WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Annonucement Is Made of the Marriage of George Decker and Miss Emma Savitts at Wilkes-Barre.

The list of marriages among West Side young people within the last few weeks that have a tinge of romance to them continues to grow. Announce-ment has just been made of the recent marriage of George Decker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Decker, of North Sumner avenue, to Miss Emma Savitts, of North Lincoln avenue. The ceremony was performed at Wilkes-Barre last week. Without the knowledge of their parents they went to Wilkes-Barre, and, after convincing the clerk of the orphans' court that they were of age, secured a marriage license and were immediately married. Mr. and Mrs. Decker are now residing with the latter's parents, on North Lincoln avenue.

Marriages of Today.

This morning at 11.30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, at Wysox, Pa., Miss Sarah O. Post will be married to Mr. Thomas E. Price, the wellknown newsdealer and barber, of South Main avenue. Gwyllam A. Williams, the West Side correspondent for the Republican, will officiate as grooms man. Immediately after the ceremony the newly wedded couple will depart the metropolis, returning to this city on Friday evening. They will commence housekeeping on North Lincoln avenue, and will be at home to their friends at a date to be arranged later. Mr. Price is one of the most on the West Side, and his innumerable friends extend to him their congratula-

Powell, on North incoln ue, when their oldest e married to Thomas H. Williams, of Edwardsdale, by Rev. T. C. Edwards, The occasion will be quietly observed, owing to the recent adness in the family at the death of the lamented W. George Powell.

Returned Home from Colorado.

Rev. Peter Roberts and wife have returned from Colorado, where they spent the past few months in the hope of improving Mrs. Roberts' health. The trip was not beneficial, however, and the lady's many West Side friends will be pained to hear that death is momentarily expected. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Warren, of North Lincoln avenue. They were accompanied from Chicago by Mrs. Roberts' brother, Samuel

TO OUR PATRONS:

Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many paterons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop is fully cured. New wheat is now upon the market, and owing to the excessively dry weather many millers are of the opinion that it is already cured, and in proper condition for milling. Washburn-Crosby Co. will take no risks, and will allow the new wheat fully three months to mature before grinding.

This careful attention to every tietail of milling has placed Washburn-Crosby Co.'s flour far above other brands.
