Washington, Nov. 24.—The canvass for the principal offices at the disposal of the house of representatives is be-coming more animated as the time approaches for the Republican caucus which is announced for Saturday of which is announced for Saturday of next week. The elective offices of the house are the clerkship, with a salary of $5,000; sergeant-at-arms; $4,500; door-keepers, $3,500; postmaster, $2,500; and chaplain, $900. There are from two to seven candidates for each of these places, the highest number being for chaplain. A majority of the candidates for the principal places have opened headquarters in the Sbbitt House or Willard's Hotel, and their respective rooms are constantly thronged, alrooms are constantly thronged, al-though comparatively few of the mem-bers of the house have arrived, the visitors being composed largely of those who hope to secure positions under the visitors being composed largely of those who hope to secure positions under the elective officers.

There are but two candidates for the house clerkship. They are ex-Representative Thomas J. Henderson, of II-linois, and ex-Representative Alexander McDowell, of Pennsylvania. Both falled of renomination last year. Mr. McDowell began his canvass a year ago, as soon as it became apparent that the Republicans would have the house. It is claimed that he has the solid support of the New York and Pennsylvania delegations. This claim confined only to newspapers, and there ago, as soon as it became apparent that the Republicans would have the house. It is claimed that he has the solid support of the New York and Pennsylvania delegations. This claim is made the basis of opposition on the part of Mr. Henderson's adherents, as is also the fact that the speakership is conceded to Mr. Reed, who also comes from an Eastern state.

'We are not putting our claims on we are not putting our claims on sectional grounds," said Representa-tive Cannon, who is a supporter of General Henderson, "but we cannot overlook the fact that there are 145 Republican members west of the Ohio line to ninety east of it. The speaker-ship, which all concede to Mr. Reed of Maine, carries with it nine-tenths of the official honors of the house. It would seem that the West with such a large majority of the Republican membership should be conceded the clerkship," Mr. McDowell's friends claim, however, that he will secure a large vote both in the West and the Indiana's Candidate.

Captain T. H. McKee, of Indiana, sec-retary of the Republican congressional campaign committee, and B. Russell, of campaign committee, and B. Russell, of Missouri, are so far the only announced candidates for the office of sergeant-at-arms. Each has his state delegation behind him, and Mr. Russell is understood to be working in conjunction with the McDowell clerkship forces. Mr. McKee has, however, the advantage of a more extended political acquaintance. There has been some talk among the members of the Minnesota delegation of again bringing out Mr. Reed, of that members of the Minnesota delegation of again bringing out Mr. Reed, of that state, who was a defeated candidate for this office in the Fifty-first congress. A Mr. Hartshorn, of Iowa, has also been mentioned in this connection.

The principal candidates for door-keeper are Mr. Glenn, of New York, and W. L. Tipton, of Tennessee. Glenn has been identified with New York state politics for some years, and Tipton is editor of a newspaper at Cleveland, Tenn.

Tenn.

Henry Sherwood, so far, is the only pronounced candidate for the house postmastership. He halls from Michigan, and was house postmaster during the Forty-third and Forty-fourth conthe Forty-third and Forty, fourth congresses, and also postmaster in the city of Washington for four years under President Harrison's appointment. It it considered probable that Ohlo may bring out a candidate for either this office or that of doorkeeper. Of the seven candidates for chaplain, six are Washcandidates for chaplain, six are Wash-ington preachers. They are Messrs. BURNED AT THE STAKE.

Fate of a French Pilot Who Did France Service in the Amapan Affair. Georgetown, Demerara, Oct. 30, 1895. The intelligence comes from Cayenne, French Guiana, that a French pilot named Evariste has been sacrificed by being burned alive at the stake by Veiga Cabral, the self-constituted ruler

River for the purpose of effecting the release of Captain Trajan, who had been captured by Cabral after hauling down the French flag at Counani within "le territoire conteste," on the boundaries between Brazil and French Guiana. For the services thus rendered by Evariste to the country of which he was a subject Cabral decided his life should be forfeited, and as Evariste traded in those waters it was only a matter of time till, the feroclous edict should be carried into effect.

Cabral readily obtained assistance for keeping a sharp lookout upon the river, as he made it appear that but for the as he made it appear that but for the assistance so rendered by Evariste to the commander of the French war ship he would not have been able to effect a landing at Mapa, which resulted in the slaughter of so many of the native people.

Some days ago a fishing party, with the doomed Evariste, as pilot, on board, arrived off Mapa, and when the party landed Cabral immediately recognized his victim, whom he lost no time in taking into custody. After jeeringly advising Evariste to obtain from the French authorities the fullest reward for his services for piloting the Bengali to Mapa, by Cabral's command the unfortunate man was tied to a stake

Village of Savannah, Iowa.

Savannah, Iowa, Nov. 24.—Great excitement exists over the discovery of a petrified man in Harrison Figgans' field. It is now on exhibition at this village. It is perfect, even to the hair and moustache.

He was evidently murdered, for his hands are tied crosswise at the wrists by a leather strap, which is also petrified, and there is a hole in the forehead as if he had been shot. It also looks as if he had been disemboweled by a skillful hand and then sewed up.

St. Louis, Nov. 24.—A boom for Cleveland for third term has been started by Secretary of Agriculture Morton, who has allowed himself to be interviewed. Mr. Morton disclaims authority to speak for the president, but the declaration, coming from a member of the president's family, cannot help being regarded as significant.

It is true his utterances before this have called forth rebuke from his chief, and it would not be surprising if the interview of today would result in some definite statement from Mr. Cleveland,

He did not pay much attention to the officer's command to stop, at first, but continued to walk forward. When he glanced up a second time the man was scarcely six feet from him, and was in the act of pulling the trigger of a revolver aimed at his forehead. Stuart pulled his six-shooter and killed the policeman. A great hue and cry was quickly raised and Stuart was hustled away in the center of an excited crowd fact that he insisted the shooting had been done merely in self-defense, was found guilty and handed over to an-

Dies Near Pomons, Cal.

Pomona, Cal., Nov. 24.—Information has come from Dalton Canyon, fourteen miles from Pomona, that an old hunter and trapper, Enoch Willing, was yesterday found dead in his bed in his ramshackle shanty.

Willing lived in poverty, and has been buried by charity in the canyon, where he lived. He was a member of the well-known Willing family, of Philadelphia, and was a first cousin of Edward Willing, father of the present Mrs. John Jacob Astor, of New York.

He ran away from home and shipped before the mast, salling all over the world, until nearly fifty years old, when he settled down in a hut in San Gabriel Canyon, and lived the life of a hermit.
