ARCHBALD

Although the borough election is three months distant, already candidates are named for the vacancies to be filled on election day. There will be four vacancies on the school board and three on the borough council. The term of school director Henry Myers, of the First ward; John J. Duffy, of the Second ward, and M. J. Toolin expires in June, 1896, and Mr. Corcoran, who now represents the Third ward on the board, will be obliged to resign because of his removal to the First ward. Mr. Myers may be returned again from the First ward. But neither Mr. Duffy nor Mr. Toolin will seek re-election. James F. McAndrew, of Pine street, and James Muliarkey, jr., of Salem street, are named as candidates for Mr. Duffy's seat and Thomas Siddon is the only person thus far named in connection with Mr. Toolin's place. There will be the usual strife for the councilmanic vacancies. The retiring members are John J. Dougher, of the First ward, who was elected for one year; Thomas Padden, of the Second ward, and John Manley, who now fills the vacancy in the Third ward caused by the resignation of Mr. Blake. It is rumored that Mr. Dougher may again be a candidate and that Thomas Caffrey may contest with him. It is also said that Mr. Padden is anxious to succeed himself, but he may have to fight the veteran councilman, Thomas K. Munley, in order to do it. Stephen Barrett, jr., is anxious to represent the Third ward and has already publicly announced his intention to seek election. For the minor offices there are no candidates mentioned yet, but there is little danger of their being vacant, because of the overpowering desire of a

is little danger of their being vacant, because of the overpowering desire of a large percentage of the citizens of this borough to represent their fellows in an official way. The spring election is anticipated here with as much pleasure as is Christmastide and there is sometimes more public spirit shown in the times more public spirit shown in the strife for the offices than there is in the discharge of the duties that attach to

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor conducted an entertainment in the church on Friday evening. The attendance was large and a programme of unusual excellence was rendered. The numbers were interpreted by Misses Gardner, of Caroondale; Mrs. Dr. Van Doren and Miss Jennie O'Bovle, of this place; Miss Maud Doud, of Peckville the Imeprial Quartette and Mr. Bradley, of Carbondale, and John A. Foote, of this place. Mr. C. A. Battenberg presided. The entertainment was a success both from an artistic and financial point of view.

Husband and Wife Had Occasion to Use It and Received Relief from Catarrhal

Troubles in 10 Minutes.

"My wife and I."

So Rev. John Brochror, of Buffalo, will tell the inquirer, were both troubled with distressing catarrh, but have enjoyed freedom from the aggravating malady since the day they first used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. Rev. Dr. Bochror is the aged and beloved pastor of the Evangelist Protestant Christ Church, and hundreds in his congregation are familiar with the improvement which mmediately followed the use of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. Its action is almost instantaneous, giving the most grateful relief within ten minutes or so in even the most chronic cases, and straightway continues to cure until the last trace of catarrh is gone. And the cured stay tured as thousands of testimonials prove. 60 cents at Chas. Lorens and all druggists. Eample with blower sent on receipt of Boccurs in stamps or silver by S. G. Detchen, 47 E. On and after Monday, Nov. 25, the Coal Exchange clothiers, formerly Martin & Delany's old stand, will keep their store open until nine o'clock every evening until Jan. 1st for the express purpose to give the working people, who cannot come in the day time, a chance to buy their wants in the evening. We want the workingman's trade, and to get it we will offer them bargains never before heard of. Our six doilar suits, in black and blue cheviots, is what we call the workingman's friend, which we consider the best bargains ever shown for the money. We will still continue to close out a large line of odd and cod men's, boys' and children's suits at 50 cts, on the doilar, and on Ulsters and Overcoats we will give 25 cents off on every dollar's worth of your purchase.
