WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Fire in a Field on Bellevue Heights Caused No Little Excitement—Extinguished with Difficulty.

A fire which was strongly reminiscent of a real western prairie blaze caused great excitement at Bellevue heights yesterday. Some one started a fire at noon in the large field situated on the easterly side of the Round Woods. The blaze was ignited near the fence at Round Woods lane. The field was covered with the dry stalks of this year's harvest of hay and after the blaze had been whipped into sufficient strength by the strong wind, the fire spread southward with great rapidity.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning a blaze was discovered in the residence of John Hermino, a Polester living on Irving avenue, and from lack of water the home of John Koloschinski, next door, caught fire and was badly damaged.

At midnight the news from the Moses Taylor hospital, where Martin Kearney, of Fig street, has been for treatment for a week, was that he could not survive many hours. Three tumors were removed from his side and the operation was too much of a shock for him.

The Independent Owl club of the Nineteenth ward, consisting of sixty-three members, met last night and organized. Officers were elected as follows: President, Peter A. Aulich; vice-president, P. J. Lynch; financial secretary, James Mahoney; recording secretary, John J. Burns; treasurer, A. F. O'Donnell.
