SCRANTON, OCTOBER 31, 1895.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Judges of the Superior Court: CHARLES E. RICE, of Luzerne. E. N. WILLIAMS, of Lackawanna.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For Governor: SAMUEL P. LONGSTREET, M. D. of Scranton. For Surveyor: EDMUND A. BARTL, of Scranton.

Lackawanna county ought to give Judge Willard 3,000 plurality; and if it made it 5,000 it would not exceed the demands of propriety.

The Test of Manly Republicanism.

At the risk of repetition we again call the attention of the Republicans of Lackawanna county to the fact that the peculiar conditions of the present campaign make doubly necessary the polling by them, on Tuesday next, of every possible vote, and the bringing into camp, also, of every available convert.

Prove It or Retract.

The charge of the chairman of the Maryland Republican committee, Congressman George L. Wellington, that Senator Quay is helping Senator Gorman, the Democratic leader in Maryland, is denied by Senator Quay, as is natural. It will not receive credence until thoroughly supported by proof.

COMMENT OF THE PRESS.

Our Legal Attitude Toward Spain. Philadelphia Record: "The duty of the government of the United States in so far as it effects the struggle in Cuba is strictly confined to the enforcement of the laws of the United States which prohibit the fitting out of armed vessels and the recruiting of men for their service against a power with which we are at peace."

The Value of Railroads.

In overruling a verdict of damages against a railroad company and ordering a new trial, Judge Miller, of Mercer county, sitting at New Castle, recently remarked to the jury which brought in the finding: "There is a good deal of feeling against railroad corporations. There are a few men who go over the country who seem to have no occupation except talking against corporations, and they try to make people believe that the railroads are the most beneficial institutions in the country. What would New Castle be without railroads? It would be a little way station on the old Erie and Pittsburgh canal—a village of perhaps 500 or 600 inhabitants."

There are two sides to the question, and Judge Miller appears to have confined his vision to the side representing the railroads. A better attitude would be to deal fairly with both sides, which, if often done in courts of justice, would quickly tend to allay much of the feeling which exists against railway corporations as a class.

For a Short Campaign.

The Scranton board of trade will make no mistake if it promptly repeats the action of the Cleveland, O., board in adopting resolutions favoring a short presidential campaign. Upon this point the business interests of the country are practically unanimous.

Why? Because the drama doesn't draw. Why doesn't it draw? One reason is that the people haven't the price. The main reason is that they have reached the conclusion that they have been swindled long enough. What the drama needs is actors who can act.

Runs to Queer Mixtures. Philadelphia Record: "England's new poet laureate, like his predecessor, is named Alfred. Even in poetry English taste runs to Alf and 'alf'."

A Dangerous Competitor. Chicago Times-Herald: "England fears that Russia is disposed to go out and work the same side of the street she has been operating on."

The Trouble with Mr. Platt. Chicago Times-Herald: "It is thought that Hon. Thomas Collier Platt is long on cabinet expectations and short on terminal facilities."

EDUCATIONAL STATISTICS. The Extent of the School Systems of the United States. From the Washington Star.

Over one-fifth of us are in school. This at least was the case in 1902-3, says the annual report of Dr. W. T. Harris, United States commissioner of education. The statistics are for those years, and show there were 14,622,929 pupils enrolled in schools, colleges and various institutions of learning.

Like many little bad boys about us this evening, he will be a striking example of what mamma's darling should not be. Mr. Saul, who went to jail rather than 'stand and deliver' costs upon tax of which he knew nothing, has no appreciation of the fitness of things.

Do not duck for large official apples when there are small ones in the same tub. Remember the fate of Mr. Burke. Keep an eye out for youthful ghosts tonight.

Mr. Saul, who went to jail rather than 'stand and deliver' costs upon tax of which he knew nothing, has no appreciation of the fitness of things. If a newcomer is not hit occasionally by this peculiar system of tax collection, how may our constables and suburban aldermen exist?

Senators Quay's ambition doubtless ends at the desire to be president by proxy. A semi-official Madrid newspaper notifies the people of the United States that they had better have a care how they ill-treat Spain, for Spaniards "come of a race in whose veins flows the blood of heroes."

Republicans cannot afford to let the "offense" of the year be the excuse for unwon Democratic gains. There should be no "off years" in the calendar of militant Republicanism.

The loyal Republican will not have to be coaxed long to go to the polls. The knowledge that next Tuesday is election day ought to be an ample incentive.

Senators Quay's suggestions are worthy of the attention of the next congress. If President Cleveland should refuse to sign a bill based on them, they will make the framework of an acceptable Republican platform in 1896.

Philadelphia Record: "The duty of the government of the United States in so far as it effects the struggle in Cuba is strictly confined to the enforcement of the laws of the United States which prohibit the fitting out of armed vessels and the recruiting of men for their service against a power with which we are at peace."

It is a matter of simple justice to Senator Quay to say that while there has at various times been opposition to his leadership within the Republican party of Pennsylvania, the charge of party treason has never even been whispered.

Speaking of the Golden Rule, it strikes us that President Cleveland, remembering Lafayette and the French patriots of 1776, might well apply it to the case of Cuba.

The recent lurid article by Senator Chandler predicting and almost inviting an early war with England has elicited from Charles Emory Smith one of the most courteous yet effective rebukes in recent times.

Needs Actors Who Can Act. Rochester Post-Express: "Janusobek complains of the degeneracy of the stage."
