SELECTMEN MEET.

Huch Susiness Cone in a Short Time at the Council Rooms.

The usual meeting of the selectmen was short but during the time much business was transacted. The committee in charge announced that the Salem avenue improvements were finished, and that all the requirements had been compiled with. Bills as follows were ordered paid: Lynch & Bronson, feed, 46.30; John Booth, final estimate on falem avenue work, $933.88; Thomas Secott, making delinquent duplicate, $25; E. Moon, blacksmithing, $19.70.

Questions were asked by several citizens who wanted to know something in regard to the proposed improvements.

ments.

Among these was Andrew Mitchell, who asked why nothing had been done in regard to the curbing and grading of Canaan street. City Engineer Frick gave his opinion that a thirty-two-foot wide street would cause much trouble wide street would cause much trouble and that a narrower one, which would answer all requirements would be bet-ter. The wider road would cause the removal of many extending sidewalks, and much trouble would be caused thereby.

Stephen Gilby was the next to ask a question. He wanted to know who owned the upper part of Laurel avenue, and whether it had been accepted by the city or not. It is almost impassable and unless something is done he will give notice to the next grand jury.
Several new resolutions were passed, among them being one instructing the

The Alleged Cause of Thomas Hunt's Mourning Visionary Orbs.

An interesting case growing out of a fight was held yesterday morning at Alderman Bunnell's office. James Keeney, the defendant, is charged by Thomas Hunt with assault and battery. Thomas Hunt with assault and battery. Both of the parties concerned board at the Simpson house conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamb. On Sunday night Mr. Hunt was, it is said, quite free with his landlauy, Mrs. Lamb, and Mr. Keeney, who happened to be near, at once went to help her, releasing her and sailing into her persecutor. Then occurred a most lively time, the two punching and hitting at each other in a fearful manner. People who heard the noise came in and separated the two combatants, but not until Hunt had received a pair of black eyes and being

TO OUR PATRONS:

Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many paterons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop is fully cured. New wheat is now upon the market, and owing to the excessively dry weather many millers are of the opinion that it is already cured, and in proper condition for milling. Washburn-Crosby Co. will take no risks, and will allow the new wheat fully three months to mature before grinding.

This careful attention to every detail of milling has placed Washburn-Crosby Co.'s flour far above other brands.
