Annie L., wife of John Warren, died at her home in Bell Place Saturday at 12.20 p. m. of pneumonia. Deceased was born in Benton township thirty-six born in Benton township thirty-six years ago and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Cole. She was a lady of winning disposition and many are the friends who mourn her loss. Mrs. Warren is survived by her hus-band and a boy seven months old. The funeral will be held at the house this afternoon (Monday) at two o'clock. Interment in Prospect hill cemetery. Miss Sophie Simpkins spent Sunday with friends in Scranton. William Kestell, who has been seri-ously ill the past few weeks, is some-what better. John Williamson, of the firm of Wil-liamson & Wallace, of Wilkes-Barre, called on the trade here Saturday.

Broad and Company Arrested. On Saturday last Broad & Co. trans-gressed over the sidewalk line marked out by Mayor Nichols, and were ac-cordingly arrested on the charge of re-fusing to move the boxes on the side-walk. Both Broad & Co. and Hem-mingway appeared with their attorney. Mr. McGovern, and at the hearing City Engineer W. V. Ingham testified that the firm took up too much sidewalk room. They agreed that if the line was correct, as established by Mr. Ingham. they would keep their goods within it. they would keep their goods within it. and they were then discharged.

TAYLOR.

A farewell party was rendered Miss Salle Trautman, who has been visit-ing at the home of M. D. Lewis, on Union street, for the past two months, in Thursday evening. Miss Trautman will leave today for her home in Col-umbia county. The lecture given by Hon. H. M. Ed-wards at the Welsh Baptist church, inder the auspices of the Welsh Con-gregational church, was one of the lit-vary treats of the season. The church was well filled with an appreciative undience, who listened to the discourse with eager and close attention. For nearly two full hours the eloquent judge spoke about his recent trip to Europe. His remarks were vividiy descriptive, and largely dwelt upon his own native land, which he had not visited for so many years. A Polite Man.
