PERSONAL.

Miss Jane Walsh, of Archbold, is visiting Scranton friends. Dr. H. F. Helmer will leave for the Atlanta exposition today. D. J. Moyles, of Cardonville, called on Scranton friends yesterday. Tipstaff William Franz and family have removed from 1814 First street to 218 North Bromley avenue. Mr. and Mrs. James P. and Mrs. Stanley Osterhout are spending a few days in New York city. Miss Elsie Van Dervoort, solo contralto at Elm Park church, is visiting her parents at Mt. Vernon, N. Y. A. B. Holmes is in Philadelphia attending the annual session of the grand chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. Fred Clarkson yesterday returned from Lansford, near Mauch Chunk, where his brother, Harry, was recently severely injured in a runaway accident. John T. Watkins, the well-known Scranton baritone, will become an operatic singer. He will leave in about six weeks for London, where he will study for the stage. A. S. Baker, who is occupying a responsible position in the general coal office of Simpson & Watkins, has been appointed auditor of the Pennsylvania Coal company. Charles E. Daniels, of the Truth, having passed a successful examination as an applicant for registration as law student, registered yesterday in the office of Attorney Thomas F. Wells. F. Kenyon Jones, who was here during the early part of the present season as musical director of the Noni Jolly company, is now with the "Buck" company, which opened at the academy last night. Colonel E. H. Ripple and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Penman are home from the Atlanta exposition, where they went with Governor Hastings and his staff and party. Mr. and Mrs. William Connell have gone from Atlanta to Thomaston, Ga., and will return to Scranton next week. Colonel F. L. Hitchcock, Thomas Moore, C. G. Boland, A. B. Holmes, Charles R. Smith and Peter Robinson, representing the Scranton Underwriters' association, are in Philadelphia in consultation with the Underwriters' association of the middle department of Pennsylvania. Mrs. E. L. Walter, of this city, was recently elected in Washington, D. C., a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She is a great grand-daughter of William Latham, a Continental soldier, who was made prisoner at the massacre of Fort Griswold in 1781. He died in 1840. Two of his sons are now living in Connecticut, a few miles from Fort Griswold. Mayor H. W. Allison, of Allentown, yesterday called informally on Mayor Connell in the city hall. The Allentown official was in the city on business connected with the Knights of Honor, of which he is grand dictator, a state officer. He was accompanied by Councilman J. W. Goheen and George W. Du Bree, each of Allentown, and also state officers of the Knights of Honor.
