St. Brenden Young Men Decide After Debating the Subject That Labor Cannot Do Without Capital.

At a meeting of the Literary and Debating society of the St. Brenden council, Young Men's Institute, held at the rooms, on South Main avenue, last evening, an interesting programme was rendered. A special reading was given by Thomas McAndrew; declamation by Thomas McAndrew; declamation by Thomas Larkin, and an essay by William Gilroy; then came the most important feature of the evening, a debate on the subject, "Resolved, That labor can exist without capital."

The affirmative side was upheld by James Brown, John Durkin and John McFaddin, while the negative side was argued by Thomas Carroll, Thomas Hurst and Thomas Fleming. After carefully considering the arguments advanced the judges gave their discussion in favor of the negative side by a small margin of 25 to 2s points. New York, Nov. 21.—The trial of David F. Hannigan, charged with the murder of Solomon H. Mann, who, it was alleged, seduced Loretta Hannigan, sister of the prisoner, and afterward caused her death as the result of a criminal operation, came to an end tonight, the jury returning a verdict of not guilty. The plea of the defense was that Hannigan was insane through grief over his sister's disgrace and death when he committed the murder.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Alderman Donovan Decided That Ex-Con. stable Thomas Charles Burke Had No Cause of Action.

Ex-Constable Thomas Charles Burke, of the Twelfth ward, swore out a warrant before Alderman Donovan, alleging that Contractor Julius Maier had committed an assault upon him. The trouble occurred a few days ago near the foundation of the Evangelical Church of Peace, on Prospect avenue. Mr. Maier has the contract of building the substructure of the edifice and the prosecutor was employed by him wielding the pick and shovel. Burke had a week's wages coming and desired it. He made demand in loud tones for his hire, and was asked to go to the contractor's office instead of seeking to do business on the public highway.

This angered Burke and he made some uncomplimentary allusions to the contractor's ancestry, whereupon a some uncomplimentary allusions to the contractor's ancestry, whereupon a brawny hand was clapped over his mouth. That was the sum and substances of the assault. At the hearing Burke created a good deal of amusement by pleading his case law-yer-fashion. Alderman Donovan decided that the prosecutor had no cause for action, dismissed the case and put the costs on him.

POWERS ON THE SITUATION

Says the People of Scranton Need Have No Pear About Pranchise.

IT WILL REMAIN IN THIS CITY

His Version of the Cause of the Trouble Deed of the Scranion Franchise to H. P. Simpson Acknowledged in Court.

President Powers, of the Eastern Base Ball League, said yesterday to an interviewer in New York city that the people of Scranton need nave no fear that the Eastern League franchise will be taken away from here.

"The case in a nutshell is this," said Mr. Powers: "President Betts secured a judgment for $1,800 against the club for money advanced for salaries and other obligations. At the sheriff's sale the club franchise was bought in by a lawyer for Mr. Betts, who afterwards sold it to H. P. Simpson for $2,181. In addition to this, Mr. Simpson assumed a note for $300 and agreed to pay $316 of back salaries.

"This deal will be approved of at the Eastern cLague meeting next month,

Eastern cLague meeting next month, but in the meantime the Eastern League directors, for their own protection, as-sumed the franchise for the non-payment of salaries and so secured its re maining in the Eastern League.

Want a Share of the Money. Want a Share of the Money.

"The trouble is," continued Mr. Powers, "while the club was in financial straits there were some directors who rendered no assitance, but now that there is money in sight they are very much in evidence to claim their share. There will be an amicable settlement at Scranton, I am sure, but if not, the matter will be fully adjusted at our annual meeting."

President Powers also said that he had just received a letter from M. H. McDermott, of Fall River, the new manager for the Scranton club, in which he stated that he was signing good players for the Scranton team.

Deed Acknowledged to Mr. Simpson.

When. Sheriff Clemons appeared in court yesterday to have the deeds acknowledged of properties he had sold according to writs issued from the prothonotary's office the deed of the franchise and leasehold interest of the Scranton Base Ball association was about to be acknowledged to Harry P. Simpson, who purchased them for the sum of $2,180,50, when Attorney I. H. Burns, representing E. J. Coleman, arose and objected on the ground that the property sold was personal property and there is no authority of law for the sheriff to make or acknowledge a deed for personal property; also that the property was not described.

Attorneys R. J. Murray, George S. Horn, and ex-Congressman Amerman, representing Mr. Simpson, opposed Attorney Burns' objections; they argued that the deed covered real property. Judge Archbald overruled the exceptions. The deed was entered of record in the office of Prothonotary Pryor and made out to Mr. Simpson. It was immediately recorded in the office of Recorder of Deeds Huester.

It is said that Mr. Burns intends making application again to court in a few days to have the sheriff's sale Deed Acknowledged to Mr. Simpson.

The rumor that the majority of the reserved seats and admission tickets are in the hands of speculators is denied by all those who are connected are in the hands of speculators is de-nied by all those who are connected with the management this year. In fact, everything has been done by the committee to keep the tickets away from the speculators, but nevertheless it was learned today that some of the admission tickets were obtained. Captain Lea will play with his foot ball team against Yale Saturday. This means much to Princeton, as he is a tower of strength and a great source means much to Princeton, as he is a tower of strength and a great source of encouragement to the Tigers. There is now no concealing the fact that Princeton has improved to such an extent during the past week or ten days that she will send a team worthy of Old Nassau into the field against her old-time rival. Wonderful strides have been made toward perfecting the eleven in every way and there is not today a weak spot in the whole team.

There are various reports regarding the condition of Yale's team. All that is known publicly is that well-posted students are anxious to bet even money on the result, but may give odds later on. This afternoon the team lined up against the scrub as usual for the last hard practice before the game. Tomorrow they will take a good rest and leave for New York in the afternoon.
