The Pure Food Law.

The "Pure Food Law" recently passed by the tegislatures of several States, notably those of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Michigan, is a step in the right direction. No manufacturer should be allowed to put upon the market anything that is adulterated or unwholesome.

Cleveland's Baking Powder is not affected by the Pure Food Law of any State, it being perfectly pure and all the ingredients entering into its composition being plainly stated on the labels.

The Cleveland Baking Powder Co. has always so labeled its powder, and assurance is hereby given to everyone handling the goods that it is fully in compliance with the law and that the Company fully guarantees them from all penalties in selling it.

Some very grave charges Contained in a Bill in Equity Filed by William Schull. HE WANTS HIS COAL LAND BACK

Cays lle Was to Receive $200,000 Worth of Stock of the Wyoming Manufacturing Company for His Land, but Never Got a Dollar's Worth.

An application will be made to the court this morning by Attorney J. J. H. Hamilton, representing William Schull, of Birch street, this city, for an injunction against the executors of the estate of the late John Handley and the Wyoming Manufacturing com-pany. The prayer in the bill in equity in the case asks that an injunction preliminary until hearing and then final, be issued against executors of John Handley's estate restraining them from any further proceedings on the executions issued on judgments against the Wyoming Manufacturing company and from any further proceedings to sell the land of the company until the final decree of the court on the matters set forth in the bill in equity. It is further asked that the Wyoming Manufacturing company be restrained from incumbering in any way certain lands in Blakely borough or from sell-ing and conveying them; that a decree be entered declaring the conveyance from William Schull to the Wyoming Manufacturing company dated Oct. 9. ISE, to be fraudulent, void and of no ef-fect and that the Wyoming Manufacturing company dated Oct. 9. ISE, to be fraudulent, void and of no ef-fect and that the Wyoming Manufacturing company dated Oct. 9. ISE, to be fraudulent, void and of no ef-fect and that the Wyoming Manufac-turing company be directed to execute a reconveyance of the real estate de-scribe 1 therein to William Schull and that the conveyance by the latter to the Wyoming Manufacturing com-pany be delivered and cancelled.
