an address in which he set forth in strong language the spirit that actuated John Brown, and said that it might be necessary to have the spirit of another John Brown to right the wrongs of the colored people. He thought that it might be necessary to resort to the flaming brand or poison or the sword as the remedy that might come. If so the colored race would not shirk from it, but they trusted that God would not permit that issue to be necessary.

WILKES-BARRE.

A YOUNG TRAVELER.

Richard J. Vincent, the Youngest Tourist in the World, Strikes the City. Richard J. Vincent, the youngest traveler in the world, spent part of yesterday in Wilkes-Barre. He has bee traveling for about three years and has 'done" the world thoroughly, having visited every country without money and brought away a huge collection of newspaper clippings, photographs, etc. years of age, he conceived the idea of raveling the world, not circling it, and of visiting every portion of it without andling money. It was a difficult un dertaking, but as the sequel shows, he was fully equal to its demands. His father had been a noted sea captain and in consideration thereof the steamship company gave the boy a first cabir class passage to Germany. From Germany he sailed to Russia, thence to France, England and back to New York. At the latter place he remained a day or two and then secured a pass with Pulman accommodations to Chicago. From Chicago he traveled to St.

Louis, Texas, thence to San Francisco Embarking on a steamer here he went to Hawaii, Australia, and returning to Hawaii, struck acrosss to Japan, China. Siam, Straits Settlements, Cevion, Bombay and extensively through India. From Calcutta he went to South Africa. then on to Egypt and through the Holy Land to Turkey, to Gibraltar and back to New York. But as he had not seen the interior of the United States he once more struck out for Chicago thence to Denver, Sait Lake City and on to Portland, Oregon. Returning he came by way of the Northern Pacific to Chicago, thence to Buffalo, and when seen this morning he was waiting for seen this morning he was waiting for a train to carry him back to New York.

He secured a pass from Mr. Mitchell, on showing his credentials, and left for New York at I o'clock. He carries two large trunks, one filled with clothing and the other, in which he keeps his curiosities, medals, etc., which he has picked up in every country of the

A NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

Matter of a New Edifice Is Agitated at Meeting of the School Board. At the last meeting of the school board the subject of a new high school was most vigorously discussed. The Union street building is now overcrowded, and when next year comes the natural increase in the attendance will render the present accommoda tions utterly inadequate. The property committee consider I prudent to see about the cost of adding to the Union street building, and the improvements it would make. The question will be thoroughly discussed by the committee, and a report given at the next meeting. The subject of a new building will also be discussed with cost, etc. It is argued by some of the members that, as the city is steadily growing, with a corresponding growth in the schools, Wilkes-Barre should have high school that would be a credit and sustain the excellent name Wilkes-Barre bears as an educational center It should be built with a view to the demands of the next ten years, and not to the demands of the present. Such a building will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000.

It is said by others that as the pres ent needs could be met with a remodeling and enlarging of the Union street building, that is the thing to do now and let the future take care

As to location, the Pursel property seems to be the most desirable on account of its central location. The Turner property on Washington street is also a very desirable one. Either would be good localities.

BEFORE THE MAYOR.

Some Old Offenders Up Again-Miss Bin ney's Case.

The mayor had quite a lively session yesterday morning. Two plain drunks headed the list, and were sent below without delay. Then Pat Hennessey, who spends most of his time in th county jail, was hauled in, while in the act of stealing clothes from Mr. Clark's line. Officer Bradshaw, who made the arrest, gave testimony that implicated Pat badly, but as Mr. Clark declined to prosecute, Hennessey was fined $7.50, in default of which he was sent up, the charge being trespass.

The case of Miss Bertha Binney, charged with theft and waywardness, which Mayor Nichols laid over from Monday, was then called, and as on the previous day, her parents appeared against her. Mr. Binney presented a certificate as to his sober, industrious habits and broke down completely when reciting the escapades his daughter had been detected in. He says he can't sleep nights with that worriment on his mind. The girl's little sisters denied that she was a good girl and that their mother ever abused them. The little girls are ten and fourteen years of age respectively, and they testified that their sister was very bad indeed, Mayor Nichols then sent Bertha to the Home of the Good Shepherd in Scranton for two years.

ARRESTED FOR PERJURY.

Mike John, the Arabian Peddler, Suffers by Relatives of Murderer Metzgar. Mike John, the Arabian who was such an important witness in the Bowman and Metzgar trials, was arrested at the instigation of Mrs. Metzgar, mother of George Metzgar, the young man who was tried for the murder of John Mike. The charge preferred by Mrs. Metzgar is perjury, in that the Arabian swore in the Bowman case that he had lost $50 and his friend, the murdered man, $75, accusing Bowman and Metzgar of stealing the money.

The hearing was before 'Squire Davidson and Attorney John Shea represented the defendant and also furnished bail in the sum of $2,000 for his appearance at court.

When asked today why he was arrested Mike John said he thought it was meanness on the part of Mrs.

He had sworn that it was the man whose face was turned toward Wilkes-Barre that did the shooting, and in the Bowman trial he did not know which the Governor Puts Off the Execution Day One Month.

The governor yesterday issued a respite to William Penn Bowman, of Luzerne county, from Jan. II, the time fixed for his execution, until Feb. 12. This action was taken in response to the request of his counsel for the prisoner for an opportunity to present this case before the board of pardons at the January meeting. In the application for a respite it is stated at the recent trial of George Metagar, connected with the prisoner in the killing of a peddier, evidence was given to show that Metagar was the actual present Sunday.

The Wheel Filled.

The filling of the jury wheel for for 1896 was completed yesterday. Judge Woodward and the jury commissioners have taken pains this year that no juror's name who is not fitted to serve will be placed in the wheel. The more intelligent men have been chosen from each locality, and the court thinks that the juries of the coming year will be a great improvement over those of last year.

Another Bullet.

The body of Anthony Yiesley, who was killed in the Blackman mine some months ago, and was supposed to have been murdered, was disinterred a few days ago by Dr. McKee, County Detec- lties among those classified as "other tive Eckert and Chief of Police Briggs. The physician found a bullet hole in back of the head, showing that for the year show that to every 432 Yiesley had been shot from behind.
