TO CONFER WITH MR. PLATT

Senator Quay at Last Registers at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

EARLY CONVENTION WANTED

Platt Thinks That It is Neither Necessary Nor Desirable to Prolong the Campaign Agony—Carter and Clarkson Are Present.

New York, Oct. 23.—Senator Matthew Stanley Quay of Pennsylvania arrived today at the Fifth Avenue hotel, which is the city home of ex-Senator Thomas C. Platt, and the long-talked-of conference between the two men, who, it is believed, have it in their power to name the Republican candidate for president of the United States, will take place there. Chairman James S. Clarkson will be there also. Ex-Senator Platt is an advocate of a late convention. He does not believe that a campaign of education is necessary. He thinks that everybody in the United States is thoroughly familiar with the mistakes of Grover Cleveland; that the political warfare will not be misled or fooled; that there is only one road for him to take, and that is the road to Republicanism.

This conference will be preliminary to a meeting of the Republican national committee, which is to be held in Washington in December. As Mr. Quay will probably be the next chairman of the committee his preference in the matter will be of great weight. Mr. Quay has had experience as a national campaign manager. Mr. Clarkson won to Philadelphia to sound him on the subject, and to try to induce him to adopt the western view, which is for an early convention.

In setting the pace for the coming national campaign the Republicans are departing from the usual custom of parties in national campaigns. It has been the rule since the foundation of the Government for the party in power to take the initiative in Presidential campaigns by defining the issues upon which the battle for supremacy is to be fought. Historical precedent will be ignored, however, in this case. The Republicans propose to make new history if Mr. Platt's advice is taken. He is of the opinion that a long campaign is not necessary. There is no issue between the two parties which the people require to be educated. They know of the financial mismanagement, the weak foreign policy and the ruinous tariff system of the Cleveland Administration, and last but not least, long campaigns are expensive. Mr. Platt thinks the question of a meeting place for the Republican National Convention is no matter worth a fight, as yesterday, Chairman Carter, however, has announced that he would likely issue a call to-day for the meeting of the committee in Washington early in December.

A meeting that may mean much to Presidential candidates was held this evening between Mr. Platt, General Alger, of Michigan; Chauncey Fillye, of Missouri; Mr. Quay and Thomas H. Carter, chairman of the Republican national committee. They dined together and discussed the many problems that concerned them. Congressman Fillye was present to advocate the holding of the national convention at St. Louis. He realized that he will have a fight, as Quay is anxious for Pittsburg to be selected, while Mr. Carter and some others favor San Francisco.

After dinner, Quay and Platt had a long conference. Both refused to state what they had discussed but it is understood the various candidates for the presidential nomination were the object of discussion.

C., at 2 o'clock p. m., Dec. 10, 1895, to designate time and place for the third party national convention in 1896, and to transact such other business as may demand consideration."

Dr. Talmage in Washington. Washington, Oct. 23.—A large audience witnessed the installation tonight of Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage as co-pastor of the First Presbyterian church, sometimes called the "president's church" because Mr. Cleveland is a member of the congregation. Dr. Talmage's only participation in the ceremony was to pronounce the benediction.

SPAIN IS REAL SASSY.

Is She Informed That the United States Will Recognize Cuba's Insurgents? London, Oct. 23.—The Central News has a dispatch from Madrid saying that the government has decided upon the arming of several of the Spanish trans-Atlantic company's steamers and the conversion of the old cruisers Numancia and Victoria into modern warships. The steamers will be armed by the beginning of December and will be sent to Cuba.

This action on the part of the government is generally regarded as a preparatory measure against the recognition of the insurgent government by an American government. It is accepted as a certainty that Spain would regard such recognition on the part of any government as an affront and would immediately place the nation upon a war footing and authorize Spanish vessels to capture upon the sea merchantmen belonging to the nation so recognizing the insurgents.

SWALLOWED HIS TEETH.

Allentown Brewer Forgot to Remove Them at Night.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 23.—Captain H. C. Wagner, a widely known veteran of this city, and secretary of a brewing company, is in a serious condition as a result of swallowing his false teeth. When Captain Wagner retired last night he did not remove his artificial teeth, as was his custom. At 3 o'clock this morning he was awakened by a choking sensation in his throat. He sat up in bed, when he was seized with violent spells of vomiting, but it was not until dawn that he discovered that he had swallowed his teeth and that they had lodged in some very uncomfortable place.

The doctors advise Captain Wagner to go to Philadelphia and have the teeth taken out by a surgical operation. It is feared that unless this is done peritonitis will result.

TWO ATTEMPTS TO KILL.

Shot Fired at Young Harrington and His Sister at Night.

Royalston, Mass., Oct. 23.—Two attempts were made to murder Charles Harrington, 19 years old, who lives with his mother near Fitzwilliam line. Some time since an attempt was made to cause young Harrington trouble by removing all the nuts from a wagon in which he was expected to take a drive. This was discovered in time to prevent an accident.

There was a hushing at Harrington's home last evening. While the young man was in the barn with a party of his friends, a shot was fired from the side of the barn. The ball passed through his hat and entered a beam. Harrington had a friend named Newton pass the shot and the other threw an iron bar through the window onto Harrington's bed. Fortunately Harrington was not hit. The selection made for the meeting up, and they held a meeting this afternoon.

ST. LOUIS JOBBERY.

Over $2,000,000 Has Been Sunk in a Worthless City Hall.

St. Louis, Oct. 23.—As the committee investigating the work on the partially completed city hall proceeds with their labors, it finds fresh evidences of fraud in construction. The iron columns in the main building have been found to contain bolt holes which were concealed by iron cement and paint. The trusses are insufficient to sustain the weight of the roof; the towers are believed to be unable to resist high winds; the tiling of the roof is defective, and the building is without drain pipes or sewer connections.

In brief the immense pile of granite and iron which has already cost the city over $2,000,000 is practically worthless as an office building and will have to be reconstructed.

CLEVELAND AT ATLANTA

The President Reviews a Long and Picturesque Procession of Troops.

ALSO DELIVERS AN ADDRESS

Advocates the Application of the Golden Rule to the Civic Relations and Pleads for Unselfishness—Tendered an Enthusiastic Reception.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 23.—President's day at the Cotton States exposition broke bright, balmy and beautiful. Incoming trains brought thousands of visitors, and the streets were crowded at an early hour.

At 10:30 o'clock the military procession passed the Aragon on its way out to the exposition, and Mr. Cleveland and his official family were driven rapidly to the exposition grounds by a special train. They took the reviewing stand, in front of the government building, a few minutes before the head of the column, would arrive in full front of the administration building.

The parade was long and picturesque. United States regulars from Fort Meigs, volunteers from Connecticut, Virginia, North Carolina and Georgia were in line. Governor O'Ferrall and staff, of Virginia, received prolonged cheers as they rode by. Governor Coffin and the rebated governor's foot guards from New Haven, Conn., got a great round of applause. Mr. Cleveland lifted his hat to the commanding officers, as they passed, and gave the review a wide smile. The review being over, Dr. L. S. Houpkins, of Atlanta, delivered a prayer for the president and the prosperity of the nation, and the success of the exposition. President Collier, of the exposition, in a ten minute speech, introduced the president. Though only a small part of the crowd could hear an introduction, all recognized the president and gave a mighty cheer. The president had most respectful attention while he spoke. After a few introductory remarks he said:

"The president's address. "It seems to me the thought may be suggested as not inappropriate to this occasion that what we see about us is an outgrowth of the American spirit manifested on American soil more than a century ago, when a new nation was exhibited to the world.
