REDEEMING FALLEN WOMEN

Work Described at Annual Meeting of Florence Crittenden Mission.

MUCH IS DONE IN SCRANTON

ome Interesting Facts Revealed in Re ports by President and Matron. The Mission Elected Officers for the Ensuing Year.

At the second annual meeting of the Florence Crittenton mission yesterday afternoon in the Young Men's Christian association rooms officers were elected for the ensuing year, reports were made by the president, Mrs. H. M. Bookstaver; the treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Taylor, and the matron, Mrs. A. E. Saxton, and business was transacted.

Mrs. Bookstaver said in her report: Our society, though still in its childhood, is rapidly growing, and we feel now that the mission is an assured fast and has come to stay. Numbers of homeless women have been cared for during the past year, and some who have needed protection from their own families, have found a shelter with us.

tion from their own families, have found a shelter with us.

During the greater part of the year our home has been full, and sometimes uncomfortably so. We have felt for months past that our quariers were getting too strait for us, and the need of a larger home, in a better part of the city, where the surroundings would be more healthy with regard to the moral atmosphere, and where we can have some grounds where the girls can have some grounds where the girls can have more fresh air and something in the way of a garden to interest them. This is exceedingly important, as it is hard to be shut up during the warm summer months and no space even to exercise. We feel that this larger home is very much needed. We need also one or two rooms for a receiving station and a place to hold nightly meetings right in the shums.

Majority Are Saved.

We do not expect that all who come to us will be rescued from lives of shame, but we do believe the greater part of the women who come to the mission will eventually be saved, for they are all earnestly taken to the throne of grace, and we believe that we shall receive what we ask for. It is not in the girls we nut our trust, but in God, who has promised to answer the believing prayer.

We would like to thank all those who have in any way befriended the cause by their gifts, either of money, clothing, food, fuel or comforts of any kind, and it will surely give them bleasure to know that their gifts have not been wasted or unappreciated. Majority Are Saved.

Two of our girls who have given their hearts to the Savior have entered the House of Mercy. In Washincton, D. These all go of course with their own consent, as we keep practically an oven-door mission. Quite a number of the girls are living out in Christian families.

This is one point of considerable importance to Schank & Koehler as it has met with the aproval of persons who know how to dress their feet and has belped to build the store's trade up to its present large propor-

Every sensible person knows that the quality and style of a shoe depends on the manufacturer instead of the dealer. Schank & Koehler know this, and have confined their buying of men's shoes almost exclusively to E. H. Stetson and N. Curtis & Co. This policy of buying large quantities from only a few manufacturers redounds to the advantage of the buyer, as the producer is more aux-ious to please the dealer and in the end the consumer as well as the dealer is benefited. Found Lying on the Railroad.

As the Delaware and Hudson trains were passing each other near Carbon street yesterday afternoon at 2.20 o'clock, one of the employes on the north bound train aspied a man lying prostrate between the tracks. The train was stopped and backed up to the spot where the man was lying. He was found to be insensible, but no injuries were apparent. The man was carried aboard the train to Green Ridge and deposited at the station, where a Lackawanna hospital ambulance was summoned to convey him to the hospital. The hospital staff found that the man had been struck with nothing more serious than Jersey lightning, and as the fellow could not be roused from his drunken stupor, the hospital authorities had him taken to the station house in the patrol wagon. He partly recovered his senses about 9 o'clock last night, but could not be made to understand or answer questions. A pass-book found on his person containing the names of Barnie White and Jonathan Parry. It was made out by the Natalie Store company, of Natalie, Pa. Later in the night he acted as if he was in great agony.

scranton's l'astern League Franchise to Be Sold to Fall River. At a meeting of the Scranton Base Ball association directors last night it was decided to sell the Scranton East-ern league franchise to Fall River par-ties, who bid $2,856. Newark offered $2,500. The Fall River people will today be officially notified of the acceptance of their offer. These facts were told a Tribune re-porter in an interview with President Betts last night. He said Scranton will be represented in the State league next year, but that the players on the reserve list are included in the pur-chase of the Eastern franchise.

A few weeks ago Scranton parties of-fered $3,000 for the franchize. The offer was refused, as the present owners are unwilling to sell to local buyers for less than from $5,000 to $5,000, on the ground that if the Eastern franchise changed hands in this city it would prevent the present owners from conducting a State league club. There is a pos-sibility that today the association will be paid its price by Scranton parties who will be inducated more by their opposition to State league base ball than by their anxiety to become magnates in the Eastern league.
