Street Cars Collide. The dangerous condition of that part of Seventh street where the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western tracks cross Lackawanna and Western tracks cross was shown yesterday by the collision of two street cars at 8.20 o'clock p. m. The road at that point bends in a sharp angle, the apex resting at the point where the tracks cross. The railroad embankment shuts out all view from drivers and pedestrians, and a collision of some kind is always probable. The danger is augmented by a steep incline of some kind is always probable. peculiar condition has developed in the affairs of the Scranton Base Ball association.

When occurred the recent sheriff's sale of the Eastern league franchise and property, it was thought everything was settled when H. P. Simpson purchased of President Betts for $2.180 the entire property which it was thought by all concerned had been bid in for President Betts by Robert J. Murray, the association's attorney.

It developed, however, that the attorney had bid in the name of the association and not for President Betts, which made the secondary sale to Mr. Simpson null and void.

This status of affairs was made known to Mr. Powers, president of the Eastern league, and at t meeting of the leauge last week in New York city the Scranton franchise, membership and rivileges in the league were declared violated and Scranton was forthwith expelled from the league. This action was oased upon the league. This action was oased upon the league. This action was oased upon the league. This is action was oased upon the league. It was claimed that the Scranton club had payed its players, but was in arrears $300 to Manager Barnie. The whole matter was placed in the hands of Mr. Powers, the league president, to settle according to his best judgment.

When loving and Coleman Waned. What Jordan and Coleman Waned.

What Jordan and Coleman Waned.

Meanwhile Directors Jordan and Coleman, after the transfer to Mr. Simpson was known to be void, announced themselves opposed to any kind of settlement unless the property was again offered for sale and not to be knocked down until the price bid at least equalled the $3,000, which they claimed had been onered the day of the late sale. They have been urged and abetted in their position by Marty Swift, the 1894 Scranton manager, now of Carbondale, of the State league, Coleman and Jordan are two of the seven judgment director-creaitors without whose signatures the pecuniary affairs of the association cannot be fairs of the association cannot

This view of the case, he remarked, had been taken by readers of the press dispatches sent from this city and of the reports in lo-cal newspapers. It was folly, he con-tinued, to think that the league could be expected to halt while one club's di-rectors were embroiled in a controversy that might last forever. that might last forever.

What Mr. Powers Sald. After so expressing himself Mr. Powers said if an understanding was not concluded at once the Scranton fran-chise and membership would be placed chise and membership would be placed in the hands of such parties as the league directorate deemed most proper to control it. He did not say that Mr. Simpson would have the franchise, neither did he mention the amount that would be paid for it, but he did say that the league was sick and tired of that the league was sick and tired of the present muddle. Mr. Powers scoffed the idea that a state league club could be located in here. He simply outlined the situa-tion to Mr. Simpson, President Betts everal of the old directors according to the contents of this article and gave them to explicitly understand that a settlement must be made and that it must be made at once.

Stringent Resolutions of the Analers

Athletic Union Defining Relation of Amateurs and Professionals.

Amateurs and Professionals.

At a meeting of the Amateur Athletic union of the United States held at the Astor House, in New York, Monday stringent resolutions were adopted to govern the relations of amateurs to professionals which are decidedly more radical than any legislation ever considered on the subject and will create a stir in athletic circles. The legislation passed, in detail, was:

That no amateur can race for a purse as a testimonial without becoming incligible; that no amateur base ball team can play against a professional team, or maintain a professional battery, that no foot ball team can have a professional coach play with it; that the maintenance of training tables by clubs should be abolished, and that training and traveling expenses should not be allowed; also that an athlete who has no visible means of support is not an amateur.

Several other matters of importance were passed upon, foremost among them the question raised over the American Amateur union boxing bouts at Pittsburg. It was found that the receipts at Pittsburg were about $8,000, and the expenses some $300. The North Bids club of Allegheny sent $75 to the American
