ore Mr. Kase sat down he wished to know who gave the Cottage Hose company the authority to purchase a nozzle. He said that everything should be done in a business-like manner and although he was willing to report farably on the payment of the bill, he would like them to get some authority from the council. Some discussion in regard to the re-pairing of the Mitchell's hose cart was ged in. Several councilmen wanted to know why the company did not have it done at once, as other things important they went ahead with. The lunch wagon was again brougat up. The committee had found out that the owner paid a license. Mr. Milis thought that it was best not to license wagon at all, as it could then open up in front of any restaurant. Some plaints in regard to the electric lights were submitted by Mr. McDonough. The lights have been very unsatisfactory, the oneat the white bridge satisfactory, the one at the white bridge other at Fifth avenue and Wyoming

A resolution introduced a month ago n select council called for the rounding up of Spring street between Eighth and Ninth avenues. Someone remarked that it was now too late to have anything done this year, as the season was so far advanced. The subject was referred to the committee with instructions to have the work done should the weather permit. Mr. Kase said the work should be done this fall, as -ne residents had always paid taxes and never had anything done for them. ane resolution in regard to repairing the bridge over Rocket brook was referred to the committee, as it was not known whether the bridge belonged to the city

FARRELL'S AWFUL FALL.

His Arm Fractured and Body Terribly

William Farrell, of the West Side, had a fall which nearly resulted in his death, and he is now in a serious condition from the shock. Mr. Farrell is employed by the Ontario and Western railroad at the Mayfield yards, and he was walking to his work at the time of the accident, which happened between 7 and 8 o'clock. At the narrow bridge on South Brooklyn street, Farrell had to cross on the ties. These were covered with frost and as he stepped upon them his foot and he was precipitated head first to the ground beneath, a distance of fifteen feet. He was stunned for e time by the fall, and was unable to move. Some one passing the spot beard moans and upon investigation found the young man, who was suf-fering greatly. The man at once went returned with him, placed him upon a His injuries were found to be most serious, the left arm having a double fracture near the wrist. The right arm was so badly wrenched that he was snable to move it, while his body and

HALL STEAD.

The new Baptist church at this place was dedicated on Tuesday. A very large number attended each of the sessions. About 100 people from out of town were present. The services were opened at 10.30 a. m. by a prayer by the pastor, Rev. John Davis, after which the choir of sixteen voices favored the congre gation with a beautiful anthem. This was followed by reading of the Scrip-tures by Rev. L. W. Church and a prayer was offered by Rev. J. S. Crompton, of Great Bend. The morning ser-mon was then delivered by Rev. M. J. Watkins, of Factoryville, a former pastor. He chose for his text Reve-lations i, 4, 5 and 6, and preached an excellent sermon. After a prayer by W. W. Adair, of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, and another song by the choir, short talks were given by the following persons: Colonel H. H. Tyler and Rev. Mr. Salmon, of Binghamton; Mrs. Harris, of Fractoryville Benjamin Lawrence and Aaron Van Wormer, of Conklin, and S. P. Moore wormer, of Conklin, and S. P. Moore and Rev. Mr. Harding, of Great Bend. Rev. E. K. Thomas, of Montrose, then dismissed the congregation, which closed the morning session. The afternoon service began promptly at 2.15 by a song by the choir followed by a prayer of thanksgiving offered by Rev. Mr. Wilbur, of Jackson. Next came the most interesting part of the day it being a history of the society, given by Rev. W. C. Tilden, of Birchardville. He said the society was first organized in 1825, and it was reorganized in 1872; that the old house was dedicated in 1832, and that during the last few years the society had doubled its membership. Rev. G. B. Woodworth, of Troy, preached the dedicatory sermon. When he reached the financial point, he said the new temple cost with furnishings about $6,000 and was at present $3,500 in debt, and asked the people what they would pledge to diminish the debt. The majority gave freely, as about $4,000 was raised.

The evening service began at 7.15. and Rev. Mr. Harding, of Great Bend.

which was followed by the reading of the fifty-first Psalm. The next was a fine address given by Rev. Frank Coop-er, of Binghamton, after this part the audience was favored by a solo by Mra. L. G. McCollum. This was followed by addresses by the following: Rev. Mr. Wilbur spoke about Bunday school work in a fine manner, followed by a talk about Christian Endeavor work by Rev. C. E. Hancock, of Binghamton, Rev. C. E. Hancock, of Binghamten who gave an excellent talk on this subject. Rev. Mr. Maxfield then gave a talk about the usefullness of attending prayer meetings. After the Doxology and the pronounc-ing of the benediction the service closed it being the greatest day in the history of this prosperous society. The visitors were well provided for as a large collection of eatables could be had by any at the Railroad Young Men's Christian association hall.

OLYPHANT.

Last evening the borough statesmen met in regular session. Several borough bills, amounting to $69, was then passed upon as was also bills. eral borough bills, amounting to $69, was then passed upon, as was also bills contracted by the electric light plant. Mr. Gillespie, a member of the committee appointed to confer with the Traction company, reported that the borough attorney promised to be present to explain maters in regard to the abandonment of portions of the route. Companyment of Brien then moved that a vote be taken on the Traction company resolution, which was as follows: For Curran and O'Brien. Against—Howresolution, which was as follows: For —Curran and O'Brien. Against—Howard, Fadden. Davis, Gniespie, Flynn, Mr. O'Brien asked the reason why the auditor's report of last year was not published. It was then passed that the printing committee be instructed to have it published. A resolution was presented by Mr. Howard for the laying of crosswalks at different points on Dunmore street. It was adopted. Mr. Curran reported the street at the Tinsley crossing would be very narrow when the electric road is laid at that point. A committee was named to see when the electric road is laid at that point. A committee was named to see the Delaware and Hudson officials about widening the road. Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many paterons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop is fully cured. New wheat is now upon the market, and owing to the excessively dry weather many millers are of the opinion that it is already cured, and in proper condition for milling. Washburn-Crosby Co. will take no risks, and will allow the new wheat fully three months to mature before grinding.

This careful attention to every detail of milling has placed Weshburn-Crosby Co.'s flour far above other brands.
