Little Ones as Entertainers.

The following programme will be rendered this afternoon at 2 o'clock by the pupils of the primary grades of No. 14 school. Principal James R. Hughes has arranged to have one session in his department, vacating at 1 o'clock for the exercises to take place in his room. This arrangements will furnish a seating capacity for over 300, thereby giving room for the parents and relatives of the pupils.

It is the object of the teachers to stimulate a desire on the part of children to develop their latent powers of expressing themselves composedly before the public. The difficulty with pupils of our public schools is lack of power of expression. Knowledge is acquired, but there is a deficiency in giving expression to acquired knowledge, and by this means, it is hoped that the pupils will attain to a high standard in this respect. The programme is as follows:

A Drunken Hungarian Has a Set-to with a Bass-Violin.

George Smith, an Hungarian performer on the bass fiddle, was on his way to a dance on the West Side last evening carrying his big instrument on his back, and also a large cargo of wet goods.

On lower Lackawanna avenue he came to the conclusion that he would divest himself of one or the other of his loads and as the one on his back was giving him the most bother he unstrapped it and leaned it up against a telegraph pole. The wind caused it to topple over and in falling the head of the viol struck the head of the violinist with violence and for this unprovoked assault the Hungarian jumped on the big music maker and smashed it into smithereens.

A policeman happened along about this time and took the Hungarian and the remains of the fiddle to the station house.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

(Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.)

Card from Robert Brown Girling.

Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: The article in The Tribune in regard to the shooting at Throop, during which Zara Robbins shot his wife and himself, referred to me in a most unjustifiable manner. Everyone in the neighborhood knows that the relations between Mrs. Robbins and myself have always been of the most innocent nature. Both my wife and myself have befriended her as best we could after her husband's desertion, allowing her and her daughter to live in a small house upon our property, and giving her what other assistance our limited means would allow. The only difficulty I ever had with Mr. Robbins was in regard to a real estate matter, and had no reference to his wife whatever. Mrs. Robbins is a virtuous, hard-working woman, and this report, which must have been furnished by some unscrupulous person for sensational purposes, is as unjust to her as to myself.

Yours truly,
Robert Brown Girling.

If you have a telephone, call up 1042, and he'll visit your place of business. Want "ads." in The Tribune pay big on a small investment. Have you tried one?

NOVEL GAME OF FOOT BALL

Members of School of Lackawanna Alumni to Play the Regular Team.

MEET FOR PRACTICE TO-DAY

Game Will Be Played on Saturday Afternoon—An Exciting Game Promised for Thanksgiving Afternoon Between Scranton and Seminary Teams.

A number of well-known young business men of the city who belong to the alumni of the School of the Lackawanna have decided to select a foot ball team from their number and on Saturday afternoon play the regular eleven of the school at the Base Ball park. Among those interested in the matter are Thomas and John Brooks, A. G. and A. E. Hunt, jr., Frank Spencer, Harry P. Simpson, Spencer Dickson, James Blair, jr., Windsor Decker and Edward Moffatt. They will gather together as many as possible of the alumni for practice at 4 o'clock this afternoon on Quincy avenue, between Olive and Vine streets.

The regular school team has been put to considerable expense this season in equipping and supporting its players, and the proposed game, it is thought, will attract a large crowd who will enjoy seeing the older players mauled and dragged about the field by their younger and better-trained opponents. In order to make the game a possibility it is intended to use fifteen or twenty players on the alumni side in order to relieve one another during the contest. This plan, it is believed, will make the game more even and more attractive. Whatever may be the number of spectators it is certain that the personnel of the audience will very nearly represent the best social element of the city.

The Thanksgiving Day Game.

Preparations for the Thanksgiving Day game between the Scranton Bicycle club and the Wyoming seminary are moving along smoothly. The question is now, will Scranton be able to keep up her fine record, or will the youngsters from the seminary succeed in bringing the Bicycle boys to a stop? Whichever it may be, it is going to be a great game, and those who go out to the Base Ball park tomorrow will witness one of the hardest fought foot ball games that has been played in this county for many a day.

The prospects for a good game are bright from the fact that both teams are playing in good form. The seminary boys, with the sting of two defeats, will strive hard to recover their lost prestage in this city. On the other hand, the Bicycle team has a record to defend and they will not surrender to their old-time rivals without the strongest kind of a fight.

Among the enthusiasts in this city and Wilkes-Barre, Scranton is a pronounced favorite, and bets of 5 to 4 have been wagered on the Bicycle team. The students at the seminary, however, are holding off for better odds and it is expected that they will bring quite a little money with them when they come up tomorrow morning.

Local Team in Good Condition.

The Scranton team is in excellent condition and is anxiously awaiting the day of the game, for they say they are going to run up a large score against the collegians and clinch the superiority they now enjoy. A new style of kicking and a new system of interference will be used in the game. The team will line up in its usual manner with the exception of full back, which position will be filled by Thayer. This will be his first game since he was hurt at Shamokin.

From Kingston comes the news that Captain Rymer, Wyoming's star half back, has hurt his shoulder and that he will be unable to play. If this is so the seminary team will be sadly crippled, as Captain Rymer is one of the best half backs who ever put on a canvas jacket for Wyoming seminary, besides, he is cool-headed and uses excellent judgment in handling his team while on the field.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

LAND FOR A BALL PARK.

Owners of the Scranton Club Are Looking for a Desirable Site.

The new base ball owners are discussing the advantages of two proposed plots for a new park; one is the old race course on Providence road beyond the present park and opposite Tripp's slope; the other site is west of Washington avenue, opposite the Columbus breaker, and near what is known as Johnson's lake, although the "lake" is now only a pool of stagnant water. The latter location, which is owned by the Lackawanna Iron and Coal company, seems to be the favorite choice of the owners and of many who have been consulted in the matter.

One impediment to transforming the Johnson's lake plot into a park is Penn avenue, the direction of which would have to be changed in order to give the necessary park space. Wherever the park is located, the new owners propose erecting a large grandstand and sightly bleachers, cultivating a greensward and laying out a four-lap track. This will require an expenditure of much money, and will be attempted only in some location where a permanency of at least five years is assured.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company is not disposed to give a long-term lease on the present park, although it is willing to lease the old race course at so much per acre for any number of years, but the latter location is not as acceptable to the owners of the franchise as is the Johnson's lake locality, which is within walking distance of the central city and Green Ridge, and can be reached direct by street car from every other part of the city except the South and West Sides. If this location is secured the park will average 500 feet in width and length, but the outcome of present deliberations seems to rest largely upon the possibility of changing the course of Penn avenue, which now runs about sixty feet inside, the northwest corner of the proposed plot.

LIVE SPORTING NOTES.

William Smink, a minor league player, has been signed as catcher for the Pittsburg club.

Alonzo Clayton, the famous western colored lightweight jockey, has been engaged by W. P. Thompson, of Brookdale Stud, Lexington, Ky., for the coming season, at a salary of $10,000. He will take no outside mounts.

Byron McClelland has made another addition to his string of thoroughbreds for next season's campaign, in Moylan, a 2-year-old bay colt, by Bradford, dam Ella Rosalind. Price private. The colt belonged to W. C. Fessenden, Watertown, Mass.

The Magnet Foot Ball team, champions of the West Side, challenge any foot ball eleven in Lackawanna or Luzerne counties whose aggregate weight does not exceed 1,500 pounds to a game of foot ball on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 28. WILLIAM TAYLOR AND SON.

Fatal ❋ Pneumonia.

That dreaded disease that temporarily compels a cessation of the work of all the greater organs of the body, thus stopping the digestion of food, the creation of new tissue, brings the patient to a point where the flickering flame of life is blown out like the light of a burnt-out candle. To make recovery probable, keep up the patient's strength — give him that great concentrated essence of the vital principles of lean beef, the strength of which is enhanced by our special cold process method of manufacture, it can be retained by the weakest stomach, and in every instance makes blood, flesh and strength. Dr. Charles Wilson, Atwell Ave., Providence, says; "My wife suffered a severe attack of pneumonia; after passing the acute stage fearing heart failure, I gave her freely Bovinine and port wine, equal parts. I have never seen such good results. I am a hearty believer in Bovinine for quick nutrition." Over 25000 other physicians endorse it equally strong.
