WILKES-BARRE.

THE PREACHERS MEET.

Address Made by Dr. Hard and Rev. Wilson Treible.

At the meeting of the Methodist Episcopal ministers held yesterday morning in the First Methodist Episcopal church on North Franklin street, Rev. J. F. Williams presided. The opening devotional exercises were conducted by Dr. Manley S. Hard, after which the secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting which were adopted. Rev. J. G. Eckman, presiding elder, then briefly addressed the meeting, with encouragement in the outlook of the work of the district. Dr. Hard then briefly outlined his work and the recent trip he took to Fort Benton, Mont. He spoke of the heroic ministers and their splendid work, and said that Methodism has a very strong hold in Montana. At Helena the conference was held. The doctor spoke of Helena and its placer mining, of its great gold resources, and of Butte with its gold and not a flower or green thing to be seen. Yet wickedness was at a premium. Indeed Butte is the wickedest city the doctor has been in. Immorality, the woman in scarlet, is positively to the front, but there is even in this city the leaven of the gospel and that will eventually leaven the whole lump. The doctor spoke of his love for Wyoming valley and the progressiveness of this region by comparison with the west.

The regular speaker of the session was Rev. W. Treible and his subject was "The Relation of the Holy Ghost to Revival Work." The Holy Ghost is of great importance in revival work, although it did not mean as much under the old dispensation as it does to us. It was then simply the name for the invisible, a grand and rich unfolding of the Godhead, and is manifested as the spiritual influence of a present God.

Revivals are successful in proportion as the revival Holy Ghost is present with its power. No evangelist, however renowned, ought to take the place of the pastor of the church, and the pastor submerged into the Holy Spirit will find that he has the greatest revival power. The pastor is the overseer of the Holy Ghost to the churches. He must preach for the amens of the spirit and not for the plaudits of men. The Holy Ghost is related to prayer. The Holy Ghost must be the director of the song service. Choirs and leaders need an inspiration of the Holy Ghost in order to sing the gospel and without it the singing cannot be effective.

How can the church be led into spiritual power? By the church living in the spirit. The spirit is the author of Christian life. Give the member a pentecostal baptism and the church is ready for conquest in revival work.

After Mr. Treible's paper, a hymn was sung and Rev. J. F. Warner led in prayer. There was no discussion on the paper, but it was highly commended by all the ministers present. Rev. J. K. Peck reported that Dr. Carss, of Kingston, would present a paper on the subject of "Progress" at the next meeting. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Treible and the meeting was dismissed with the benediction by Dr. Morg.

The following ministers were in attendance: Revs. J. F. Williams, Laceme; T. M. Furey, Waramie; J. G. Eckman, Scranton; M. S. Hard, J. K. Peck, H. C. McDermott, Kingston; J. B. Sweet, Ashley; O. L. Severson, Plymouth; J. B. Sumner, Nanticoke; J. F. Warner, G. E. Morg, Wilkes-Barre; Y. C. Smith, West Pittston; Abel Weigley, Coverton; J. La Bar, W. Treible, Wyoming; J. Madison, J. Jones, Pittston; N. J. Hawley, Trucksville.

Killed on the Bridge.

Yesterday morning an Italian scissors grinder was walking across Plymouth bridge, when he was struck by an engine coming behind him and instantly killed. The engine was No. 5 owned by the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal company. The poor directors took charge of the body and sent it to Doran's undertaking establishment for burial. No one seemed to know the man's name, although it was said that he lived at Lattimer.

TWO EQUITY COURTS.

Two Courts in Equity Were Running Yesterday Morning.

Judge Lynch had before him yesterday the case in equity of the Commonwealth ex. rel. vs. The Pittston Bridge company. The trouble arises from the company's refusal to build the span which was burnt down in 1885 so as to reach the Main street without an extra pier. The pier they want to put at a point in an old public road. The case took until 12.30, when Judge Lynch adjourned it until today, when the hearing will be completed. H. W. Palmer and G. M. and J. S. Harding for plaintiff; Alex. Farnham for defendant.

Judge Bennett heard the case of Hazleton Borough vs. Harry Jacobs, controller of Hazleton, to force him to sign an ordinance passed by council to enter into an agreement with an Electric Light company to furnish light for a term of years. Jacobs will not sign, alleging that the city's funds do not warrant the expenditure. George H. Troutman and H. W. Palmer for defendant; John T. Lenahan and Thomas F. McNair for plaintiff. The court took the papers.

The Committees at Work.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians of Lackawanna and Luzerne counties have begun work at raising money to help Father Jordan build his new church at Rendham. Divisions 1, 18 and 12, Ancient Order of Hibernians, of this city, have finally consented to enter into a contest against three divisions of Lackawanna county for a silk flag for the benefit of the church of St. Lawrence at Rendham, Lackawanna county. The following executive committee was selected to conduct the contest for Luzerne county: From Division 1, Bernard O'Keefe, Anthony Walsh, Patrick Mullen; Division 18, John Hunt, Daniel O'Donnell, jr., William J. Kelly; Division 12, John B. Boyle, Thomas M. Dullard, James Fox. The executive committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon and elected the following officers: President, Thomas M. Dullard; secretary, Daniel O'Donnell; treasurer, Bernard O'Keefe.

McKinley Will Come.

Yesterday morning the president of the Oratorio society received the following letter, which explains itself:

New York City, Oct. 27, 1895.

John B. Russell, president Wilkes-Barre Oratorio Society.

Dear Sir: Your very kind favor received and it is with pleasure that I at once reply to say that if you desire my services for the evening of Nov. 6 you can have them most willingly without compensation.

I have always regretted the illness that prevented my attending your festival last June and really rejoice for this opportunity to show my honesty of purpose to legitimately make amends. If you will let me know how many songs you will want from me I will at once forward my selections.

Wishing your society every success, I remain very truly yours,

J. H. McKinley.

Funeral of Mrs. Coons.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Coons was held yesterday afternoon from her late home, on North Washington street, and many friends assembled to take their last view of the deceased. The casket was covered with many beautiful floral offerings, and Rev. Mr. Fuerlicht, of Scranton, preached the sermon at the house. The pall-bearers were Henry Hoffheimer, Edward Constine, Ig Freeman, Isaac Long, Bernard Burgunder and S. J. Strauss. Interment was made in the Jewish cemetery at Hanover.

BRIEF NOTES.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret Lynot, of this city, was held from her late residence on Northampton street yesterday morning. A requiem mass was celebrated at St. Mary's church.

Miss Emma Dunleavy, of Scranton, Messrs. P. J. Noone and Frank Day, of Pittston; M. Golden and M. Gorman, of Wilkes-Barre, were entertained at the Murphy residence, on the West Side, yesterday.

Miss Maria Barrett returned home yesterday after a pleasant trip to Ireland. She has been greatly benefited in her health, having been absent several months.

Yesterday morning, while John Kitterick and James Slattery, employes of the silk mill, were performing their duties, the scaffolding gave way and the men were precipitated into the foundation, a distance of about thirty feet. Both received severe injuries. Mr. Slattery's arm was broken and Kitterick sustained internal injuries. They were removed to their homes, a short distance away, and medical aid immediately summoned. It is expected that they will be around in a short while.

All citizens interested in the improvement of the town should vote for the "light" at the coming election, Nov. 5.

Miss Lizzie Renaiman was a visitor in Scranton yesterday.

Mrs. Newton Hoskins spent yesterday with friends in Pittston.

Miss B. Gibbons, of Scranton, was a visitor at the Gibbons residence on Sunday.

Misses Lydia and Teresa Connor, of Grove street, spent Sunday with friends in Scranton.

A pleasant gathering of young folks collected at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, on Main street, last evening in honor of Mr. Brown's birthday. Refreshments were served and various amusements were indulged in, after which they repaired to their respective homes, after congratulating their host and wishing him many happy returns.

The public schools of this borough will be closed this week, on account of the teachers' institute at Scranton.

HONESDALE.

No clue as to the whereabouts of the Hawley burglars and murderers has as yet been obtained. The last seen of them was at Port Jervis, where they left the train that they had boarded at Lackawaxen. They seemed to have plenty of money, and cannot be classed with ordinary tramps. They were evidently professional burglars.

John Kallighan met with an accident at the Erie pockets yesterday morning that came near proving fatal. He was cleaning one of a train of cars when another car bumped into the rear car. The shock threw him off ahead of the front car and as the train began to move he was caught under the brake-beam and badly bruised. Dr. Brady was called and found him suffering from dislocation of the thigh, about which there were several deep cuts. He was also bruised about the face and body.

Eugene Ham, wife and child, of Scranton, are visiting his parents here.

Notice of the sale of the property of John Howe has been given by the sheriff.

Attorney Russell Dimmick and Dr. R. W. Burns, of Scranton, passed Sunday here.
