Henry G. Victor Died at Time He Was Informed in a Dream He Would Be Called from Earth.

Henry G. Victor, a young man 28 years of age, died yesterday at his home at 135 South Everett avenue from typhoid fever. A curious case of pre-sentment before death is connected with the young man's last hours. His father died some time ago and the young man, upon awakening last Wednesday from a stupor, stated that he had seen the elder Victor in a dream. Moreover, the father had told him that on the following Thursday he would meet him in the great beyond.

The young man's dream lasted one week, he having become unwell on Wednesday the 16th, and awakened the day before he died. The fact that death came at the time he had stated presents a remarkable presentment and adds interest to the case.

Funeral Mention. The late Mrs. Bridget Grey will be buried this morning at 9 o'clock from her late residence at 1017 Lafayette street. A solemn high-mass of requiem will be celebrated at St. Patrick's church and interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The funeral of the late Mrs. Patrick Reilly occurred yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence on Jerome street. Interment was made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The pall-bearers were: George Herrmanns, Geoffrey Michel, M. J. Reilly, Patrick Reilly, Mr. Kelly and Patrick Laville.

The Republic is a Success. A successful literary session was conducted by St. Brendan's council last evening, at their handsome South Main avenue apartments. H. C. Gallagher presided. Mr. Hurst gave an essay on "Literary Work." The effort was thoughtful and instructive. Patrick Duffy gave a select reading, which pleased his auditors. T. L. Larkin recited "Spartacus to the Gladiators at Capua," in remarkable style. The feature of the programme was a debate, "Resolved, That the American Republic is a Success." The affirmative side won by six points. The participants were: Arthur, Durkin, Canavan and Gilroy; negative, Carroll, Conway and Cooper. Rev. P. McNally acted as critic. The meeting was well attended, and a decided interest was taken throughout.

Indoor Base Ball. The first game in the indoor base ball league series will be played Wednesday evening at St. David's hall, between the West Side and South Side teams. Among the well-known players, who are expected to participate in the opening game are: Harry Peck, Harry Becker, Ed. Thayer, Patrick Nokes, Fred Peters, David Davis, E. D. Owen, Will Hughes, Walter Tison, Burt Harrington, George Griffiths, Bernard Haggerty. An invitation has been extended to Haggerty, Jennings and Third Baseman McFarrow, of the champion Baltimore professional team, to umpire the opening game, and it is probable that they will accept and thus add interest to the event. The first practice game of the West Side club will be held this evening in Evan's hall, on Washburn street, and all those desiring to try for a place on the team are requested to meet at that place at 7.30 o'clock.

Dr. Roberts' Serenade. The Lyric Glee club complimented Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Roberts last evening with a delightful serenade at his South Main avenue home. Shortly after 9 o'clock the singers gathered, and from that hour until midnight music stole from out the handsome dwelling in beautiful strains. Speeches interspersed the songs by the club and refreshments and cigars were served.

News Gossip and Personal. John Smith, of Bromley avenue, a well-known actor, is expected to appear in the Lyric Glee club.

well-known and popular young man, and Miss Mary Richards, of Filmore avenue, were married Wednesday evening by Rev. John Griffiths, now of Saint Andrew's Presbyterian church. The young couple will enter into housekeeping in a new and well furnished house on this side.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Archie Jones, of South Main avenue, entertained Wednesday night. A prettily decorated house and obliging entertainers made the time a very enjoyable one for the guests.

Miss Jennie Lewis, of the firm of Lewis, Reilly and Davis, was in Wilkes-Barre Wednesday evening, having been called by the death of a relative. Halloween parties and balls are being prepared. The following of our young people enjoyed a card party given last evening by Miss Jennie Brown, of the central city: Gertrude Powell, Jessie Bristol, Louise Davis, Carrie Decker, Gertrude Dawkins, Miss Marshall, Miss Richards and Charles Boldry, O. Chase, Veri Chase, Will Hutton, Will Betteley, Bert Fellows and George Staples.
