SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Rev. William A. Nordt Will Be Installed Pastor of the Hickory Street Presbyterian Church This Evening.

After the meeting of the Lackawanna Presbytery at the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, this evening, the pastor, Rev. William A. Nordt, will be installed with impressive ceremonies. The presbytery will meet in the afternoon at Thomas Williams, of Kingsport, which will be passing upon the application of Rev. Mr. Nordt for admission to the body. That will be a mere matter of form.

In addition to the clergymen of the presbytery there will be present some reverend gentlemen from the Newark body, of which Rev. Mr. Nordt had been a member since he was ordained to the ministry, up to the time that his resignation was accepted a few weeks ago, pursuant to his accepting the call from the Hickory Street congregation. The installation sermon will be preached by Rev. Mr. Fishmore, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who will speak in the German language. Rev. James Leach, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach the sermon in English. Rev. Mr. Nordt will enter upon his pastorate next Sunday. Arrangements will be made for a reception at the rectory which has recently been built and is now furnished and ready for occupancy. Mr. Nordt will arrive at 10 o'clock this morning, but will leave again for Newark to bring his family here.

Two Church Entertainments. At the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church this evening an entertainment will be held under the auspices of the members of the choir. A very nice program will be presented. The number of tickets disposed of assures a large attendance and that the occasion will be a grand success goes without saying. Past events which have been under the direction of the choir prove that anything undertaken is always accomplished with credit.

The other event will be at the Greenwood Presbyterian church, where from 6 to 8 a supper will be served by the young ladies of the congregation.

Shorter Paragraphs. It is said that the Drum Ice pond will be turned into a skating rink this winter, instead of harvesting the crop of ice. Mrs. M. Robinson, the owner, has the matter under advisement, but is not decided yet on whether or not she will make the change.

A regular meeting of Camp 430, Patriotic Order of America, was held last evening and two members were initiated.

Mrs. August Rempe, of Cedar avenue, is very kindly and her friends are appreciative regarding her recovery.

Blacksmith Michael O'Halloran, who was locked up Saturday night for abusing his family, was let out yesterday. He is in a precarious condition and is not expected to recover. She has been ill almost sixteen weeks.

Arrangements for work at the South Steel mill repairs will be made that it will require a week to finish. After that the promise is that work will be resumed and steadily continued during the winter.

NORTH END.

The Epworth league of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church, gave a literary programme last evening.

Rev. Newman Matthews will lead the services at the North Main avenue Baptist church, Thanksgiving Day.

The North End club of the city league will play Company H team tonight at the armory. Those who will toss the leather for the North End are: Charles Steale, pitcher; Emory, short stop; Scharr, first base; Griffin, second base; Schellhase, third base; McKeehan, left field; Ransome, center field; Bryden, right field.

The annual convention of the Methodist church Christian Endeavor society at the district convention to be held next Friday in the Penn Avenue Baptist church.

Mrs. John Wardell, of North Garfield avenue, is visiting friends at Portland.

James Farnham will lecture on the "Mountain of Science" before the Welsh Philosophical society and friends at next Saturday night's meeting.

Farnham is connected with the Scranton School of Mines.

Miss Ella McDonough, of Price street, has recovered from a siege of typhoid fever.

Mail carrier W. A. Moser, of North Cliff avenue, has recovered from an illness and will immediately resume duty.

The programme was heartily applauded. Despite the inclement weather, the house was packed and a snug sum was realized.

Anthony McHugh, of Main street, was injured at the Archbald mines yesterday by being kicked by a mule.

Diseases Caused by Too Much Hard Work and Worry.

THEY WEAR OUT THE KIDNEYS

Why Americans Are More Nervous, Anemic, and Suffer More from Bright's Disease Than Other Nationalities.

RUSH AND WORRY OUR BANE

The Kidneys and Their Clogging Caused by Overwork and Worry.

CARE AND CURE OF CLOGGED KIDNEYS.

We are an overworked nation. We get through a great deal of work. We do more, and work harder and faster than any other nation on earth.

Why do we get sick in our kidneys? It is simple enough to explain and to remember. Our kidneys were made to filter our blood. That is the first thing.

Every drop of blood that passes through our body has to go through these filters and be purified. All work uses up blood. That is the next thing.

Too much work of any kind uses too much blood and strains the kidneys so much that it hurts them. That is the next thing.

Strained kidneys are sick kidneys. Sick kidneys don't filter the blood. And this is the danger.

To be well we must live naturally—and get well when sick take Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.

Living naturally doesn't mean doing without comforts, but it means doing nothing—not over-worrying, not over-eating—not over-straining our kidneys.

Every drop of blood that passes through our body has to go through these filters and be purified. All work uses up blood. That is the next thing.

The cure for all kidney and blood troubles is Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills.
