The Final Goal-The Grave-

The West Side friends of the de-ased Mrs. Mary Daniels, assembled resterday afternoon at her late resice, at 335 North Hyde Park avenue and evidenced their respect in the ob-servance of fitting obsequies. Rev. Thomas Bell, of the Plymouth Congregational church, preached a funeral sermon in English. He extolled the quiet, Christian life of the departed and drew tender pictures of her earnest life. Rev D. P. Jones, pastor of the Tabernacie church, of which Mrs. Daniels was a member, delivered a feeling sermon in the Welsh language. The services were simple, yet effective, as was the life of Mrs. Daniels. This morning the body will be taken on the 8.25 Delaware and Hudson train to Clifford, Susquehanna county. Immediately upon arrival at that place services will be held, after which the body will be lowered into the grave by the side of her husband, who was buried three years ago.

Recontion of Sodalists and Promoters of the Sacred Heart Loague,

A beautiful ceremony was carried out at Holy Rosary church, Providence, last evening when the reception of pronoters of the League of the Sacred Heart and postulants of the Blessed Virgin's sodality took place.

Gerold's vespers were sung by the church choir, followed by the hymn, "A Message from the Sacred Heart," by the sodalists. Then came the con-ferring of diplomas and crosses on the promoters. The reception of sodalists was preceded by the hymn, "Ora Pro Me." After the "Veni Creator Spiritus," the sermon was preached by Rev. D. J. MacGoldrick, president of St. Thomas' college. The reverend speaker, with words of quence and love, related the pure eloquence and love, related the pure and humble history of Mary's life, and urged the sodalists to follow out her virtues. Prior to the benediction of the
