CARBONDALE.

THE FIRST REHEARSAL.

A Large Number Were Present at the Meeting of Lyceum Opera Company.

The first rehearsal of the Lyceum Opera company was a most decided success, an unusual number of people turning out. About fifty young people were present, but there were many others who were unable to attend. They have signified their willingness to become members of the company, however, and the prospects of a large chorus are good. All the vocalists will be of the best that can be found in the city and with the experience had in the former opera this one will eclipse all past attempts.

Professor Lindsay was not present, but will be on hand Monday evening, when a full attendance is desired. This will commence the real rehearsals and they will be continued through November and December. The cast will be given out on Monday.

Those who have already decided to take part in the opera are Mrs. J. B. Rowlson, Cora Avery, Mary Gerrity, Bridget Gerins, Elizabeth Davis, Sarah Chilton, Mame Bryson, Mame Cannon, Sadie Timlin, Annie Keller, Emma Swartz, Susie Banks, Emma Udy, Isabel Maxwell, Mame Daley, Eunice Bryson, Sadie Lewis, Sarah Davis, Grace Vannan, Eula Carey, Nettie Burdick, Ella Purdy, Lizzie Wyllie, Minnie Bowen, Maggie Duffy, Regina McCabe, D. J. Moyles, Thomas Kirkwood, P. J. Boylan, J. B. Rowlson, Melvin Tappen, Isaac Hollenbeck, W. L. Leonard, John Bone, Will Stephens, C. P. O'Connor, Harry Rettew, Dwight Crane, E. D. Yarrington, A. Niesen, Patrick Kirkwood, John O'Rourke, Joseph Birs, Charles Bridgett, A. R. Jones, Charles Munn, Dr. H. C. Wheeler, W. D. Evans.

SERIOUS TROUBLES

Experienced by Mr. Hobart, of Clifford. A Man from Rural Districts.

A man from the rural districts passed through town Wednesday, and on his way home had a lively time with his wagon. At Mayfield Mr. Hobart met two old ladies who asked him for a ride. The request was granted and they got in.

Mr. Hobart's load was already a heavy one, and with the additional load the strain was very great upon the wagon, which had a defective axle. Mr. Hobart did not think of this, however, and proceeded on his way. Things were all right until he reached the South Side. Here the wagon hit a large rock and the front axle gave way.

With the help of several young men temporary repairs were made and he was able to go on. He passed through town at 8 o'clock, but in front of Hotel Harrison his wagon once more gave way. A large crowd soon gathered about the unfortunate man, who had sought relief in the foaming beverage. Another wagon was finally secured and Hobart proceeded on his way rejoicing.

TERRIBLY SQUEEZED.

William Bradley Caught Between a Car and Pillar.

William Bradley, jr., son of Constable Bradley, of Carbondale township, met with a distressing accident yesterday morning.

Mr. Bradley is employed at the Powderly mines, on the South Side, and is a laborer.

The young man had stepped to one side to allow a trip of cars which were approaching to pass. Just before they reached him, however, the first car jumped the track and ran against Bradly. The place was so narrow that he could not avoid the car and was caught between it and a pillar. Miners nearby heard his cries for help and hurried to his assistance and he soon was rescued from his painful position.

He was taken to the hospital and is resting quite comfortably at present.

REPUBLICANS, ATTENTION.

A Rally Will Be Held in the Sixth Ward on Monday.

On next Monday, Nov. 4, the Republican club will hold a rally of the Sixth ward citizens at the rooms of the Sixth Ward Republican club. The rally promises to be very enthusiastic as several prominent speakers have been secured, who will give addresses. Besides this there will be speeches by local men.

All those who desire to hear the coming campaign discussed should be present, as it will be free to all. The Republicans of the Sixth ward expect to make things lively then and are starting good and early.

Layman-Rutan Nuptials.

A quiet wedding was celebrated at the Bereah Baptist parsonage Wednesday evening. The contracting parties were Frederick Layman and Miss Margaret Rutan, both of this city. The groom is a well-known young man of Harlem avenue. The bride, until recently, resided at Auburn, Pa., but two months ago became a member of the household of Mr. Layman. The wedding was very quiet. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. E. Jepson.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over Fifty Years by Millions of Mothers for their Children while Teething, with Perfect Success. It Soothes the Child, Softens the Gums, Allays all Pain; Cures Wind Colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

S. G. Kerr Will Not Retire.

It has been rumored that S. G. Kerr, the well-known carpet merchant of the firm of Kerr, Siebecker & Co., contemplated retirement. On being interviewed he said that he had heard such rumors himself, but that there was no foundation for them, whatever. He expects to stay in business as long as health and strength will allow him to do so. Mr. Kerr also said that he had rented the new Burke building on Sixth avenue and about Jan. 1 he expected to open a fine assortment of furniture, carpet, rugs, mattings, draperies, etc., in fact, the same class of goods that is now kept in their Church street store. The new store will be conducted under the firm name of S. G. Kerr & Son, and will be a credit to our city. Mr. Kerr has had much experience in the line of business and knows how to please and the kind of goods required by the buyer.

New Officers of the Lotus Club.

The semi-annual election of officers occurred Wednesday night at the Lotus club rooms and the meeting was attended by a large portion of the members. The number of aspirants for the different offices were many and the election, though spirited, was a friendly one. The following officers were elected: John B. Bergan, president; Peter Anderson, vice-president; C. P. O'Connor, recording secretary; M. F. Neary, financial secretary; Stanley Maxwell, treasurer; Dan T. Gilmartin and P. Byrne, librarians; P. A. Duffy, Richard Malone and Lawrence O'Grady were elected trustees.

ARCHBALD

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the funeral of the late Mrs. Isabella Jones, took place from the residence, on South Main street. For several hours previous to the time fixed for the funeral the house was thronged with friends of the deceased, who had came to look upon her face for the last time. Many of these bore floral tokens, which were placed on the bier of the departed. Among the offerings were a very beautiful cross from E. S. Jones and sisters, of Olyphant, and a basket of roses from the brothers and sisters of the deceased. Besides these there were others from relatives and acquaintances. The services were conducted by Rev. W. A. Beecher, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The choir of the church sang appropriate selections, and Rev. Mr. Beecher preached from the text, "Blessed are the dead, who die in the Lord." The cortege moved to the Protestant cemetery, where Rev. Mr. Beecher again offered prayer and the body was then consigned to the grave. The pall-bearers were: John Linderman, John J. Langan, T. P. Moran, W. J. Gilroy, John O'Rourke and John J. Brogan. The flower-bearers were: C. A. Battenberg and Arthur Clarkson. Mrs. Jones was a member of Rebekah Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and out of respect for her that society, as well as Archbald lodge, attended the funeral in a body. Despite the bad weather the funeral was very large.

TO OUR PATRONS:

Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many patrons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop is fully cured. New wheat is now upon the market, and owing to the excessively dry weather many millers are of the opinion that it is already cured, and in proper condition for milling. Washburn-Crosby Co. will take no risks, and will allow the new wheat fully three months to mature before grinding.

This careful attention to every detail of milling has placed Washburn-Crosby Co.'s flour far above other brands.
