WILKES-BARRE. THE PREACHERS' MEETING.

Dr. Edwards Gives a Splendid Talk on "The Preacher of To-day." At the regular meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Ministers' association yesterday morning, the following were present: Rev. G. Williams, Mrs. C. W. Furey, W. W. W. Smith, J. Madison, Yatesville, L. E. Van Hoesen, Fort York, J. LaBar, Wyoming; William Wilson, Edinboro, Edinboro; Y. C. Smith, West Pittston; J. B. Sweet, Ashley; O. L. Severson, Plymouth; N. Reasoner, city; James Jones, Yatesville, E. Edwards, Edinboro; W. H. C. Cole, Dwight, Ill.; C. B. Henry, Alderson; L. C. Murdoch, city.

These demands were beautifully and eloquently developed. Speaking of sympathy, the doctor said men die, but the need of sympathy will never die on human hearts and needs. In the line of duty—knowledge is a hill that few may climb, whilst duty is a path that all receive.
