BEFORE THE MAYOR.

Some Peculiar Cases Between Parents and Children Come Up.

Mayor Nichols had his hands full yesterday morning, in settling cases of diflculty which have come up between parents and their children, who have not turned out well. The first was the case of Bertha Binney, a young woman twenty years of age. Her father said that she had lived with various families for over two years, as servant, but lately she had been seen with Mary Ann Smart and other women of bad char-acter, and she had stolen from her own nome at various times. She had taker gloves, shoes, etc., and had purchased various articles at some of the stores and had them charged. The girl admitted being fond of dancing, and said er mother had always been cruel to her. She told a very pitiful story, stating that on cold nights she had several imes been compelled to sleep in the outhouse. Officer Connors also said he had seen her sleeping in a cellarway, and did not see how she withstood the cold weather.

Mayor Nichols believed at least parts of the girl's story and will thoroughly investigate the case before rendering any decision. He put off his judgment until today, and will have the girl's story inquired into before he takes any steps to punish her for theft, as the parents desire.

Patrick Kerrigan, the bad man from Jones street, furnished the next case, Leader's Price, 89c On Sunday morning he threatened to kill his mother by cutting her throat. and later in the day repeated the threat. On Sunday night. Officer Brown arrested Kerrigan after a desperate fight, in which Kerrigan struck Brown with a

His old gray-haired parents appeared against him and told a story of the sufferings caused by this wayward son. The mother requires a stick to support her and tottered up to the seat to testify with big, pearly tears on her cheeks. She testified that her son has been a wayward, drunken, troublesome fellow for years, and that lately he had refused to work, was always drunk and yesterday made several attempts to kill her with knives and different instruments.

Officer Brown said that when he was called to arrest the prisoner he found him with two hammers and a chisel in his hands and threatening to kill the first man who advanced toward him. He struck Brown but was subdued by the nippers. Kerrigan has a bad reputation in police circles, and seems to be somewhat demented. Mayor Nichols bound him over for court in the sum of $1,000 bail, and fined him $70 for resisting an officer, and making threats against his parents.

Crystal Spring's Supply. is said upon good authority that by aid of the recent rains the Crystal Spring Water company has been enabled to supply it patrons with a fine quality and a plentiful quantity of water from the Pine Run supply. It will be remembered that when the state board of health inspected the Crystal Spring supply they found no fault with the Pine Eun source and after a closs examination they found this water course pure, sparkling and uncontaminated. The rains of the past few days have sent a torrent from Pine Run into the reservoir, which relieves the company of resorting to river water. It is a matter of great town Mency cheerfully redelight to consumers that they have thus been relieved, and relieved in such a way, and it is to be hoped that the coming winter will not bring a return of the distressing conditions of
