BURIAL OF LUTHER SAMSON.

The Remains Taken to Peckville for Interment-Rev. G. A. Place Officiates. The funeral of the late Luther Samson, who met such a violent death Saturday night, was held yesterday morn-ing at the residence, No. 3 Porter avenue. Rev. G. A. Place conducted the pervices. The funeral was attended by many persons who sympathized with the family and who did every thing for the family that was possible to do.

A quartette composed of members of the Methodist choir sang a few approoriate selections. After the services the remains were borne from the house by the following pall-bearers selected from the William H. Davis Post, 187, Grand Army of the Republic: Hon. John William Geary, A. W. Daley, N. English, Minor Olmstead, Edward Inch. William Miller and J. M. Alexander. The cortege proceeded to Peckville by carriage and many persons accompanied them to the lower part of Main street. At Peckville the funeral party was met by the Peckville sost and the body was interred in Prospect cemetery.

WAS IT FOUL PLAY?

There Are Several Reasons to Think Lowery's Accident Was Caused by It. Yesterday it was rumored about the city that George Lowery, who was run over by a street car Sunday night was the victim of foul play from which the accident hapened. When called upon to find the truth of the story, Mr. Lowrey's relatives refused to say much about the subject but intimated that they were working on the case. Mr. Lowery has been often in the

MAKING RAPID PROGRESS.

The Street Department Pushing the Erection of the Fence.

The street department have been doing good work this last week and the ion of the fence on the upper end of Fallbrook street, near the city line, ing pushed along rapidly. It was feared that it was too late in the season to commence this work, as the frost being in the ground would make the digging of the post holes difficult.

Thus far, however, there has been no trouble. The guard structure authorized by the council is now nearing com-pletion and there need now be no fear of law suits against the city from that
