WILKES-BARRE,

JURY HAS METZGAR'S CASE. They Have Retired to Deliberate Upon the Question of Guilt or Innoonce.

When court opened yesterday morning District Attorney Fell began his argument where he left off the previous evening, and Attorney Ward asked if he intended to make two speeches. On announcing that it was but a continuation of the address of Monday, Mr.

Fell was allowed to proceed.

He went over the testimony carefully, and showed that it was impossible that the Arabrian who accompanied the dead man could have done the shooting.

This man had no motive in shooting This man had no motive in shooting himself. Gentlemen, this man was shot at. Dan Rothermel told you this. Mr. Hill told you this. That there was a quarrel there is no question of doubt. There might be a doubt as to the color of a man's necktle or hat, but of the quarrel that is settled. This is a re-markable case; one of the bitterest cruelty. This man came, perhaps to make his home here. He was under our protection. He was peaceful; he had done no harm. No matter what his religion, I know that this jury will leave aside politics, country and re-ligion and render a just decision in fairness to themselves and to their country.

This man has convicted himself out of his own mouth. He has told no less than a half dozen people of the crime. The remainder of the testimony was taken up and skilfully dissected, and Mr. Fell closed with a strong case against the defendant.

Judge Bennett in his charge congratulated the attorneys on both sides on ulated the attorneys on both sides on their skill in conducting the case. The judge said in part: "In order to aid you in a true deliverance of your verdict, it is the duty of the court to advise you as to the law, and he then quoted the statute on this point, defining the exact degrees of murder, and wherein they differed. The court is satisfied that no manslaughter had entered into the case and the jury should dismiss that thought.

manner. It was proven that John Mike was killed at the time and place specified. As to who did the killing is another matter. The testimony in the case was reviewed, quoting each witness in turn as they appeared on the stand, following this up with what each side had contended. The court said the sentence of death for this crime should have no bearing on this case.

The court instructed the jury as to what they could do in the matter of inquiry as to material facts in the evidence submitted in the case. Attention was also called by the judge to the fact that the defendant said on the witness stand that Bowman had affirmed that Metzgar did it. It was for the jury to decide which of these two told the truth. Judge Bennett also said that if there was a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the prisoner, he should be given the benefit of the doubt; if the murder was premediated, the jury must find in the first degree. He also gave them their instructions in case they should find in the second degree. The judge in closing, complimented the jury on their patience in sitting through a long tedious trial, and said he had no doubt that a true verdict would be rendered, with their thorough knowledge of the affair. He then affirmed the following points, made by the defense:

First—The jury must be satisfied, beentence of death for this crime should

First—The jury must be satisfied, be rist—The jury must be satisfied, beyond a reasonable doubt not only that the circumstances were consistent with the defendant's having committed the act. (but they must also be satisfied, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the facts are inconsistent with any other natural condusion).

second—That any inferences which the jury may draw from the conduct of the accused subsequent to the time of the accused subsequent to the time of the commission of the offense, taking into consideration the inexperience and youth of the defendant should be cautiously received.

tiously received.

Third—If the jury believes that William Penn Bowman fired the fatal shot, then the defendant cannot be convicted, then the defendant cannot be convicted, unless the commonwealth prove affirmatively and clearly that there was a concert of action to murder or rob. Fourth—Merely witnessing the crime without intervention would not make the prisoner a party to the commission of the crime.

Fifth—It is the duty of the jury to reconcile all the testimony offered to them and instead of drawing deductions of guilt, they should draw deductions of and instead of drawing deductions of guilt, they should draw deductions of innocence wherever they can.

Sixth—The jury should know that courts do not try cases on newspaper reports, nor upon anything except the evidence adduced in open court and the law pertaining to this particular case.

Seventh—Good character produced in favor of a prisoner on trial is to be considered with all the evidence in the case; and if the evidence together with evidence of good character, tends to produce a reasonable doubt in the jury's mind, the prisoner is entitled to the benefit of it and should be acquitted.

Eighth—If the vidence of good character alone raises in the minds of the jury a reasonable doubt, the prisoner is entitled to the benefit of that doubt, and should be acquitted.

Ninth—The defendant is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt existing in the mind of any one juror as to his guilt, and if there exists such a doubt he should be acquitted.

Respectfully submitted.

doubt he should be acquitted.
Respectfully submitted,
Eugene Ward, P. M. Thornton, Attorneys.

The jury retired at 11.30 a. m., and up to the time court adjourned last night had not reached a verdict.

MARRIED LAST EVENING.

Dr. E. B. Cottrell, of Princeton, and Miss Mae Robertson, of This City.

Last evening at 8 o'clock Miss Mas Last evening at 8 o'clock Miss Mae Robertson, one of the most popular young ladies of this city, was united in marriage to Dr. E. B. Cottrell, of Princeton, N. J., at the home of the bride's auat, Mrs. B. G. Carpenter, on North Franklin street. The house was handsomely decorated for the occasion, which was witnessed by a number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. There were four ushers, Wilbur F. Smith, Chester B. Derr, Edward N. Carpenter and B. H. Carpenter. Dr. Palmer, of Philadelphia, a college mate of the groom's, was best man, while the bride was attended by Miss Madge Carpenter as maid of hon-Miss Madge Carpenter as maid of hon-or. Walter Carpenter, jr., and Miss May Phillips carried flowers before the bridal party as it entered the room. The bride wore a handsome costume of white duchess satin, with orange blossoms, and vell. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Boyle, and after it was over, a reception was given at Mrs. Carpenter's. Dr. and Mrs. Cattrell left on their wedding tour at midnight, and after their return, will take up their home in Princeton, where Dr. Cottrell is one of the leading dentists.

The New Railway.

The People's street railway will be ready in a few days for operation. The track has been cleaned and put in proper shape for running cars and all is ready except the wheels, which were shipped from the city yesterday. James T. Richmond, a practical electrician, of New York city, has been elected superintendent. The fares have been fixed as fololws: Nanticoke to Glen Lyon, 10 cents; Nanticoke to Wanamie, 10 cents; Nanticoke to Alden, 5 cents; Alden to Glen Lyon, 10 cents; Alden to Glen Lyon, 10 cents; Alden to Wanamie, 5 cents; Alden to Nanticoke, 5 cents. Children under 5 years with proper guardians ride free. All persons over 5 years pay full fare.

Three cars will be run and will leave Nanticoke and Glen Lyon every twenty minutes. The last car will wait for the show car from Wilkes-Barre. The New Rallway.

cleared up in good shape.

Rev. H. F. J. Seneker, pastor of Christ Lutheran church in North WilkesBarre, has received official notice from the secretary of St. John's English Lutheran church of this city that, at the recent congregational meeting, a call was extended to him to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev.
G. W. Baudt. Mr. Seneker has been here for some time, and has built up his church in a surprising minner. He has the call under serious consideration.

Last evening the Young Ladies' Guild of St. Clemnt's church gave an enjoyable entertainment at the residence of James Pollock, on West River street. The following programme was rendered: Hot Tamale quartette, "Old Polks at Home," Messrs. Thomas, Emery, Moore and Cook; tener solo, "Love's Sorrow," Shelley, Alfred Hand; recitation, W. L. Jury Wanted Advice.

The jury in the case of John Smith, who was tried yesterday morning before Judge Lynch for assault with intend to kill, and for simple assault, tend to kill, and for simple assaut, came into court yesterday afternoon and asked the judge if they were al-lowed to find a verdict not relative to the court's in the indictment. Judge Lynch said that they might return a verdict modified to conform to the extent of guilt.

A Will Filed. A Will Filed.

The will of Michael Joseph Walezat, late of Plymouth, was admitted to probate yesterday. He bequeaths his entire personal estate, which is valued at $2,000, to his son-in-law, John Anthony Shrymonovitch. The legatee is also named as executor. The will was witnessed by Henry Dodson, William J. Williams and B. S. Robbins.

EX-CONSUL WALLER'S CASE.

He May Decide to Remain in Prison in Hopes of Getting an Indomnity.
Washington, Nov. 20.—While the state department refuses to furnish any information regarding the matter, the impression exists here that the French impression exists here that the French government has notified Ambassador Eustis at Paris that it will not furnish a copy of the record of the court martial proceedings against ex-Consul Waller, as a matter of right.

Mr. Waller's counsel, Mr. Crammond Kennedy, of this city, believes, however, that the record will be furnished to Ambassador Eustis if requested as a matter of courtesy.

to Ambassador Eustis if requested as a matter of couriesy.

It is not improbable that Mr. Waller will be notified by the state department that the French government will release him from custody as a matter of grace if this government will waive the question of indemnity.

So far, apparently, he is in ignorance of this fact. Mrs. Waller strenuously insists upon a payment of damages in compensation for his imprisonment, but it is not unlikely that the whole matter will be referred to the ex-consul to decide for himself.

demnity the state department and his counsel will do the best possible for him under the circumstances.

WRECK WITH DYNAMITE.

Cowardly Attempt to kill a Crew of Thrashing Machine Workmen. Armstrong, Iowa, Nov. 20.—Much ex-citement has been caused here by a cowardly attempt to blow up a thrashing machine on the farm of Charles Sanborn, about which a crew of twelve men have been working for several days. The explosion and probable killing of most of the men was prevented by an accident to the machine which necessitated running it so slowly that one of the pitchers on the grain stack, happening to notice what he took for a piece of paper in a sheaf of grain, had time to take it out before tossing the bundle into the machine.

A brief examination showed that the supposed piece of paper was in reality a stick of dynamite twelve inches long and two or three inches in diameter. It is conjectured that the crime was attempted by some one who desired to destroy Sanborn's machine out of re-
