A Peculiar Fire.

Yesterday afternoon a fire occurred In Martin's jewelry store, on Public Square, which might have been a most serious affair. Matches were kept in one of the drawers and it is thought that the fire ori-ginated from them. The damage is small. The flames were extinguished without ringing the fire alarm.

A Fother's and Daughter's Preise of a lieipful Remeds - A Popular Prescription of Emineut Nose and Throat Specialists.

"A happy day."

Hev. Geo. Schoerb, pastor of St. Peter's Protestant church, on Grape street, Buffalo, considers it a happy day when he first tried Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, and he does not hesitate to praise it as a royal remedy for catarrhal colds. It cured him; and a daughter, suffering with an aggravating sere throat, tried it with equally astionishing results. No other remedy is so generally used and so warmly endorsed or so unhesitatingly prescribed by nose and throat specialists as a real cure for catarrh, hay fever, cold in the head, sore throat, influenza, deafness, headache and tonsilitis. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder is not only a highly agreeable remedy, easy and pleasant to use, but it really cures and the first thing it does is to give delightiful relief on the instant. 60 cts. at Gerl Lorenz and all druggists.
