work for some little time. At the time of the accident, Mr. Creegan was walkthe home from work and passed over the treatle which crosses the city. He was walking rapidly, as there was a train coming up behind him and he did not with to be caught upon the trestle with it.

Suddenly in front of him he saw a headlight, which he thought was on an ngine coming toward him. He thought there would be a collision and jumped it, at the home of the bride's parents. The regular meeting of the Union City Mission will be held in the West Pittsowever, and losing his balance was precipitated over the trestle, which fortunately did not prove to be very high at this point, the distance he fell being about sixteen feet. He was carried to his home by some companions who found him, and it was found that Creegan had sustained a fractured collar

The headlight which Mr. Creegan thought was on the approaching engine, proved to be upon the rear of a pusher, so there was no collision.

LAID AT REST.

Impressive Services Held Over the Reains of Two Persons Yesterday.

The funeral of Mrs. Christina Alexder, who died at her home on North Moin street Friday, occurred yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Charles Lee, of the First Presbyterian church. Mr. ce's sermon was full of comfort to the sorrowing ones. He took for his text Isaiah, 66,13: "As one whom his mother nforteth so will I comfort you." Several selections were sung by a qar-tette composed of Misses Anna McMillan, Minnie Uhmer and Dwight L. Crane, and Prof. A. P. Thomas, after which the remains were interred in Maplewood cemetery. Many beautiful floral offerings were sent by sympathizing friends. The pall-bearers were H. H. William J. Male, John Milligan, P. H. Raynor, Nicholas Mohrs and
