

Biliousness.

"I have used that most excellent medicine, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, for upward of fifteen years," writes Mr. J. R. Lacy, of Dryden, N. Y. "I first commenced taking it for biliousness, would vomit until I was exhausted and weak I could not stand."

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY

cured me of this trouble, and in every way has been a great help to me. I gave it to a friend who suffered with dizzy sick spells, and it helped him at once.

Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cures all diseases brought about by an impure condition of the blood, such as eczema, scrofula, rheumatism, urinary troubles, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney and liver complaints. All druggists, $1 a bottle.

CARBONDALE.

SERIOUS RUNAWAY.

Two Young Men Hurt Quite Badly Near Crystal Lake.

Two young men, Will Felts and George Keady, who reside near Crystal Lake had a narrow escape from serious injury while on their way to this city.

They were near the falls when the horse became frightened at something and bolted down the road. They came down at a great speed, and rounding wagon upset, sending both men flying through the air. Both were injured quite badly. Felts having a bad gash on the right temple, his nose broken beside several other bad cuts. Keady was more lucky, only sustaining a few cuts which are not serious. With the help of the neighbors, Felts was taken to Gardner's hotel nearby and Dr. Niles sent for. He was soon on the spot and at once set about making the young man comfortable. The cuts were sewed up, but the doctor fears that the young man's skull has been fractured by the fall.

NEW OPERA COMPANY.

Will Present the Chimes of Normandy for the Benefit of Emergency Hospital.

A new opera company has been organized in this city, which will begin presenting for the production of the "Chimes of Normandy," which will be given for the benefit of Emergency Hospital. The cast will take eleven persons, who are not serious. The rehearsal will commence as soon as possible, the vocalists meeting tonight in the Burke building.

It will be three months before the play can be staged. That it will be a success is one doubt, for the former showings of the company have been excellent. The company will be especially fine, and will be under the direction of W. D. Evans.

The officers elected by the organization are as follows: President, W. B. Crittman, treasurer, Dr. H. C. Wheeler, musical director, W. D. Evans; dramatic director, Richard Lindsay; secretary, A. R. Jones; business manager, Julius Noyes.

STRUCK BY A CAR.

A Wagon Hit with Terrible Force and the Horses Hurt.

A farmer who was in this city disposing of his stock was driving across Church street with his team, when the wagon was struck and serious results were most narrowly avoided.

At the corner of Lincoln avenue the farmer met a buggy and one of the wheels became jammed in the tracks. He attempted to remove it by driving across the track and while doing so was struck by the car, which was coming at a good rate of speed. The shock was so great that one of the horses was thrown to the ground with great force and neither getting off its feet.

The farmer escaped without an injury, but with the horses it was quite different. Both were bleeding badly from numerous cuts and it was with much difficulty that they could stand on their feet. After resting them for some time the farmer drove off, well pleased to escape so easily.

BIRTHDAY RECEPTION.

Unique Entertainment to Be Given by Young Lady Workers.

The young lady workers of the Methodist Episcopal church have issued invitations for a birthday reception at the Methodist Episcopal church on Wednesday evening, Oct. 23, at 7:30 o'clock. The following verse is formed on the invitation:

"Another birthday party we ask you to be another good time in store for you; There'll be song and diversion, delightful in kind; With the hearty welcome you're sure to find."

Now, if you look well, an envelope small will be found here enclosed; we ask you to open it wide and there unfold. As many cents as years you are old. Now if this party you cannot attend, Your gift will be welcome if sent by a friend."
