POOR DISTRICT BELONGINGS.
Annual Inventory at Hillside Home Taken Yesterday by the Poor Board.

Poor Directors Swan, Gibbons, Langstaff, Williams, Shotton and Secretary E. J. Lynett went to the Poor Farm yesterday to take inventory as is done annually about this time of the year. The party left here at 9 o'clock a. m., and returned at 4 o'clock p. m. Superintendent George W. Beemer had the inventory prepared, so, all that the members had to do was to check off the different properties. The result of their work will be made known in their annual reports.

FOR BETTER CITY LAWS

Reading Takes the Lead in an Important Movement.

CONVENTION FOR A NEW ACT

Select Council's Communication from Reading Relative to Better Government for Cities of the Third Class—Other Council Doings.

A movement to frame a new act for the government of cities of the third class was made known to select council last night in a communication under date of December 18, from H. H. Hammer, city clerk of Reading. Accompanying the communication was a resolution setting forth the details of the movement in full, which is printed below:

Office of the City Clerk, Reading, Pa., Dec. 18, 1895.
Whereas, the municipal act of 1882 providing for the government of cities of the third class is substantially a revision, with certain amendments of the several municipal acts enacted under the constitution; and

Whereas, the original act of 1874, of which all subsequent municipal acts have been amendments, was not a system of municipal law specially designed to meet the provisions and requirements of the constitution of 1874, but a compromise of the charter of the several cities intended to be governed thereby, resulting in numerous contradictions and inconsistencies; and

Whereas, the municipal laws thus compiled have proved inadequate to the purpose for which they were intended, and the experience of twenty years has demonstrated the advisability of the enactment of a new municipal act, which shall be a system with the largest autonomy permissible under the restrictions of the constitution of 1874; therefore

Resolved, That the cities of the third class of this commonwealth be invited to appoint delegates to consist of the mayor, city solicitor, city engineer and one member of select council and two members of common council of each of said cities, to meet in convention at Reading on Wednesday, the twentieth day of March, at 10 o'clock p. m., in the common council chamber, and such other times and places as special convention may from time to time designate to prepare and draft a municipal act to obviate the objections and meet the requirements aforesaid, to be submitted to the next session of the legislature.

Resolved, That the city clerk be and is hereby directed to transmit a certified copy of these resolutions to the cities of the third class in this commonwealth.
Submitted by H. Hammer, City Clerk of Reading.

The Mt. Pleasant Ravine.
The sewers and drains committee which visited the Mount Pleasant ravine Wednesday, recommended that a committee be instructed to provide for a culvert about 100 feet long to connect the North Main avenue culvert with the Mount Pleasant colliery culvert, thereby making a covered sewer as far as the ravine, which runs between the Diamond and Mount Pleasant dumps, and which can, in the opinion of the committee, be safely used as an open sewer.

Three sets of competitive plans for the Nay Aug engine house on Franklin avenue were received in response to City Clerk Layell's advertisement, and referred to the joint fire department committee.
At a previous meeting a proposition was received from the Providence and Abington Turnpike company to place the West Market street portion of the road in good shape for $2,500 and keep it in repair for $1,500 a year. There was some doubt as to whether under the terms of this proposition the first year would require an expenditure of $2,500 or $4,000, and the matter was referred to the judicial committee, which, last night, brought in a report containing an opinion that the $2,500 would cover the cost for the first year and that the $1,500 additional would not be due until one year after the date of the completion of the repairs. The report was ordered filed.

An ordinance providing for an electric light midway on the Linden street bridge was favorably reported from the light and water committee and ordered printed.
Peter T. Mulligan was awarded the contract for constructing the Hyde Park avenue and Swetland street sewer for $1,845, and the Capouse avenue and Larch street sewer for $1,250.

Bids for the construction of a lateral sewer on Penn avenue, between Green Ridge and Larch streets, were read as follows:
Howley Bros., $1.85 per lineal foot; Hart & Gibson, $1.45 per lineal foot; Peter T. Mulligan, $2.75 for the work complete. The proposals were referred to the sewers and drains committee.
Ordinances for railroad gates at the Broadway crossing of the Jersey Central and at the crossing of the Delaware and Hudson passed third and final reading.

SMITH REPEATS CHARGES

Does So in an Affidavit Signed by His Client, Mr. Jennings.

PAPERS OFFERED IN EVIDENCE

Application for a Change of Venue in the Burns-Smith Case Was Made by Argument Before Judge Gunster and Edwards Yesterday.

Attorney Cornelius Smith and his client, John G. Jennings, are anxious to get out of Lackawanna county to try their case and with that end in view Mr. Smith argued in court yesterday afternoon for a change of venue in the case of Burns against him on the hearing of the rule to strike off the award of $15,000 given by the arbitrators in the Burns-Smith case. The argument was made before Judges Gunster and Edwards. Judge Archibald stepped down from the bench when the case was called and took a chair among the lawyers who had gathered around to hear what was going on.

Mr. Smith's first move was to read an affidavit signed by Jennings, which was a refutation of the charges made in the Burns-Smith case. The document set forth that on the 10th of October, 1888, James Jennings, son of John G. Jennings, was seriously and permanently injured by the Lehigh Valley Railroad company's Mud Run in a collision, and that in January, 1889, two actions were begun in the common pleas court of this county against the company. That Attorney Ira H. Burns, the plaintiff in the above action, conspired and confederated with Thomas Reynolds, Myron Kasson and others for the purpose of hindering, delaying and defeating the plaintiffs in their actions against the Lehigh Valley Railroad company, and for the above alleged wrongs committed by the said combination against the affiant he has brought in the courts of common pleas of Lackawanna county an action for conspiracy against the Lehigh Valley Railroad company, Judge R. W. Archibald, Ira H. Burns, Myron Kasson, C. E. Pryor, Judge E. N. Willard, Major Everett Warren and Lemuel Amerman, which action is now pending in court.

LITTLE TRIXIE IS CLEVER.
Unusually Good Performance Given at Davis' Theater.

An unusually clever aggregation of specialists in the "Little Trixie" company which entertained at Davis' theater yesterday. Every member is good in his or her particular line, and the lines are all right. There is a serious plot running through the performance, but that does not interfere with the entertaining features.

May Smith Robbins leads the company in her particular line, but very full in cleverness. Her daintiness is charming. Rosa Deloro and Lorene Jansen dance well and Miss Deloro sings the soprano solo, "Jamaic," in an exceptionally good voice. Harry Patterson does the most act in fine style, and his singing was loudly applauded. Fred Robbins is very entertaining.

The show has an abundance of good things, including a talented burlesque quartet, Lewy McCard, a German yodler, George P. Watson. "Little Trixie" will be repeated this and tomorrow evenings with afternoon matinees.

A GRAND DISPLAY.
The Best in This Line Ever Made in Scranton.

The most elaborate and tastefully trimmed store in Scranton for the coming holiday season are the Scranton Cash Store and the Lindley Market on Washington avenue. The elegant display of fine confectionery in one of the windows is so artistically arranged it is simply a perfect dream and the next which is fixed up with Figs, Dates, Almonds, Raisins and Nuts is deserving great praise to whoever had it in charge, while in the third the magnificent display of Oranges, Grape Fruit, Bananas, Pine Apples, Grapes, etc., is attractive in the extreme. The fourth window which is reserved for a display of Poultry and Game will be so arranged to be in keeping with the others on the whole both inside the stores and in the windows the grand display of fine goods with the elaborate trimming of holly and evergreens, hollyhock, etc., these establishments make the finest exhibit of the kind ever presented in this city and is worth a journey of many miles to see.

UNSTINTED GENEROSITY.
Prominent Coal Operator Remembers Those Santa Claus Is Apt to Overlook.

No poor family in the city will know the want of a Christmas dinner and no child will be overlooked by Santa Claus if the board of associated charities can find them out.
This year, as during last Christmas, the board has the unlimited use of the check book of a well-known citizen, with the admonition that the more that they use it the better it will like it.
Mrs. Duggan, agent of the associated charities, will enlist the services of the representatives of the various charity organizations in distributing the good cheer so generously furnished.

The class of goods that we are selling at our establishment we are not afraid to guarantee, as they will give entire satisfaction and anything purchased of us, if not as represented, we will refund the money.
