IS MR. QUAY IN THE FIELD A Sketch of His Life Thought to Be a Campaign Document.

THE PRESIDENCY TEMPTS HIM

Knowing That the Republican Candidate Is Certain of Success, It Is Thought That the Senator Will Enter the Lists.

Washington, Nov. 8.—"The political services of Matthew Stanley Quay," is the title of a pamphlet without date, author's or publisher's name that is now theing widely circulated in this city. It is beautifully gotten up with imitation morocco covers and contains a handsomely engraved picture of Senciar Cuay, and a dozen rages of dea handsomely engraved picture of Senator Quay, and a dozen pages of descriptive another cutogizing him in the most ardent terms. The pamphlet is generally regarded as the opening gun in Senator Quay's fight for the presidential nomination next year and has excited great interest.

BUT A PRICE CUT LIKE THIS SHOULD BE GOOD NEWS TO EVERY LADY OF MODERATE MEANS WHO SEEKS TO BE WELL DRESSED.

The first intimation that his candidacy was serious was contained in an interview with a prominent Pennsylvanian, said to stand close to him, which was printed in Chicago a week ago. Now follows this pamphlet and the politicians are wondering what it means.

means.
Following are some extracts from the pampilet. They do not err on the side of modesty, but that was not to be expected from enthusiastic friends; "Senator Quay is one of the shrewdest, ablest, most farsighted and successful politicians of the day. Indeed, it is a question if there is another man in the country who is a match for him.

question if there is another man in the country who is a match for him.

"Cool, serene, far-seeing and resourceful, fertile in expedients, holding his impulses and his forces thoroughly in hand, firm as a rock and unqualling under either opposition or calummy, he has planned and carried to success, at the head of the Republican committees, state and national, campaigns doubtful and difficult, winning by his masterful ability, those of campaigns detected and almost, which in by his masterful ability, those of Governors Hartranft and Hoyt, of Pennsylvania, and Benjamin Harrison as president. In the last case he clutched victory from almost certain defeat."

Blocked the Wilson Bill'

"It was largely due to his efforts that the McKinley Tariff hill became a law, and during the great tariff fight of 1894 Mr. Quay effectually blocked the pas-sage of the Wilson Tariff bill until it was amended to protect the great man-ufacturing interests of Pennsylvania and elsewhere.

"He will be remembered by all Christian people as the man through whose efforts legislation by congress was secured closing the gates of the World's Fair on Sundays. One who had taken so prominent and active a part in poutics could not have escaped violent criticism.

No matter how correct his acts, with his strong and positive nature it was not strange that he should have made enemies and created antagonisms even among the timid of his own party. The fact that he has been so long the master mind in politics has made him a target for all sorts of criticisms, fixing him in the minds of the people as a very difthe minds of the people as a very dif-ferent man from his real self."

The last is the only reference in the pamphlet to the attacks made on Sena-tor Quay which led to his retirement from the chairmanship of the Repub-lican National Committee, and to the estrangement between him and President Harrison. In view of the certain revival of these charges in case of his nomination, it is believed that he would not be a candidate if it were not certain that the nomination next year was equivalent to an election.

POPULISM PLAYED OUT.

The Indiana Party Organization to Disband-Its Managors Have Decided That There Is No Future for It.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—The indi-cations are that within the next month the Populist party organization in this state will disband. The men who have been carrying on the agitation for four years have about decided that there is no future for the party in this state no future for the party in this state and that they might as well abandon it. E. B. Cummings, the secretary of the committee, has tendered his resignation. The other officers and members of the State Committee will, it is said, follow his example. The men who have been leading the party here say they have information that the members of the Executive Committee of the National Committee have decided to resign.

The Populist party in Indiana received its first blow three weeks ago when the Farmers' Mutual Benefit association of the st. cut loose from it. There is some talk of organizing a labor party which shall take up and advocate the principles for which the Populists have stood.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK.

R. G. Dan & Company's Picture of the State of Trade Is Less Assuring-Deeline in Stock and Products-

New York, Nov. 8.—R. G. Dun and company will say in their weekly re-view of trade tomorrow: It has been a broken week, and just before and after elections in the most important states operations rarely have much significance. Stocks and products are weaker and there is some decrease in the number of establishments at work, both for reasons having nothing to do with the questions of government. The controlling power at present is the effert to readjust prices after the remarkable rise of last summer in important materials and products, with the struggle of great combinations to prevent decline.

Hough calf is 2 cents lower this week with other kinds unchanged. Meanwhile the great boot and choe manufacturers are embarrassed, even to the stoppage are embarrassed, even to the stoppage of very many works, by the refusal of jobbers to purchase in the belief that leather and shoes must decline in ac-cordance with hides. Manufacturers have offered concessions ranging from 5 to 10 cents per pair, only increasing they have to meet.

Wheat falls back with great reluctance from its summer rise of 20 cents, but has declined 1% cents for the week, western receipts being $,029,910 bushels against 3,845,032 for same week last year. Belief in a crop much smaller than last year's has to resist actual receipts of 45,725,368 bushels in six weeks against 30,446,005 last year and than last year have been cally $ 002. weeks against 30,446,000 last year and Atlantic exports have been only 9,093,-424 bushels, flour included, against 13,-347,619 last year. The reports of win-ter wheat from some states are also better. Corn comes forward largely, receipts being more than double las year's, and nearly a million bushels went abroad. Stocks have declined an average of $1.46 for railroads and $1.17 for trusts during the week, with an obvious cause in fears of gold exports and serious financial anxieties abroad, especially at Paris. A coming congress and pres-ent tangble competition affects sugar, leather and tobacco. Radroads earn-ings reported for October are for the United States alone 46,705,654, or 5.5 per cent, over last year's, but, in spite of larger mileage, 2.4 per cent, less than in 1892 on the same roads, and the comparison for the shird and fourth week was less favorable.

Fallures for the week have been 230 in the United States against 261 last year, and 49 in Canada against 42 last Kenneth White Marries Gertrude Hislog in Spite of Guardians.

in Spite of Guardians.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Pretty Gertrude Hislop, who was adopted early in life by Dr. William L. Hislop and his sister, Dr. Margaret Hislop, all formerly of Chicago, but now living here, fell in love with and promised to marry J.
Kenneth White, of this city. The union was opposed by the Hislops.

Yesterday afternoon White heard that the Hislops were to send Gertrude to an insane asylum. White immediately had Dr. Hislop arrested and then going to the Hislop home with a policeman helped Gertrude to pack up and carry her belongings across the street. Then white Gertrude recovered her breath, White got a marriage license and a minister and by the time Dr. Hislop returned home Gertrude was Mrs. White.
