THEY TOO WANT GARDNER.

He Will Be Produced Before Justice of the Peace McNally of Olyphant. Constable James McLaughlin, of Olyphant, does not take kindly to the action of the Scranton police in committing the insurance swindler, J. W. Gardher, on the strength of the warrant held by Chief Simpson. During the week he made known his plaint to Judge Archbald and yesterday the judge handed down an order directing Sheriff Clemons to produce the body of Gardner be-fore P. J. McNally, justice of the peace of Olyphant, to answer the charge preferred against him, and after he is given a hearing there he is to be returned to the county fall upon the com-mitment on which he is now held.

Gardner's victims in and about Olyphant, who urged the constable to make this move, held the belief that masmuch as Gardner secured about $2,000 by his swindling that the bail under which he is held, $800, is not sufficient. Our Line of Holiday Goods

lub House-Committee Inspects the Scranton Residence, Corner Monroe Avenue and Linden Street.

SOCIAL LEADER

A committee appointed from among the directors and officers of the Scran ton club yesterday inspected the house owned by W. W. Scranton, on Monroe avenue, corner of Linden street. During next week they will discuss their visit to the property and the probable cost and details, which would be involved in temporarilly occupying the property, and will make a report at a meeting to be held next Saturday afternoon in Colonel H. M. Boles' office The committee is composed of Colonel Boics, the president of the club, Major J. W. Oakford, T. H. Watkins, J. B. Dimmick, W. T. Smith, H. W. Kings-bury and E. L. Fuller. The majority of members of the club approve of the temporary club house idea; others think a useless expenditure would be incurred by the plan, as the articles and furnishings necessary to the equipment of a temporary home would be practically unavailable for use in the proposed quarters in the board of trade strucnow building. This objection might be met if it was now known of what nature the arrangement and decorations of the board of trade appart-ments will be. That is one objection to the temporary plan; another objecion is of a financial nature, a few being opposed to paying the initiation fees of $100 and dues of $50 each until such time as the club is prepared to occupy permanent quarters. However, the preconderance of sentiment favors the establishment of the club at once, and it will not be surprising if the report of the special committee commends the present plan.

The Williams Literary and Debating ociety of Wood's Business college entertained themselves and their friends with a varied programme last night. In the early evening literary and mus-ical exercises were enjoyed in the asembly room of the college, after which adjournment was had to Siegel's danc ng academy, where dancing was in dulged in until 1 o'clock. The attendance ran up into the hundreds, but despite the throng there was amusement enough to go around. The affair was in charge of a committee consisting of John Martin, Frank Lundy, Thomas McNamara, Thomas Wade and H. A. Clark. Miss Reardon furnished the

The Pains of Rheumarism

According to the best authorities, originate in a morbid condition of the blood. Lactic acid, caused by the decomposition of the gelatinous and albuminous tissues, particularly in the joints, and thus cause the local manifestations of the disease. The back and and shoulders are the parts usually affected by rheumatism, and the joints at the knees, ankles, hips and wrists are also sometimes attacked. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Barsaparilla a positive and permanent cure for rheumatism. It has had remarkable success in curing the most severe cases. The secret of its success lies in the fact that it attacks at once the cause of the disease by neutralising the lactic acid and purifying the blood, as well as strengthening every function of the body.
