Marriage of Miss Alma M. Beddoe to David Williams, of Taylor-Ceremony Performed by Rev. W. S. Jones.

In the presence of seventy-five invited guests the marriage ceremony of Miss Alma M. Beddoe to David Willams, of Taylor, was performed last evening at 8.30 o'clock at the house of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Beddoe, of North Garfield avenue. Rev. H. S. Jones, of the Presbyteman church, at Taylor, officiated. The interior of the house was decorated with vines, palms and flowers in honor of the occasion. Promptly upon the appointed hour, to the accompaniment of Mendelsshon's wedding march, played by J. Haydn Cowzeno, of Peckville, the bridal party entered the main parlor, where the wedding ceremony was performed under a floral bower. Rev. Mr. Jones led the way, followed by the groom with his best man and brother, Oliver Williams. Then came the bride, attended by her sister, Edith Beddoe. Both ladies were attractively attired. The bride wore a costume of cream silk, with pearl trimmings. She carried white chrysanthemums. Her maid was attired in a dress of blue, trimmed with cream and carried white In the presence of seventy-five inmaid was attired in a dress of blue, trimmed with cream and carried white

A Childrens Convention.

The children of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church gave a novel children's convention last evening in the main auditorium of the church. About seventy-five little tots participated and entertainment was furnished to a room full of people. The children interspersed their little speeches with songs, given in first-class style, under the leadership of Bezeleel Davis. Mr. Davis is very successful in conducting children entertainments. He has a happy faculty of controlling the little ones and the entertainment of last evening was successful owing to his efforts. A social was held after the entertainment. This part was under the direction of the Vounce Freelength hand.

Shooting at the Suu.

Two young men of Bellevue Heights tried to shoot at pigeons yesterday afternoon in a field back of the Round woods. The match was for $10, the winner to take the whole sum, includ-ing the gate receipts. Five birds were fired at by the trigger-pullers. The score resulted in a victory for David Reese, he having managed to puncture three out of five. Tom Morgan, the other shooter, shot five times in the r. For some reason or other the geons failed to fly against Morgan's ots, and the ammunition was wasted on the desert air. A great deal of fun was created from the shoot. The large crowd especially enjoyed the hair breadth escapes that the birds-suffered from the shots out of Morgan's gun.
