WATER GETTING SCARCE.

The Company Is Obliged to Issue Circular.

Although the want of water has nev-er heen, felt in Carbondale, we are likely to appreciate it more and value it more highly during the winter if we do not economize now. This scarcity of water has at last forced the Crystal of water has at last forced the Crystal Lake Water company to try and have people be more economical in the use of the water. To this purpose they have issued a circular for presentation to their customers, and would be greatly obliged if the public would try and obey it. The circular reads as fallows:

"On account of the extremely dry weather our water supply is becoming quite limited, and it is necessary that the strictest economy in the use of water be observed. All leaks must be stopped and under no circumstances must water be left running when not st water be left running when not use. Any persons refusing to com-with this request will be liable to ply with this request will be liable to have their supply cut off entirely. Even with a change in the weather these re-strictions will remain the same, as it will take a long time to have our sup-ply reservoir filled. Attention is called to the fact that faucets are often left running in cold weather to prevent freezing, but for this winter, at least, the pipes must be protected and water not be left running at night. J. B. Van Bergan, president. AN ARTERY SEVERED.

Their efforts were without avail and it looked as if the young man would bleed to death before help could arrive. However, the blood was stopped after a great deal of difficulty and the injured man was taken to the office of Dr. Fitzsimmons, where the ends of the artery wer tied and the wound sewed up. Mr. Monnohan was quite weak from the amount of blood lost, but is resting quite easily at present.

Committees Meet.

The final arrangements for the Mitchell Hose company fair have been completed and big preparations have been made. The different committees appointed reported everything as progressing in the most satisfactory manner. Nearly all the business men in the city have been visited by the soliciting committee, who are loud in the praise of the genrosity which they have met on all sides. The decorating committee commenced its work last evening and it will be all finished by Thursday night, when the fair begins.
