on Saturday. The grand jury made its usual report last Saturday, and left the court house question untouched. An attempt was made to bring up the question, but it was opposed by other clitisens, and the jury asked for instructions. Judge Woodward said they could recommand whatever they saw fit. Although they made no report on the subject, it was said that they took a vote and the iand buying scheme was defeated by a vote of 16 to 7. The scheme for erecting a bridge over a vote of 16 to 7. The scheme for erecting a bridge over the flats, to Kingston, was rejected, the jury mot thinking it important enough to vote on. With regard to the july mot thinking it important enough to vote on. With regard to the july mot thinking it is somewhat crowded, the efficiency of the manage-ment and good discipline maintained by the warden and his subordinates has largely made up for the lack of sufficient room, at times, when the prison is overtaxed, by enforced at-tendance. We found everywhere evi-dences of cleanliness, good discipline, painstaking supervision and faithful observance of the laws and rules pre-scribed for the government of the prisscribed for the government of the pris-

very weak condition near the analtic street toll house. The man was very weak and said he had just come from Stroudsburg, and the officer saw that his forehead had been severely cut. The patrol wagon was called and the man taken to the hospital. Officer Thomas meanwhile made in-quiries at the Wilkes-Barre and East-ern depot and found that he had ar-rived in this city on the 5:30 passenger train, the trainmen having picked him up at Stroudsburg, where they had found him in a partially helpless con-dition. He told the trainmen that he had fallen off a bridge at Stroudsburg. His appearance substantiated this His appearance substantiated this statement, as he had an ugly wound on the middle of his forehead, the result, the said, of the fall. On his arrival in the city he got off the train unassisted and lay down by a tree. The trainmen advised him to get up and go to the hospital and he started across tue bridge. Dr. Prevost examined him at the hos-

Dr. Prevost examined him at the hos-pital and found to his surprise that the man was not only severely cut on the head, but that he had a bullet wound just over his heart. Just before he died the man gave his name as John Weinhart, of Stroudsburg. He spoke with a German accent. The following dispatch came from

Stroudsburg:

Stroudsburg: Stroudsburg, Nov. 2.—John Wyckoff, whose home is in Wilkes-Barre, fell off a bridge a mile below town last Sunday night. He pulled himself to a watchman's shanty and laid undiscovered un-til last night without food or drink. He said he was working on a wakes-Barre sewer. He is a Polander by birth. We know nothing of the shooting. G. C. Hughes.

G. C. Hughes. The man was put aboard the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern train by Trackmas-ter Corcoran and one of the poor direc-tors of Monroe county, who paid his fare to this city. He said nothing to them about the bullet wound in his breast breast. A post mortem was held, but the re-sult was not to be given out until after the coroner's inquest. He was 5 feet, 8 inches in height, and weighed 140 pounds, apparentlyy about 40 years of age, and had a sandy mustache and a gray beard of several days' growth. There was nothing found in his pockets except a pipe, some tobacco and a purse containing two cents. An effort will be made to discover the man's identity and the cause of the mysterious bullet wound.

five years of age. They had been examining an old working when they encountered gas in such quantities that it was ignited by such quantities that it was ignited by their lamps and the explosion followed. All were taken to the hospital, where they are under treatment. There is every hope of their recovery.

Brid os to Be Built.

It is requested that all witnesses in this county subpoensed for the judi-cial contest send statement, previous to December 12, of the number of days they were in attendance and number of miles traveled, to the attorneys who conducted the case. Those who were subpoensed for Dunham should report to F. I. Lorden and the opport to E. J. Jorden, and those on the oppo-site side to James W. Pintt. Failure to do this may result in failure to get any pay. Montrose engine, No. 2, the Asa Packer, has been sent to the shop for re-pairs. It is one of the "old resident-ers," having seen service ever since the road was built.

Samuel Klinck was the name of a prisoner arraigned before Justice Kutz Saturday upon the charge of stealing a road cart from Baker & Evans, lum-bermen, of Faton township. The ve-hicle disappeared from the premises of the plaintiffs on the night of Octo-ber 18, and finally suspecting Klinck, they obtained a cearch warrant and it they obtained a search warrant and it was found in his possesion. The pris-oner was released upon payment of costs and promising to restore stolen property.

Keystone Academy foot ball kickers and the home team tried titles on the Brunges farm Saturday. It resulted in a tie, each side making four scores. The return game will be played at an early date. The vote in the First ward having been declared an illeral one last fall, on account of the polling place being changed, the question arises as to what shall be done to make it legal this fam. Judge Punham has been urged to come Judge Punham has been urged to come over and hold a short session of court so that amplication may be made and order obtained to change the polling place. Unless he does this to-day, which is very improbable, the polls will likely be changed back to their original location on Bridge street. The dina-cuity of doing this is increased by the fact that the building in which the booths were formerly erected has since been remodeled and is now occupied as a dwelling.

Attorney L. P. Wedeman, of Scran-ton, was officially engaged in this bor-ough Saturday. William Davies, who has been at-

day. The 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Murray, is dangerously ill with John Murray, is dangerously ill with membraneous croup. The ice pond, just west of this bor-ough, owned by John Maxey, will be turned into a skating park this winter. The water in the pond is shallow and there will be no danger. This will afford a healthy amusement for the young people during the winter. Mrs. William Searles and daughter, of Carbondale, are visiting relatives on Lakiroad street.

TUNKHANNOCK.

W. S. DeWitt has moved his family to Scranton, where he has an interest in a planing mill with his brother-in-law. Invitation cards are out for the wed-ding of Miss Edith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Brown, of Lemon, to Nelson W. Jackson. The event takes place on Wednesday, November 20, at high noon. The mariage of Miss Grace Wood-house, formerly of Black Walnut, but recently of Hackettstown, N. J., to Mr. G. A. Beatty, occurred at Camden, N. J., a few days since. The bride has many friends here who will congratu-late her.

assist his son in the store of E. H. Kres-ky & Co. The long drawn-out judicial contest is practically at an end. At the session of the court at Laporte last week the vote of the entire district was recounted after all illegal votes had been rejected, which resulted in a majority of 177 for Edward M. Dunham, a gain of 152 votes over the original count. The entire vote in the First ward of Tunkhannock borough was thrown out because the vote in the First ward of Tunkhannock borough was thrown out because the polling place was changed without an order from court. In Windham town-ship, Wyoming county, and Colley town-ship, Bullivan county, the same state of at airs aristed, but as one precinct gave a majority for Dunham and the other for flitter, it was called a stand-off and the votes were not rejected. It but re-mains for the costs to be disposed of, which will be done at the next semion, commercing December that all-bills of costs for witnesses shall be filed, so that
