CITY NOTES.

The Delaware and Hudson paid their employees yesterday at Grassy Island, Mill Creek and Delaware mines.
 A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Kearney, of New York street yesterday. It died a few hours after birth.
 A statue of St. Cecilia is being erected in front of St. Cecilia's academy, on Wyoming avenue. The foundation for it is now in place.

George F. Jeffries was committed to the county jail in default of $500 bail yesterday by Alderman Miller for cruelty to and refusing to support his wife.
 Marriage licenses were granted yesterday to Michael Kearney and Sarah Stanton, Scranton; James Padden and Maggie Lynch, Scranton; William Llewellyn and Ann Williams, Scranton.
 Patrolman Hloek picked up an unknown man on Penn avenue last night, who was lying drunk and insensible on the sidewalk and almost benumbed in the cold. He was carried to the station house and thence to the hospital.

The conference regarding the paid fire department, between Chief Ferber and the committee of fire underwriters, which has been in session since Sunday afternoon at 2:15, using as her subject, "A Quiet Talk With the Lord." This meeting is open to all women, and it is hoped that a large number will be present.

John Harrington, of Railroad avenue, was examined yesterday by Drs. J. A. Manley and Haggerty and found to be insane. He will be sent to the Hillside asylum today. The unfortunate man is 40 years of age and was employed as railroad inspector at the North Steel mill.

The newly-gauged Collins-Hale Furniture Manufacturing company has for several days been established in its building on Capouse avenue. Thirty skilled workmen are working overtime in order to get out a quantity of first quality parlor goods to be exhibited at the furniture exhibition in New York city next month.

Mrs. Marie Nicotera was, by order of court, yesterday transferred from the county jail to the Lackawanna hospital, there to remain until she is no longer a serious illness with which she is now afflicted. Her husband, Leopold Nicotera, are the folks with whom Vito Lausio boarded, the man who was murdered on Duck street, Dunmore, last February by Leonardo Rosa. They are held as witnesses. At the hospital the doctors say that the woman is not dangerously ill.

Of the project to erect a new building in place of the present unstable structure of the railroad branch of the Young Men's Christian association on Lackawanna avenue, there is considerable relief among those acquainted with the affairs of the railroad branch of the association. The generally accredited statement that the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company would erect a building at a cost of $25,000 is only partly true. The new building question is not definitely settled, accepting the determination of Secretary Pearson and many members. The Lackawanna company has agreed to give its aid, but to what extent is not known, but the inference is given that the company will contribute the land and half the cost necessary to build a four-story building on the present site.

SCRANTON BUSINESS COLLEGE
 Messrs. Schock, of Stroudsburg, and Palmer, of Jersey, paid their old teachers a visit the other day. They are always welcome.

There were many other visitors during the week, and, as usual, all expressed great surprise at finding such cheerful and commodious quarters and such a large number of students.

Miss Kate Needham, stenographer, recently secured a position at the Lackawanna mill.

Miss Alida McHale, of the night school, is now filling a good position as book-keeper. Miss Mamie Ward goes to work today.

Two of our young men, who have been filling positions, quite recently made changes for the better. Our students are progressive.

For a time a number of the night students worked eleven hours a day and attended the night session regularly. Such are bound to succeed.

The number on the register grows larger day by day.

Two applications, one for stenographer and one for book-keeper, now on file.

PENNY'S NARROW MARGIN

Varsity Foot Ball Players Did Not Have a Walk Over.

SCRANTON TEAM'S FINE WORK

Kept Woodruff and His Men from Scoring Until the Second Half and Then It Was Done by Trick-Dispute Arise

The Scranton Bicycle foot ball team opened its season with a victory and yesterday's game against the University of Pennsylvania eleven concluded the season's sports with a defeat for the home boys.

It was the second defeat of the year, but by such a small score and against such a strong aggregation of well trained and experienced pig skin kickers of national reputation that the local athletes and their friends up at the club house last night were so elated as to celebrate with victorious pomp and display.

The University was represented by three of the regular varsity players, seven substitutes and Coach George Woodruff, who was accompanied by two of the regular team that were left at home.

There were 343 paid admissions, 80 complimentary tickets and one or two hundred small boys on the grounds to witness the contest and game on the splendid physiques of the gladiators who lowered the crimson colors of Harvard and several weeks ago and on Thanksgiving day wallowed the Cornell lads on Franklin field in Philadelphia by a surprisingly large score.

Disappointment was shown on the faces of the local enthusiasts when the victory broke failed to materialize and give an exhibition of punting with his strong right foot. Bull and Wagonhurst, who are also favorites here on account of their near residence, were not on hand and the game commenced with only Gelbert and the two Woodruffs to do the minds of the foot ball admirers present and appease their appetites for that lively kind of mix up sport that is peculiar to foot ball scrimmages.

The weather was somewhat raw and the ground hard and frozen in lumps so that sudden contact with the earth made an instant icy grip on the feet. A phenological examination of the heads of many of the players today would reveal an extraordinary development of the bumps of amative-ness and combativeness, the former quality being very scarce at times during the game yesterday and the latter everywhere prevalent.

The game was a great one from start to finish, having many fine features in the way of hard tackling and battering ram plunges through the line by both sides, the work of George Woodruff and Charles Gelbert being a revelation to many of the spectators.

Scranton won the toss and gave the ball to Pennay who defended the south goal. On the kick-off Posner secured the ball on the fifteen yard line and passed it to Noakes for a return kick. Noakes however attempted to run and was tackled in his tracks on the ten-yard line and lost the ball on a fumble.

A University man dropped on it for a first down and it looked as though Pennay would score within a minute after play was called, but Scranton's stone wall line was invulnerable at this stage of the game and the home players took the ball on Pennsylvania on four downs without any substantial gain into their territory.

Noakes kicks thirty-five yards and out of bounds and a Scranton man gets it. Posner gains three yards through left tackle and Connery four yards through right tackle. Posner makes two yards through the same opening. Posner adds one more yard to it and Coggins invades Pennay territory ten yards by a rush on the University's left end.

Posner makes a long run towards Pennay's right end without any gain. Posner pines twice through the center for a total gain of three yards. A University man dropped on it for a first down and it looked as though Pennay would score within a minute after play was called, but Scranton's stone wall line was invulnerable at this stage of the game and the home players took the ball on Pennsylvania on four downs without any substantial gain into their territory.

REV. MRS. COLLMAN.
 Her Father, Her Boy and Herself Praise Paine's Celery Compound

Women preachers, as well as women lawyers, women voters, women bicyclists and women in business are making it more and more apparent that "the gentler sex" is not necessarily "the weaker sex," morally, mentally or physically.

Rev. Mrs. Lydia Collman is an example of the womanly woman whose influence for good in the community is during the time of her illness. She is not one of that silly class of persons who, broken down in health by mental or bodily strain, not quite sick enough to be asked out of thinking seriously of getting well.

Improperly nourished nerves and poor blood soon pile up a desperate number of disorders.

On the other hand, when reduced health and spirits are early recognized and courageously taken in hand at once, when Paine's celery compound is used to restore the integrity of the nerves and blood, no further trouble is to be feared.

Paine's celery compound at once corrects any unhealthy condition of the nervous system. It forwards the richest possible elements of growth to every nerve cell and the remotest nerve thread throughout the body.

Paine's celery compound positively and permanently cures every form of nervous disability and exhaustion—melancholia, hysteria, dead-end depression, neuritis and disordered heart and liver.

The great number of enthusiastic, unstudied testimonials from men and women living in widely-separated states is one of the best evidences of how Paine's celery compound is regarded all over the country.

Women's peculiar life brings a languor and listlessness that are best met by Paine's celery compound. The dispirited condition, the backache, the neuralgic headaches, the sleeplessness and nervous debility, that so frequently attack women when their blood is robbed of its vitality is soon dispelled when Paine's celery compound is used.

Mrs. Collman, writing October 30 from her home, 127 Scott street, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., says:

"Fully appreciating the benefits from the use of Paine's celery compound I recommend it to others. Suffering from sleeplessness and nervous debility, I was persuaded to use this truly great remedy. Although I can have every medicine from my brothers, the druggists here, I gave Paine's celery compound a trial, and must confess only to my benefit. My only boy, four years old, was also treated with it, and his nervousness has disappeared. My father, Rev. C. Kuehn, with whom I live, thinks a great deal of Paine's celery compound. I shall always keep it in the house."

There are untold numbers of women who are working and worrying enough to drive them into their graves. If Paine's celery compound were used in all ways in their homes to strengthen and restore their brains and nerves when there was great need of it.
