THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-SATURDAY MORNING. NOVEMBER 80, 1895.

laher's Case Will Probably Go Before the Jury lo-day.

Testerday at noon the defense in the Fisher trial rested, and all the evi-dence was taken. The defense has put up a strong case, and the general opin-ion of those who have followed the testimony carefully, is that Fisher has at least a fighting chance for acquit-tal at least a fighting chance for acquit-tal. The most important testimony, yes-terday was that of Ray Boyer, at whose home the crime was matured, and who heard Robinson and Hend-ricks fixing up the plot several days before the crime and heard Barney Reick's name mentioned in her house, that she did not know Fisher, never saw him in her house, never heard Hendricks or Robinson mention his name; that he did not set any of the money, as she saw it shared by the boys, and that in her knowledge of the case Fisher had no connection what-ever with the crime. Officer Tierney, of Scranton, says he saw "Happy Jack." as he knew Rob-inson, come up the Central tracks on the evening of Nov. 17, 1893, accom-panied by a short man carrying a next few days, prior to displaying Holiday Goods. Below we quote a the evening of Nov. 17, 1893, accom-panied by a short man carrying a lantern; that he spoke to Robinson, but that the latter pulled his hat down and did not answer him. He fixes the day, as it was his birthday, and he had a warrant to be endorsed by 'Squire Donohue, who was home at supper, and it was between 6.30 and 7 o'clock; that he did not know Robinson's name until five weeks ago, when after read-ing the confession of "Happy Jack" Robinson he connected the two and afterward identified him at the pris-on.

william Marvel, the well-known commission merchant, testified that Fisher worked for him on Christmas week, and that the cash book shows an entry of $4.33 on Dec. 23. He had dealings with Fisher extending over four years, and knew him as an honest and upright man. Isaac Frouenthal swore that he knew Fisher for five or six years, and had seen Robinson and Hendricks at the Valley yards on the day preceding the murder. They were alone at that time. Fisher had always been scrupu-lously honest in all his dealings with the witness.

lously honest in all his dealings with the witness. Fred Miller said that Mrs. Reick and Emma had said to him and to his wife that Sol Miller had lured Barney away. and had repeated this assertion several times up to the time of Hendricks' trial. Considerable testimony was then in-troduced as to Fisher's previous good character, and then William Bauer, of Barring's detective agency, could not explain why Stager was not subpoened when the prosecution had a vast amount of evidence taken by him on the matter and that he had told Bar-ring of the death bed statements of Barney Reick. George Overton was called and the ring of the death bed statements of Barney Reick. George Overton was called and the defense succeeded in mixing him badly as to dates and events previous and subsequent to the murder. Ray Boyer was recalled and said in answer to questions by jurors that she had never heard of Fisher's name in connection with this crime. At the afternoon session, Deputy Warden Johnson, of the Eastern Pen-itentiary, asked that Robinson be re-manded, and that the papers relat-ing to his release be given him, which was done. A number of people witnessed the game of ball at the Armory Thursday evening, which resulted in a victory for the Amities. The young sports, however, gave them a hard tussle. The game is very interesting, especially in an amusing way. William Miller the colored pitcher, furnished plenty of fun. A game of six or seven innings with an out-of-town team, and an ad-mission of 15 cents would prove a much greater attraction. Isger, of the Carbondale team, was hadly hurt in the game of foot ball here Saturdey.

PROF. COLES FOR DECEMBER. From Storms and Signs.

From Storms and Signs. December brings a bad showing of the planets, and whether their evil influ-ences will be felt most upon Earth this present month. I cannot tell. The sea of gaseous matter passing over the sun, cutting off our regular supply of sun rays, which made a break upon the 13th. the very day that the danger signal was displayed in our Storms and Signs cal-endar, and caused destructive gales and storms on the sea coast at Cape May and elsewhere, is now increasing, and as the rain fall is now some 33 inches in arrears. I would advise everyone, on hand and sea, to prepare themselves for a stupendous freak of nature that will destroy the meterological equilibrium to such an extent that it will not be able to regain itself again in months there-after. The sun shining through a sea of gaseous matter will continue to pro-duce beautiful and awe-inspiring sun set scenes, beautiful beyond the descrip-tive powers of pen or brush. It will also produce terrible flash lights and strange phenomena. Many of the De-cember days will be beautiful and full of enjoyment. Heavy wind gales will suddenly spring up and sweep over the days will be turned, suddenly, into winter days and vice versa. A financial rage that will increase in violence dur-ing the next succeeding three months, until many old established business forwhiter days and vice versa. A financial gale that will increase in violence dur-ing the next succeeding three months, until many old established business for-tifications are blown down, may sweep over the country. Earthquake shocks will be felt in America, and several in the old country. The "Vibrameter" shows a constant trembling of the earth; therefore, let miners take warn-ing, as these constant tremors will have a tendency to superinduce mine caves. Wars and fearful deeds among the sav-ages will continue in the old country. while America will witness some awful crimes. The condition of the atmos-phere this month will be favorable for destructive fires in cities and mines. The regular and the reactionary storm periods are due upon the following dates, 1, 2, 5, 7, 8, 10, 11, 2, 15, 17, 19, 21, 23, 25, 27, 30 and 31. But the disturb-ances on the sun may turn some of our regular storm periods. A blizzard will pass over the northern states on or about the 20th inst. over the northern states on or about the 20th inst. Signs.

Venus will be in sign Virgo on the 1st. Mars will be in sign Libra on the 7th. Jupiter will be in sign Cancer on the Saturn will be in sign Libra on the 29th. Therefore: The vital forces of all hu-man and vegetable life will be at their "highest flood" on the following dates: 4, 5, 6, 7, 14, 15, 23, 24, 25 and 31; and at the "lowest ebb" on the 1, 2, 3, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 26, 27, 28

Still More Trouble.

The "low ebb" figures again have a two-thirds majority this month which foretells the coming of a still greater drouth, fearful epidemic or strange dis-turbance of the elements which may re-sult in disastrous floods or earthquake shocks Prof. C. Coles, Editor Storms and Signs. Kingston, Pa., U. S. A., Nov. 25th, 1895.

Mr. Barring, head of the detective agency, said Stager came to his house on Jan. 27, and told him that Emma said Fisher was the man. Stager said he was working on the case. Did not subpoena him. I have been paid tweive thousand dollars. The charges are $6 per day for 'our work for all the man we employ. I am employed by the commissioners. The defense here gave the witness some ridicule as to Bauer receiving $6 a day for sitting in his office. He answered yes, certainly. We keep Ed. Cronin here thirteen days and I didn't ask him to identify Fish-er. He says he couldn't. We did not call him, I told him not to talk to Shea or anyone. I kept him here in case Shea and other counsel should put Barney Reick on Canal street." The commonwealth here said that they were about to close the case. There was one thing to which they wished to call the attention of the oourt. The defense had syrung a wit-ness at the last minute. That they had sent an officer to Scranton to see if his evidence was true and collect evi-dence in contradiction to his. The defense replied that the com-monwealth was not surprised as they had siven him the name of the wit-ness on a printed slip and they had had time to investigate his veracity. The commonwealth then announced their oral testimony closed; that they wanted to file objections to recorded testimory. The sentence of ten years and six months imposed upon John Fitzpatrick, of this place, for attempted rape, was handed down this week, at Montrose, by Judge Searle.
