was heard, and at its conclusion the institute adjourned until this morning.

THE SYNODICAL SOCIETY.

The Body Will Begin Its Deliberation in Wilkes-Barre Today.

The Synodical society of Women's Home Missions, of all the Presbyterian churches of Pennsylvania and West Virginia, for the first time, held its annual meeting in Wilkes-Barre this week, beginning today. The meetings will be held in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church. This evening the annual reunion of all the Presbyterian societies will be held in the church proper and the public is invited to attend. At this meeting there will be addresses from two remarkable persons, viz: Edward Marsden, a full-blooded Alaskan of the Metlakatla tribe, who is a college graduate and is now pursuing the theological studies at the seminary. The other is Miss Lucy Laney, of the Freedman's department of the Woman's Board of Home Missions, a young colored woman of great talent. The other sessions of the society will be very interesting and all friends of mission work in our country will be especially glad to attend. On Wednesday a luncheon will be served by the ladies of the First church, to which all the delegates and ladies from other churches are invited.

Killed a Pole.

On Sunday night about 10 o'clock, car No. 112 of the Plymouth line, in care of Conductor Robert, struck an unknown man, presumably a Poleander, and killed him instantly. The wheel ran completely over the body, and crushed in his skull, besides inflicting other serious injuries. The accident occurred near John Condon's house. The remains were placed on board the car and taken to A. E. Williams undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. The body has not been identified as yet. "Squire Williams notified the coroner and empended the following day to hold an inquest on Thursday at 2 p. m. at the residence of E. R. Richards, J. R. Maloney, R. P. Roberts, C. C. Eberly and J. D. Williams. As far as can be ascertained the accident was unavoidable.

Blanchard Buried.

The funeral of the late Robert Blanchard, the last of the victims of the terrible Dorrance mining disaster, took place yesterday afternoon from the home of his parents, David and Mrs. Blanchard, at Parsons. At Abbott Methodist Episcopal church services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Hiller, assisted by Rev. Dr. Hodge, Wilkes-Barre; Rev. Dr. Parke, Pittston; and Rev. Henry E. Spayde, Plains. The pall-bearers were: Richard Mitchell, Gus Stevens, Chester Ide, William Roberts, Fred Colvin and Wilson Smith.

A Fagot social will be held in the Susquehanna Street Baptist church this evening.

FACIAL HUMOURS

Prevented by Cuticura Soap.

ASHAMED TO BE SEEN because of disfiguring facial humours is the condition of thousands who live in ignorance of the fact that in CUTICURA SOAP is to be found the purest, sweetest, and most effective skin purifier and beautifier in the world. For pimples, blackheads, red and oily skin, for rough hands with shapely nails, dry, thin, and falling hair, it is wonderful.

RHEUMATISM is caused by lactic acid in the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla neutralizes this acid and completely and permanently cures rheumatism. Be sure to get only Hood's.

BRIEF NOTES.

On Friday evening, Nov. 1, the Puritan Literary and Musical society will resume the monthly entertainments that were so popular last year.

The second annual ball and reception of the Young Men's Hebrew social club will be given this evening in Loomis hall.

The Epworth league of the Central Methodist Episcopal church will give a reception to Rev. Dr. Mogg tomorrow evening, in the lecture room of the church.

Dr. D. J. Stafford, of Washington, D. C., will deliver a lecture on "Charles Dickens" some time next month.

The Crescent and Harry Hillman Academy foot ball teams will play at Athletic Park today at 3:30 p. m.

It cost The Tribune, in conjunction with a number of other papers, 33 1/3 cents a word to buy the manuscript of Rudyard Kipling's story, which will be printed complete in next Saturday's Tribune. But when you shall have read it you will agree with us that it's well worth it.
