HONESDALE BEATEN.

Completely Outclassed by the High School Boys.

Saturday a foot ball team representing Honesdale came over the mountains to have revenge upon the high school foot ball team, who played them in Honesdale last week and beat them by the score of 18-0. The hopes of the Honesdalians were dashed to the ground and they returned to their homes sad, but wiser men.

The Honesdale aggregation arrived upon the 1230 o'clock train, being accompanied by several enthusiasts. The game started about 3.30 and the attendance was quite large, many young ladies with the colors red and blue being present.

Carbondale kicked off, but the Honesdale player was downed on the spot. Honesdale then tried to go rouml the ends, but were blocked. The ball went to Carbondale on downs after the Maple City boys had pushed it nearly to the center of the field. The Carbondale boys at once showed their superior team work and soon the ball was on the 15-yard line. Then for some reason only known to the umpire the ball went to Honesdale. They punted, but the ball was caught by Forbes, who made a pretty run. At this time another delay was caused by the umpire laying off one of Carbondale men. His place was soon filled and the game went on. After several rushes Watt, after a pretty run of twenty yards, went over the line for a touchdown. Forbes kicked a pretty goal and the half was over, the score being 6-0 in the high school's favor.

Honesdale kicked off in the second half and went in not and heavy. Nothing could stop the terrific rushes around the ends and plunges through the center. Watt and McDonald made long runs and Abbot went around left end for fifty yards and a touchdown. The Honesdale kicked off the half, four more touchdowns had been secured, from which goals were kicked by Forbes. lue being present. Carbondale kicked off, but the Hones touchdowns had been secured, from which goals were kicked by Forbes. The game, which would otherwise have been interesting, was somewhat marred by the wrangling of the players, who were disgusted by the umpire's decisions. Some of them were so manifestly wrong that the team was several times on the point of leaving the field.

the field.

The Honesdale boys are very verdant in all particulars relating to foot dant in all particulars relating to foot dant in all particulars relating to foot ball. Their game was nearly all of the puncing order and only once did the runner get past the ends. He was brought down with great force by the high school's full back, who mails one of the prettient tackles of the game. The final score was 30-0. The high school team will get down to hard practice next week and good results. practice next week and good results may be expected.

CHILDREN CAUSE TROUBLE.

Miss Gilmartin Complains That Her Life lins Been Threatened.

Miss Bridget Gilmartin,a teacher em-

Miss Bridget Gilmartin, a teacher employed at the public school in the annexed district, made complaint to the school board that she had been badly treated and her life threatened by Sylvester Sears and his wife. Miss Gilmartin had occasion to punish a son of these people and the child went home and told his parents that he had been punished for nothing at all. They at once went to the school and without inquiring into the merits of the case began to abuse the teacher.

A member of the school board went to Alderman Baker's office and a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of Sears and his wife. The document was given to Constable Moran and the parties were brought before the alderman Friday evening, where they waived a hearing. A number of school children were present who were willing to testify. but their evidence was not taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Sears were each placd under $200 ball to keep the peace. William Collins was secured as bondsman.

Mr. Bignars injuries were the most serious, his thigh being broken and he is only now able to walk with course.

For the injuries which he received Mr. Bignar claims damages to the amount of $2,000. He will not probably receive the entire amount but will get probably 1,600, and all litigation will be avoided. Detective Crippen, who is an expert in such matters, is adjusting the claim which will be settled through a Philadelphia accident insurance company, which assumes the responsibility of that sort of accidents which occur on the Transit company's line.

RUNAWAY ON SAND STREET. The Horses of Brundage Make a Wild

Dash.

Dash.

Saturday morning as L. M. Brundage, who keeps a butcher shop on Salem avenue, was making his regular calls on Sand street, he left his wagon in the charge of a little boy while he went to see some stock which he contemplated purchasing. He had gone but a few yards when the horses made a wild dash for liberty.

The wagon caught in Mr. Ford's picket fence and the pickets were completely demolished. This did not stop the team, but only added to their flight and they sped on, the pace being terrible, the wagon swaying from side to side and looking every moment as if it would be overturned. Several children in the street narrowly escaped being run down by the horses in their mad rush. The horses finally turned into a vacant lot and here the lines, which were dragging, became tangled and before loosened the horses were captured.
