IT WAS A SLAUGHTER

Haywood Carried the County by Over Four Thousand.

JUDGE WILLARD LED THEM ALL

Went About Fifteen Hundred Votes Ahead of His Ticket—Longstreet's Great Showing—Hull Has Over One Thousand Votes to Spare.

With the complete returns at hand victory is too tame a word to characterize the result of yesterday's battle. Slaughter is more in keeping. The official figures as secured from the return sheets and printed in a complete table on the sixth page of today's issue surprise even the most sanguine of the Republican leaders.

When Republican headquarters closed at 1 o'clock yesterday morning the candidates at others went home in high glee at the very decisive victory which the faller's complete returns indicated. None, however, is safe to say that the election was a slaughter shown by the complete totals. Here is the story in brief:

STATE TREASURER.
Haywood, R.....	5294
Berry, P.....	615
Haywood's plurality..... 4679
SUPERIOR COURT.
Beaver, R.....	8738
Willard, R.....	10410
Wickham, R.....	8629
Rice, R.....	2432
Reeder, R.....	8744
Verkes, D.....	2953
Moorehead, D.....	2799
Smith, D.....	7710
Bechtel, D.....	2719
Mace, D.....	627
Campbell, P.....	627
Lathrop, P.....	621
Vail, P.....	609
Hull, P.....	411
Stevens, P.....	625
CORONER.
Longstreet, R.....	5073
Bateson, P.....	3288
Longstreet's plurality..... 1785
SURVEYOR.
Bartl, R.....	817
Dunning, D.....	789
Mitchell, D.....	1072
Bartl's plurality..... 267
Haywood's Big Plurality.

That Haywood more than doubled Myers must be the greatest cause of surprise to a person who has watched this county wavering between the Republican and Democratic columns almost from the very beginning of its existence. Another feature of the returns is the great vote cast for Judge Willard in his home county and city.

It is strange to relate but true nevertheless that at 6 o'clock last evening Mr. Dunning refused to concede Mr. Willard's election. He admitted that Bartl was apparently ahead, but did not give up all hope.

At midnight, Judge Smith on the strength of private telegrams received from nearly every portion of the state claimed his election by 4000 plurality over Judge Yerkes. In special dispatches to the Tribune the Philadelphia Press and Times claim Smith's election. The Inquirer believes Yerkes to be the successful one.

There was no apology offered for the defeat by the Democratic leaders yesterday. It was a square, clean knock-out and they were frank enough to admit it without arguments. Coming into the arena with such a desperate family quarrel the crushing defeat has had a most depressing effect on the rank and file of the party and it will take it some time for organization to recover sufficient strength to have a fighting chance of winning in this county.

RITE OF CONFIRMATION.

A Chinese Woman Among Those Confirmed by Bishop Nicholson.

Bishop Nicholson, of Philadelphia, administered the rite of confirmation to fourteen candidates at the Grace Reformed church, Wyoming avenue, last evening. Eleven others were received into membership in the church by letter.

Special choral music and congregational singing appropriate to the occasion were features of the ceremony. After an opening hymn Bishop Nicholson, in his home county and city, interesting discourse in which his general theme was the second coming of Christ, which is one of the distinctive characteristics of the Christian religion.

What Astronomers Said. In 1895 a star in the northern crown took fire and burned for two days. So intense was the heat that astronomers averred that if it was sun and was surrounded by planets that the whole system must have been consumed. The late Proctor, an astronomer whose authority no one can doubt, said that in 1897, or at the most a few years later, our own sun will break out with the same fiery intensity. "We know not," continued Bishop Nicholson, "whether or not this is to be. It may be so. If it is to be so that in 1897 our sun is to take on that enormous increase of heat, I for one shall say Hal-le-lu-ya! Even so come, Lord Jesus!"

At the conclusion of the confirmation ceremony Bishop Nicholson delivered a short charge in which he urged the regular and studious reading of the Bible, the frequenting of the church services and also private prayer and devotions.

Chinese Woman Confirmed.

Among the number confirmed was Mrs. Soo Hoo Doo, wife of the well-known Chinese merchant. She wore her native costume and was accompanied by her husband, who, holding their infant child in his arms, stood by her side at the chancel rail and interpreted the questions and answers prescribed in the ritual. She is the first Chinese woman to become a church member in this city.

ACCIDENT AT MOOSIC.

It Resulted in the Death of Foreman Wesley Tobin.

A very sad accident happened at Moosic Monday evening, when the regular and studious reading of the Bible, the frequenting of the church services and also private prayer and devotions.

Final Hearing in the Habeas Corpus Proceedings Came Up Before Judge Archibald Yesterday and the Rule Was Discharged.

Before Judge Archibald in chambers yesterday afternoon the final hearing took place in the habeas corpus proceedings in the case of Frank Wilson, the man who was so mysteriously disappeared and a prisoner in the office of Barring & McSweeney in the Commonwealth building, and of whom the detectives refused to be interviewed until Wilson succeeded in leaving the outside world by himself through the agency of a note thrown out of the window.

Wilson already public for what he was wanted and also concerning the steps taken by Attorney George M. Watson to secure Wilson's release on a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Archibald allowed Barring & McSweeney, who were represented at the hearing by Joseph O'Brien, to retain the custody of the prisoner, as they had warrant; but the court insisted that they should deliver Wilson to the authorities of Blair county, where he is accused of having committed a foul and brutal murder.

Judge Archibald set forth that as the date of the final hearing, Attorney O'Brien appeared for the detective agency, and Attorney Watson appeared for the prisoner. Mr. O'Brien produced a certified copy of the record of the mayor's court at Altoona.

He was given a hearing. The transcript was duly attested by Judge Archibald and set forth that in the case of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania against Frank Wilson, James Ferrell and William Doran, one of the defendants was duly arraigned at a hearing in Altoona before Mayor Hoyer on Monday, Nov. 4, and upon being asked as to his guilt or innocence, appeared for his arrest on the 11th of the month, but was not ready for a hearing. Wilson's request was allowed and he was forthwith remanded to the custody of the sheriff of Blair county.

This was sufficient for Judge Archibald, as it shows that Barring & McSweeney had complied with the requirements of the order of court and delivered the prisoner to the proper authorities. That ended the purpose of the final hearing, and thereupon the court adjourned on Saturday.

Wilson and two companions, James Farrell and William Doran, are suspected of the crime. The first named was arrested Monday, Oct. 28, on a railway train at Sprung street. He was brought to Scranton by the detectives and taken to Barring & McSweeney's office, where he was kept a prisoner until Monday, Nov. 2. Wilson was told when he was taken to the office of a gold watch. He professed, while in Scranton to be entirely ignorant of the murder of old Boncker.

Director Attorney Inman, of Blair county, feels confident that a complete case will be made out against Wilson. His two pals, Doran and Farrell, are yet at large.

ORGAN RECITALS.

Mr. Pennington Will Give the Second of the Series on Saturday.

In England, the organ as a concert instrument plays a most important part. All the large cities such as London, Leeds, Liverpool and Birmingham have organs of great dimensions, each containing a magnificent organ, and in the majority of cases, the organists are known as "city organists."

Following the admirable English plan, Mr. Carnegie has had built by the Farand and Yotly company (the builders of the organ in Elm Park church, this city) a magnificent organ and placed in the new library building which he presented Tuesday evening to the city. The organ will be dedicated at a public concert on Saturday afternoon next at four o'clock, when he will be assisted by Miss Winifred Sullivan, soprano, and Miss Julia C. Allen, violinist.

The piece de resistance will be the grand sonata in C minor by Alex. Guilmant. The score for this with Mr. Pennington studied the sonata from the printer's proof sheets this spring.

MEETING OF CARPENTERS.

Will Be Addressed by a Well-Known Labor Leader.

"Local Unions, Nos. 484 and 567, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, will hold a public meeting in the Elms, at James avenue on Thursday, Nov. 14, 1895, when P. J. McGuire, secretary-treasurer of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, will give an address on the American Federation of Labor, will deliver an address. His subject will be 'Trades Unions in America and Europe.' There is no mark in America today who is in better shape to handle the above subject than Mr. McGuire, he having just returned from a European tour, and it is a well-known fact that he is the best posted man we have on trades unions in general."

BLACK THAT WILL NEVER FADE.

EASY TO DYE WITH THE FAST BLACK DIAMOND DYES.

Clothing of all kinds Readily Made a Rich, Full Black—Three Special Fast Blacks, for Wool, for Silk and Feathers, for Cotton and Mixed Goods.

Until recently it was thought impossible to dye goods black without crocking and fading, but the three special Fast Black Diamond Dyes are easy to use and will make colors that never fade or wash out.

Mrs. Lou Chamberlain of St. Louis, in a recent letter, writes: "I have used the Fast Black Diamond Dyes with good success, dyeing a coat and vest for my husband that previously had been dyed at the dye house but had faded out. Two packages of the Black Diamond Dyes gave a very all black and the coat and vest look to-day as good as new and have not faded the least bit, although they have been worn six months in sun and rain."

Mrs. A. E. Hartley, an Eastern woman, in telling of her first experience with Diamond Dyes, writes: "Being a novice in dyeing, I may safely say that the plain directions on the Diamond Dye packages will enable any intelligent person to use them with good results. I dyed a faded spring overcoat of my husband's with a package of Fast Black Diamond Dye, and it looks like new. The dyer would have charged me $2.50, but I did it for ten cents and got a perfectly satisfactory color."

Be sure that you get Diamond Dyes when you want to dye suits, gowns, cloaks, ribbons, stockings, shawls, etc., and then you will have colors that are un fading and true to name.

IT WILL BE HARD FOUGHT.

Scranton Foot Ball Club and Wyoming Seminary Team to Meet Saturday.

The Scranton Bicycle club and the Wyoming Seminary play the second game of the series between these two teams at the Elm Park stadium Saturday, and a great battle is expected, as Wyoming still feels the sting of defeat, received last Wednesday, and the Bicycle boys are determined that no team shall score that they were not ready for a hearing. Wilson's request was allowed and he was forthwith remanded to the custody of the sheriff of Blair county.

The team will practice to-day and tomorrow, and, owing to the number of men that are just now laid up for repairs, at least three new faces will be found on the eleven in Saturday's game. Zang, Gelbert, Thayer and perhaps Conroy will not be able to play Saturday, though the latter, it is expected he will be in condition by that time.

Zang's old place at right guard has become a source of anxiety to the management, as there is little prospect of finding a man who will be able to fill his place. The prospects of having two of the large universities here again this year are very bright indeed. Pennsylvania and perhaps Princeton will play against the Bicycle eleven ere the season is over.
