COLLISION ON THE VALLEY. I'wo Trains Meet in a Fog Near

Pittston.

Yesterday morning about half past five o'clock, during the heavy fog, a head-on collision occurred on the Le-high Valley railroad near Pittston. A Harvey's Lake freight train was on its way north and a coal train was com-ing south. Both trains were moving slowly, or the result would have been much worse. Neither engineer saw the other train until too late to stop, although both engines were reversed. The freight engine was badly damaged, and the trainmen saved their lives by jump-

SENSATIONAL STORY.

Premier Bowell Says There Are N Canadian Troops in Alaska. Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 7.—The premier, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, said today that there was not a word of truth in the reports of Canada sending an armed force into Alaska. "We have sent twenty mounted policemen." he said. "to the Yukon country on the Canadian side for the sole purpose of keeping peace and order and collecting customs duties, as there is no collector of cus toms there. In fact, the American min ers are as urgent as those mining or the Canadian side that we should send up a detachment of mounted police to keep order. The men who are located at Forty Mile Creek are quartered in log huts they constructed to protect them from the winter. Their presence has nothing whatever to do with the boundary question. The report that Canada had sent up an armed force to sustain her contention as to the disputed boundary sometion as to the disputed boundary between British territory and Alaska." Sir Mackenzie says, "is absurd when you consider that the whole force only comprises forty policemen." Major White, controller of the mounted po-lice, received a letter today from the of-ficer in command at Forty Mile Creek dated Sept. 4, reporting everything

Noted Monster.

Toledo, O., Nov. 7.—William Myrtle, a well known citizen of Monroe, Mich., north of this city, claims to have seen Lake Erie's famous sea serpent yesterday while fishing on the Rasin river. He says he saw what seemed to be a pug dog swimming toward him and he reised an oar as if to strike it.

pug dog swimming toward him and he raised an oar as if to strike it...
Immediately the serpent reared its head fully four feet out of the water, showing a neck that resembled that of a giraffe. Some distance from the head were fins that were almost large enough for wings and still further down the body were short stumpy legs. Myrtle struck at it with an oar, whereupon it dived to the bottom of the river. The animal is exactly like the one described by a French fisherman, as having been seen at the mouth of as having been seen at the mouth of Pelton Creek some years ago, and also like the serpent seen by a lake captain at the mouth of Portage river, at Port
