WILKES-BARRE.

OSBORNE-MIDDLETON.

Miss Jennie Osborne United in Marriage to H. W. Middleton.

A large and fashionable audience assembled in St. Stephens' Protestant Episcopal church at 7.30 last evening to attend the wedding of Miss Jennie, daughter of General E. S. Osborne, to Howard W. Middleton, of Philadelphia. The groom is a prominent young Philadelphian and a member of the firm of the Middleton Iron company, of that city. The altar was a mass of palms and the church was otherwise beautifully decorated.

The bridal party came up the aisle to the music of the wedding march of "Lohengrin" played by Organist Wilcox. First came the ushers, Messrs. H. Chester Vansant, Peter Fritz, Thomas Potts and Wilmer Middleton, all of Philadelphia. Then came the bridesmaids, Misses Margaret Sterling and Nellie Martin, of this city; Miss Mary Middleton, of Germantown, sister of the groom, and Miss Frances Eggleston, of East Orange, N. J. They were dressed in white taffeta, covered with mousseline de soie, cut low with white satin trimmings and each carried yellow chrysanthemums. They were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Fannie Osborne, who was dressed in the same costume except that she carried white roses instead of chrysanthemums. Then came the bride, escorted by her father. She was dressed in heavy white satin, trimmed with duchess lace and pearl with tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms and a diamond pin. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry L. Jones and the party left the church in the reverse order to the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride on North Franklin street.

Mr. and Mrs. Middleton left on their wedding tour on the midnight train. They will reside in Germantown and will be at home after Dec. 1.

THREE DIVORCES WANTED.

A Trio of Couples Find Marriage Is a Failure.

Three applications for divorces were filed yesterday in the courts. The first was that of Mary E. Newhart, who, through her attorney, T. R. Martin, entered a petition in divorce from her husband, E. A. Newhart, whom she charges with desertion. They were married in Binghamton, N. Y., and lived together until two years ago. They lived in Kingston township until their separation took place.

Sarah C. Hankey has issued a similar suit against her husband, Wilson Hankey, also charging desertion. They were married May 28, 1893, and lived together until Aug. 27, 1893, at Shickshinny. Three months was the extent of their happy married life. The subpoenas were all awarded by the court.

Mary Templeton, by her next friend, Annie Hawley, has applied for a subpoena in divorce from her husband, James Templeton. She charges indignities and cruel treatment. They were married in 1883 and lived together until 1894, living most of the time in this city.

The Transfer System.

On Nov. 15 the Traction company will inaugurate their transfer system. A transfer ticket costs five cents, and can only be used in the city limits and then not in cases where commutation books are used.

The following is an explanation of the system: For example, if a passenger gets on a car at Hollenback cemetery and wishes to go to South Wilkesarre, a transfer ticket will be used. The conductor will punch the ticket for the line on which the next car leaves; that is, if the passenger riding on the Plymouth, Carey avenue line, because tery reaches the Square at, say, 10.05 o'clock his ticket is punched for the Plymouth Carey avenue line, because the Plymouth car will be next to leave for South Wilkes-Barre, at 10.10 o'clock; and this is the only line on which the person using the transfer ticket is allowed to reach his destination. Only those paying a 5-cent fare can enjoy the transfer privilege.

A passenger coming from, or going to any point outside the city limits cannot use a transfer ticket. For instance, if a resident of Kingston wishes to go to South Wilkes-Barre he will have to do so by paying two fares according to the old system. To those riding within the city limits only will the transfer system apply.

NEW WATER SCHEME.

A Combination of All the Companies Is Now Proposed.

The law and ordinance, sanitary and street committees met at the city hall on Tuesday, and a gigantic water scheme was introduced. It was a proposed combination between the Wilkes-Barre, Crystal Spring, Campbell's Ledge (Consumer's) and Spring Brook Water companies; the building of a mammoth reservoir at or near Falling Spring, above Coxton yards, into which water will be pumped from the river during the dry season, filtered and then dealt out to consumers in this city and elsewhere in the territory touched by these various companies.

A general estimate of the expense of this scheme—construction of reservoir, placing of pipes, etc., will be about $150,000, which will be paid pro rata by the companies concerned. The scheme was taken in hand by the committees of council and another meeting will be held the beginning of next week to consider it. The officials of the Crystal Spring Water company have been in communication with president Maxwell, of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, who is also interested in the Crystal Spring company, and he has told them to adopt any scheme that will lead out of the difficulty and give a new source of supply. The company had intended getting its water from the Lehigh river, but that scheme has been abandoned because the engineers have found that in order to get the Lehigh water to all of its customers there would be a lift of about six hundred feet, and this would require an enormous pump pressure.

Better Sunday Observance.

An important meeting of the Board of Managers of Northeastern Pennsylvania Sabbath union was held at the office of John Welles Hollenback, president of the society, in this city, yesterday. The following members of the board were in attendance: J. Welles Hollenback, W. L. Conyngham, H. A. Fuller, Paul J. Sherwood and Rev. Dr. T. A. Mills, of this city; Rev. F. A. Dony and J. Lawrence Stelle, of Scranton, and S. W. Dickson, of Berwick. Among the important items of business transacted was the arrangements of a meeting of pastors and church committees to be held in this city on Monday evening, Nov. 11, in the Young Men's Christian association building. It is understood that this is the beginning of a movement for the better observance of the Sabbath in Wilkes-Barre.

The First and Last.

Contractor M. B. Houpt, of this city, has taken his last contract, and hereafter will devote himself exclusively to his lumber business and the planning of buildings. The last building Mr. Houpt worked on was the new Marks buildings, now in course of erection on the corner of South Main and the Square. His first work was on the old Lowenstein building, which occupied the same site of the new Marks structure. The fact of Mr. Houpt performing his first and last work on the same spot is a singular coincidence.

The Parade Next Sunday.

The St. Aloysius society at a meeting last evening decided to take part in the parade on Sunday on the occasion of the dedication of the new church on Scott street on Sunday. The society also donated $100 to the new church. The parade will form at St. Mary's church at 9.30 o'clock. The line of march will be down Washington street to South; out South to South Main, to Square, North Main to Union, to Washington, to North, to Scott, and out to the new church.

Hurt in the Mines.

John Lavelle, aged 18, of Coal street, an outside employe at the Empire colliery, while running ahead of a trip yesterday morning was caught between a car and a prop under the breaker and badly squeezed about the head and body, though the accident terminated fortunately for he might have been drawn under the cars and ground to pieces. He was taken home in an ambulance and will probably recover.

Held for Court.

Mesheck Reese, the man who was arrested a short time ago for a criminal assault on Miss Julia Barker, and was held for court by Mayor Nichols, had a habeas corpus hearing before Judge Woodward yesterday. He had gone to jail in default of $1,000 bail, and after the hearing yesterday, Judge Woodward reduced the bail to $500. This he was still unable to get, and was sent back to jail again.

BRIEF NOTES.

The Wilkes-Barre Wheelmen held a venison barbecue in their rooms last Tuesday evening.

Judge Woodward has consented to introduce Rev. Dr. Stafford, on the occasion of his lecture in this city next month. St. Mary's Glee club will sing and a committee of honor will occupy positions on the stage.

Mrs. J. C. Meixell entertained a number of friends at her home last evening, in honor of Miss Sadie Kaiser.

Lewis Kleeman, son of Jacob Kleeman, of this city, was shot by train robbers last Sunday in Ohio. He is a detective on the Big Four Railroad company.

The Musical and Literary society of the Puritan church, will give one of their pleasant entertainments on Friday evening in the church building.

Coalville lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, celebrated their fifth anniversary last Tuesday evening.

The new Miner Congregational church will be dedicated on Saturday of this week, at Plains.

The condition of Mrs. B. M. Espy was not changed perceptibly yesterday.

Cards have been issued for the wedding of David Cook, of Hazleton, and Miss Minnie A. Walker, of Scranton. The ceremony takes place Nov. 6.

The county commissioners' staff is hard at work preparing for the distribution of the ballots for next Tuesday's election.

The benefit concert of the Oratorio society next Wednesday evening in the Grand promises to be one of the best attended concerts ever heard in this city.

Edward R. Lumsden and Miss Lena M. Becker were married in the First Presbyterian church last Tuesday evening by Rev. Dr. Hodge.

FARMING FOR CONVICTS.

Mayor Pingree Would Have Them Cultivate Mushrooms or French Peas.

Detroit, Oct. 30.—"I'd like to have attended that prison congress yesterday," said Mayor Pingree today. "I'd have told them something about caring for prisoners. Easiest thing in the world. All they've got to do is to put these prisoners to work on a big state farm, where they can support themselves. The prisoners can raise any quantity of things that would not compete with the farmer at all.

"Take mushrooms, or French peas, for example. Big money in them. Teach the men how to make a living farming, and then give them a few acres to work when they are released. Could have their prison farm on an island or surrounded with a big stockade. There wouldn't be any trouble about prisoners escaping."

CITY TERRORIZED BY MANIAC.

Four Murders Attempted in Emporia, Kan., by a Crazy Man.

Emporia, Kan., Oct. 30.—A crazy man has been creating a reign of terror in Emporia for the last few days. He was arrested once, but escaped, and the same day went to a house in the suburbs and threatened to kill a woman who answered his knock at the door. Next day he attempted to kill Night Watchman Zickafoos at the Santa Fe yards with a knife, and in the evening attacked Yardman Dowd with a coupling pin.

He then disappeared until last night, when he attacked a switchman in the south end of town, this time being armed with a huge knife. The switchman escaped by running. Women and children are terror-stricken, and the papers advise them to remain at home until the police capture him.

MINISTER SUES FOR SLANDER

Accused by a Brother Pastor of Casting Slurs on His Private Life.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 30.—Rev. J. A. Witham, of Findlay, Ohio, has begun suit in the United States court against Rev. H. D. F. Gaffin, of Sunfield, Mich., for slander, and lays damages at $5,000. Witham formerly belonged to the Mhicigan Free Methodist conference, and some time ago withdrew and removed to Ohio.

The suit is based on a letter alleged to have been written by Gaffin from Coopersville in October, 1893, attacking the domestic relations of Witham.

Dentist in New Plate Business.

New York, Oct. 30.—Dr. Orlando E. Bradford, the dentist who was last week convicted of having in his possession plates for counterfeiting $100 bills, was this afternoon sentenced to six years in the Kings county penitentiary.

PROF. COLES FOR NOVEMBER.

Weather Predictions for the Month That Will Appear in Storms and Signs.

The November number of "Storms and Signs," Professor Coles' new periodical, which will appear on Saturday, contains the following weather forecast for the month:

Storms.

The planets this month are in a very unusual position. They are all morning stars. This will not occur again in a great many years. All weather prognosticators agree "that November is free from all disturbing influences." But what is that sea of floating matter stretching across the sun? Does it mean peace and quietude, or does it mean destruction and disquietude? Does it mean blizzards, or does it mean sizzards? Time alone will tell. Watch my prophecies: Other disturbances will pass between the earth and the sun on or about the 3d inst., causing destructive storms and high winds in many localities.

On or about the middle o the month these disturbances will pass away from the sun, causing wild winds, accompanied by rain, snow and hail. But for these strange disturbances the regular and reactionary storm periods would fall upon or about the following dates: 2 3, 6, 9, 11, 13, 15, 17, 20, 25, 27, 29 or 30th, with cold waves following four of these periods. If the wind swings to the southeast during the high wind periods mentioned above, severe rains and destructive floods will be the result, followed by summer-like weather. But if the wind swings to the north or northeast look out for frequent storms and squalls sandwiched with regular November blizzards in the north, passing well to the south, sending our Indian summer away into the middle of next month. Jupiter being the ruling planet this month denotes the motion of armies, the destruction of great men and kings, fevers and epidemics of diseases, earthquakes and great strife!

Signs.

Venus will be in sign Leo on the 3d.
Mars will be in sign Libra on the 10th.
Jupiter will be in sign Cancer on the 17th.
Saturn will be in sign Libra on the 24th.
Therefore; the vital forces of all human and vegetable life will be at their "highest flood" on the following dates: 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 17, 18, 26 and 27; and at their "lowest ebb" on the 1, 2, 3, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 19, 20 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 27, 28 and 30.

More Trouble.

The "low ebb" figures having control of the month by a two-thirds majority foretells the coming of some fearful epidemic or strange disturbance of the elements!
