THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE --- MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 4, 1895.

CARBONDALE.

WANT $45,000 DAMAGES.

WANT $45,000 DAMAGES. More fromble is Brought Upon the City Through the Traction Company. The city's troubles incident to the pondale Traction company continue to increase. Nine suits, aggregating $45,000 in damages, have been commenced and the city is called upon to pay a por-tion of this amount. The right of way was granted without a cent of compen-sation. The city has had to defend al-its amount. The right of way to the city is called upon to pay a por-tion of this amount. The right of way was granted without a cent of compen-sation. The city has had to defend al-its amount. The right of way was granted without a cent of compen-sation. The city has had to defend al-its amount. The right of way was granted without a cent of compen-sation. The city has had to defend al-its amount. The right of way was granted without a cent of compen-sation. The city has had to defend al-its amount. The right of way was granted without a cent of compen-sation. The city has had to defend al-its amount. The right of the source of the street railway company and the has the city of Carbondale, the Car-bondale Traction company and the has the city of Carbondale, the Car-bondale Traction company and the has the city of Laboration filed states the street in some places two feet and protocos six feet. Then, too, the streact were hid close to the houses it further states that the work was the helpaintiffs and the water pipes in the treet were dug up and changed it further states that the work was the bar and the Lackawanna Valley Trandone at the instance of the Carbondale Traction company, and when it was finished the Lackawanna Valley Tran-sit company leased the road. The city is a defendant for reason that the douncils passed an ordinance permit-ting the laying of the tracks. It is the intention of the plaintiffs' attorneys to have the case heard before a board of arbitrators. arbitrators.

Bereavement of Rev. and Mrs. Rocca.

Bercavement of Rev. and Mrs. Rocca. The home of Rev. and Mrs. Rocca, on Hospital street, was saidened Friday afternoon by the death of their 2-year-old daughter, Jemima. Death was caused by convulsions. Mr. Rocco is the Italian Presbyterian missionarf and he has not been in this city very long. About a week ago his wife and children arrived from Italy and they just settled in their new house on Hos-pital street. The funeral took place from the house Saturday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Lee, of the First Presbyterian church, officiated. Interment was made in Maplewood cemetery.

Work on the New Depot.

Work on the new Delaware and Hudson depot is progressing rapidly. All the roof boards have been put in place and the work of slating the roof was begun Saturday. The building is to be heated throughout by Sperl heaters heated throughout by Sperl heaters and the heating apparatus was set up Saturday. The finishing work on the interior was started Friday. Contrac-tor Schroeder's masons are putting in a wainscot of dark brown glazed brick, which will be six feet in height. The work is being pushed as raphay as pos-sible and may be finished by January first.

Brakeman Horr.

Brakeman McCarty, of the Ontario and Western, met with a painful acci-dent Frioay evening. He was standing on the top of a box car when a sudden movement of the train threw him to the ground. He threw out both arms to break the shock of the fail and thus struck first on his hands. When he re-covered he came to this city and br A covered he came to this city and Dr. A. Niles investigated his injuries. He found that McCarty had suffered a fracture of all the bones in the right wrist. The thumb on the left hand had been dislocated and both members badly bruised.

Good Opera Coming.

The lovers of music in this city will be given a number of treats in the near future. The MacKay, Opera company, numbering twenty people, will be at the Grand during Christmas week. They will sing all the late operas and at pop-ular prices. The management has been negotiating for some months to secure the Whitney Opera company in their engine, who have been visiting a brother in Kansas for the last three weeks, have returned Architect Purdy, of New York city, who designed the new Delaware and Hudson station, was in town Saturday and ex-pressed himself as favorably impressed with the progress which is being made. Mrs. R. D. Stuart, who has been visit-ing her parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Y. C. Smith, of West Pittston, for a week, has returned to the city. Miss Janet Bryden has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. O. P. Miller, in Provi-dence, during the past week. Miss Janet Bryden has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. O. P. Miller, in Provi-dence, during the past week. Miss Brena Daley has returned home af-ter a few days' visit with friends in Scranton. Harry Woolsey, of J. B. Woolsey & Co., of Beranton, was in town Saturday rela-tive to the silk mill. A. P. Trautwein and H. H. Hiller were in Scranton Saturday attending a meet-ing of the Los Angeles Lee and Cold Stor-age company, of which they are directors. Misses Vina Lindaey and Ollie Yarring-ton are spending a few days with their cousins, the Misses Secor, of West street, Honesdale. Miss May Gaughan is dangerously ill

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

In the Misses Secor, of West street, Honesdale.
Miss May Gaughan is dangerously ill at her home on Seventh avenue.
Legrand Hunter and the Bond family, of Belmont street, will leave in a few weeks to spend the winter in Providence.
They expect to return in May.
Edward, the little son of Mr, and Mrs.
E. T. Corby, of Belmont street, is ill with diphtheria. His condition as yet is not considered dangerous, although he is de-litious at times.
A case of diphtheria has been reported from the home of F. Farny, on Canaan street.
Miss Mary Campbell, of Canaan street, spent Friday with friends in Vanding.
Warren Tappen, who was painfully in-jured the other day, is able to be out again.

jured the other day, is able to be out again. Miss Nellle Cortright is spending a few weeks with relatives in South Canaan. Ray Reigeluth, of Salem avenue, is en-tertaining his friend, Lule Fuller, of Wav-erly, N. Y. Mrs. Burt Brownell and daughter, Bes-sie, of Seventh avenue, called on friends in Scranton Saturday. Mrs. Viola Simpson, of Jersey City, is spending a few days at the home of James Lindsey, on Archhald street. Will Edgar, of Providence, called on friends in town Saturday. William Hull is confined to his home on Boring street with a sprained ankle, which he sustained at the game of foot bail at Alumni park last Tuesday after-noon. rade.

PITTSTON.

[The Pittston office of the Scranton Tribune is located at No. 5 William street, where all advertisements, orders for job work and items for publication will re-ceive prompt attention. Office open from 5 a. m. to 10 p. m.]

The funeral of the late John Langan will take place from his late home, on Pine street, this morning with a mass of requiem at St. John's church. The remains of Mrs. Mary Relly were interred in the Market street cametery yesterday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. John Collier, M. E. Collier, John Grady, Patrick Walsh, Thomas Gibbons and Edward Gibbons were pall-bearers. The Pittston foot ball team defeated the Berwick team on the West Pitts-ton grounds Saturday afternoon by a score of 22 to 0. The delightful weather of yesterday, brought many visitors to this city.

The delightful weather of yesterday, brought many visitors to this city, among them being Miss Tessle McHale of Dunmore; Miss Nellie Donnelly, William and Loe Coyne, Jack Collins, Frank McAndrew and J. J. Gordon, of Scranbon, and John H. Gorman, Frank Murphy, Will Crogan, Hugh Sharps, John Bolton, of Wilkes-Barre. The Misses Ella and Katle Donahoe, Patrick Coyne and Martin Donahoe, of South Scranbon, were the guests of Miss Margaret Kearney, of Pine, yes-terday.

Antonio Borberstl, of North Main street, was arraigned before Alderman Loftus Salurday on a charge of bigany. He came to this chy two years ago, and was engaged at the mines of the Pennsylvania Coal company. At Poland he had a wife and two very protty children, and a handsome female pretty children, and a handsome female cousin. A year ago he sent money for thils cousin to come to this country. When she came here he was married to her, and a boy was born to them. Three weeks ago his first wife arrived here, and, upon ascertaining the true state of affairs, she had her husband arrested on the aforesaid charge. In default of $1,000 bail he was sent to fail. jall.

Pittston Business Directory.

FOR FIRST-CLASS PLUMBING CALL on Wright & Co., 97 South Main street, A new range for sale or exchange; also second-hand household goods, bought or sold.

FOREST CITY.

W. H. Daniels, of Blossburg, has rew. H. Daniels, of Biossourg, has te-moved his family to this town. Mr. Daniels has accepted a position with the Langchiffe Coal company. Miss Sweeney, of Dunmore, spent yesterday with Miss Vina Gibbons, of this week. A valuable dog owned by Lazarus Williams was killed by the electric cars yesterday. A number of ladies from this town will find occupation in the new knit-ting mill at Mooslc. The employes of the silk mill were paid on Saturday.

Main street. A. K. Bailey, of Franklin, Pa., will remove his family to the Jennings' property, on Main street, some time this week.

A large number of people from this town attended the blessing of Rev. J. J. Curran's church yesterday. The Moosic band participated in the pa-B. Casken will remove his family into Frank Devers' new residence this week. Mrs. Ella O'Malley spent yesterday with friends in Scranton. W. J. Williams gratefully acknowl-edges the kindness of his townspeople who contributed so munificently to-ward a fund for his relief, and who made it possible for him to leave this section in search of health. ... new society known as the C. L. S. C. has recently been organized in con-nection with the Methodist Episcopal church. The following are the officers: President, Mrs. J. R. Wagner vice-pres-ident, Mrs. Fannie Mucklow; secre-tary, Mrs. J. W. Gay; treasurer, Charles Keith.

MONTROSE

Will Stottard's progressive echure on last Wednesday evening proved a de-lightful affair. This was the first party of the kind this fall with more to fol-

William Lush and family will spend the winter in Philadelphia. A welcomed rain last Thursday night helped fill up the cisterns of those who are not fortunate enough to have the city water. Many cisterns were dry, and the situation was becoming Augustus Knoll and Mrs. Knoll are spending a few days with the former's parents, on South Main street.

very serious.

the Whitney Opera company in their great production, "The Fencing Mas-ter." The contract has now been made and will be here on Jan. 2.

The Proposed Y. M. C. A.

A letter has been received by Chair-man T. C. Robinson from F. W. Pear-sall, president of the Scranton Railroad Y. M. C. A., in regard to the proposed branch here. Mr. Pearsall attended the state convention and brought the mat-ter before the state convention of convention. the before the state committee for con-sideration. He was expected to visit Mr. Robinson on Saturday, but the re-sult of his labors in the interest of the proposed bench is not yet known. proposed branch is not yet known.

James Maxwell to Retire.

James Maxwell has for some months been contemplating a change of busi-ness and it is stated that Saturday he disposed of the Caledonian restaurant to Messes. Litts and Flanghan, late of the Anthracité. The lease will include the entire building on Salem avenue. Mr. Maxwell's well-known musical tal-ents may lead him to take up that busi-

Injured by a Victous Horse. A little child playing on Tenth ave-nue had a narrow escape from being trampled on by a horse running wild. He picked the child up in his teeth, shook him considerably and then droppquiet. ed him, when he was rescued by a larger boy and taken home. He was considerably frightened, but his injurles are not considered serious.

To Resume Work Today.

The work of re-timbering the Dela-ware, and Hudson No. 3 shaft was fin-ished Saturday and the employes will resume work to-day after being idle a little over a week. It was thought that the men would be idle for several weeks, but a large force of men were employed and the work pushed as rapidly as pos-etble.

PERSONAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Miss Corinna Chapman entertained a number of her little friends Friday after-noon from 2 till 5 o'clock at her home on Winth avenue, it being her eighth birth-day. Pleasure reigned all the afternoon, and at 4 o'clock all sat down to an elabor-ate supper prepared for the occasion. Ice cream was served and all enjoyed them-selves. A number of useful and very pretty presents were given the little hos-tess, The following little folks were pres-ent: Helen Couch, Helen Watkins, Mil-dred Isgar, Kowena Boyd, Blod Davis, Clara Spail, Lijlian Geary, Alberta Lee,

TERMS-Strictly CASH During This Sale.

CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, LINO. U leums, Draperies, Shades, and Wall Paper, Window

419 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

GREAT ALTERATION SALE

We have decided on a Sweeping Reduc-tion rather than cover up our goods dur-ing our extensive improvements, and have marked down everything in the store at cost and less. See our Window Display, which will substantists what we new.

in Carpels from 15a, to 80c., Worth 25c. to 75c. Net Carpela, 40c. to 80c., Worth 80c. to 90c. Papers, 5c., Worth 10c.,

And everything else in propertion.

SCOTT INGLIS CARPETS AND WALL PAPERS,

ball at Alumni park last Tuesday after-noon. Mrs. J. B. Kirby, of Pittston, is the guest of friends here. Miss Florence Van Gorder, of Terrace street, speni Wednesday as the guest of Miss Emily Edgar, at Providence. Miss Entry and Mrs. Latter a brief visit with her mother, Mrs. H. Lister. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wolfe, of Lincoln avenue, are staying with Mrs. Wolfe's mother, Mrs. Penwarden, at No. 16, since the death of her son, Edward Penwarden, The Misses Horton and Dawson, of Port Jervis, N. Y., are the guests of Miss Ger-trude Gumaer, of Hotel Anthracite. Mrs. William Shalth and Grace Hum-phrey spent Saturday as the guest of Miss Emily Edgar, at Providence. Miss Annie Deeble spent Saturday Miss Emily Edgar, at Providence. Miss Annie Deeble spent Saturday Miss Emily Edgar, at Providence. Miss Annie Deeble spent Saturday here. Ackerly Pros. have dissolved part.

HONESDALE

Ackerly Bros, have dissolved part-nership, Frank Ackerly retiring. George Ackerly will continue the busi-ness. Their branch store in Great Bend was closed on Saturday even-Louis Hartung, the youngest son of August Hartung, committed suicide by shooting himself behind the right ear Friday night at 11.30. Death did not occur until 6 o'clock Saturday morn-place. ing. Nothing unusual in his actions was noticed. For several weeks past he has been suffering with quick con-sumption, and the doctors had told him he had but a short time to live. This knowledge of his dreadful disease undoubtedly hyperbol on a melawidelik place. B. F. Bernstein, manager of the Slik mill, in a conversation with The Trib-une correspondent on Saturday, denied the report that the mill had been leased by New York capitalists. He said that the Hallstead Textile company operat-ed it now as before die Hanstead Textile Company operat-ed it now as before. Mrs. Mason, of Binghamton, formerly Miss Libble Green, of this place, died at her home there on Thursday. George Bailey, of Walton, N. Y., is the new clerk at J. R. Dousglass' groundoubtedly brought on a melancholla, which led him to take his own life. His father is owner of the Irving Cliff Brewery and well-known in this coun-ty. He is survived by a wife and several children. Paul W. and Benjamin C. Gardner The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western carpenter gang leave Monday to erect new coal chutes at Nicholson. Brick work was completed Saturday on the Tiffany block. are in New York on business this week. There does not seem to be very much political agitation in Wayne county. Both parties, however, are conducting a spirited campaign on the duiet. The shirt factory of Wooden & Blak-ney has more work on hand than they can turn out. They have not enough women serving to freep pace with their A dancing class has been successfully formed here by Professor Schanck, of Binghamton, numbering about sixty scholars. He has engaged Village hall for the season. orders.

VANDLING.

The funeral of the late James Mu-lally was largely attended from his home on lower Main street, the well-filled house attesting the high esteem in which Mr. Mulally was held by his neighbors. His death occurred last Wednesday and was due to diabetes. Mr. Mulally was about 40 years of age, and is survived by a wife and five chil-dren. A high mass of requiem was cele-brated in St.Agnes Church, from whence the remains were taken to Canaan the remains were taken to Canaan township, Wayne county, for burial. To-morrow is election day, and every Republican should make it a point to turn out and cast his ballot.

Bert Howard, of Forest City, was a caller in town Thursday evening. Subscribe for the Tribune and receive Scrofula in the Eyes As well as in every other form, is perma-nently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. the latest local, as well as general hap-penings. It will be delivered to your homes before breakfast.

Thomas D. Bryden will open a gro-cery and general merchandise store in the Yaeger building about the middle of this month.

CLARK'S SUMMIT.

Nell Clark is having his well bored. George Moyer has finished his well. (H. N. Patrick has finished threshing his rye with steam power. Fred Walker has moved in his new house. Charles Smith has moved in Mrs. Freeman's house, on Summit Park. Miss Vine Juston is visiting relatives in Bradford county. Mrs. Lizzle Brister, of Laceyville, has returned home after visiting relatives here. Mrs. Charles Daily is visiting her par ents in East Lemon.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth. If the Basy is Cutting Teeth. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over Fifty Tears by Millions of Mothers for their Childray while Teething, with Perfect Success. It Soothes the Child, Bottens the Gums, Allays all Pain; Curres Wind Collo, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoes. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and mak for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other Sind Twanty-five cants a bottle.

11 UII

If you have any present or prospective need of reliable goods be sure you come while this sale lasts. But the earlier you come the better for you. We mention below but a very few of the

The stock is entirely new and includes the latest ideas in design, texture and manufacture in the line of Carpets, Rugs, Mattings, Linoleums, Oil Cloths, Draperies, Window Shades and Upholstery Goods of Every Description.

If you intend to buy, now is the time. Our Dissolution of Partnership Sale places before you the lowest prices ever quoted in Scranton.

CO SIEBECKER KERR. 406 AND 408 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

EVERY WOMAN 5% Sometimes needs a reliable, monthly, regulating medicine. Only barmices and the pureat drugs should be used. If you want the best, get C.N Dr. Peal's Pennyroyal Pills They are prompt, anie and certain in result. The sonatus (Dr. Peal's) never disappendent. Best any where, $1.00. Address Frank Manuars Co., Clereland, O.

For sale by JOHN H. PHELPS, Pharmacist, cor. Wyoming Avenue and Spruce Streat, Scranton Pa-

That Has a Full and Complete Line of Underwear is the EMPIRE DRY GOODS COMPANY, 516 Lackawanna Avenua. W E HAVE

THE ONLY HOUSE IN SCRANTON

Underwear for Men, Women and Children, any price and different grades. You can find with us Natural Greys, Camel's Hair, Fleeced Lined Red, Grey Merino. They are bought for spot cash at times when goods were at the lowest figures. This was in April, 1895, and the only buyer in Underwear that understands quality is Mr. Henry Goodman Manager of the Cut Price Store,

LOOK OUT FOR OUR NEXT WEEK'S SALE

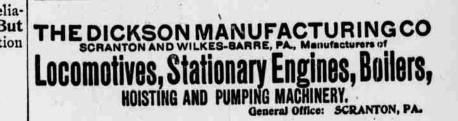

In Underwear, Jersey Overshirts in different styles. We will not quote any prices, but we are willing to take off 25 per cent. straight than usual prices elsewhere.

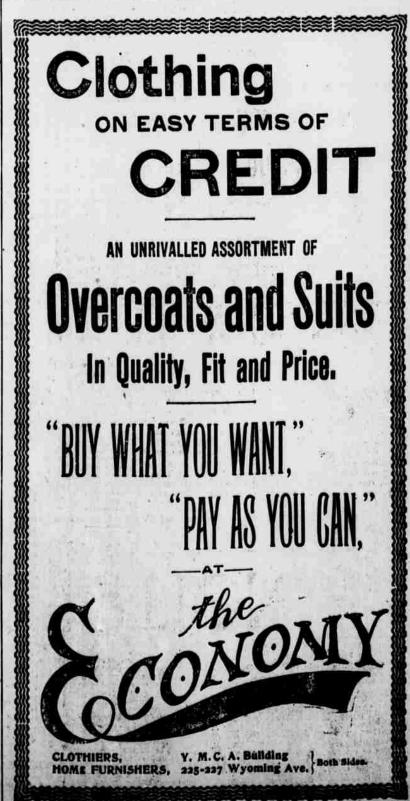

We Are Also Direct Agents

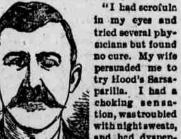

For the Superior Hygiens Underwear Company

Non shrinkable, the best for health. We guarantee them to be equal to the ones you pay $5.00. Our price on them, for Shirts $1.50, or $2.50 for the Suit. Come and see them. Largest assortment of Wool Hosiery, Sweaters, Cardigan Jackets.

ing Hood's Barsaparilla two weeks the choking spells and dyspepsia troubled me less. I have now taken several bottles of Hood's Earsaparills and find that I am entirely cured." WILLIAM L. PAYNE, Berryville, Virginia. Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the only True Blood purifier Promi-mently in the public eye. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.

Hood's Pills Hood's And