Two Young Men Arrested for Creating a Disturbance in the Salvation Army Barracks Last Night.

Two young men whose ages are about 17 years created a disturbance in the Salvation Army barracks last evening while the army was in the midst of a prayer meeting. They spent last night in the West Side station house and probably fled this morning will cut deep into their Christmas money.

Denman Thompson's quaint and delicious play, "The Old Homestead," will be seen this and tomorrow evenings at the Academy of Music. A visit to "The Old Homestead" is always refreshing, for one seems to get away from himself and breathe the sweet air of the hills, while he mingles with the quaint characters whose purity of mind seems to invest life with new thoughts and feelings.

On Christmas afternoon and evening Oliver and Kate Byron and their company will present "The Ups and Downs of Life" at the Academy of Music. The Indianapolis Sentinel said of their play given above, "The intellect of the prisoners made a hearing impossible and the two were locked up for the night. This morning at 9 o'clock they will have a hearing."

The Scranton Street Baptist church elected officers yesterday afternoon for the coming year. The new officers are: Dr. B. G. Beddoe, superintendent; N. D. Morris, assistant superintendent; G. A. Watkins, secretary; G. W. Brown, treasurer; Harry Davis, treasurer; Miss Tomlinson, pianist; Miss Lilly Moore, organist for primary department; D. Evans, chorister.

The Hyde Park Literary and Debating society meets this evening with a good program as at their last meeting. Christmas trees at Heller & Warnke's. Lettuce, celery, parsley, spinach, fresh at Heller & Warnke's.

The Young People's society of the West Side church will hold their services on Christmas morning in the Jackson Street Baptist church. Miss M. Louise Williams will be the soloist.

Very choice Christmas gifts at Jeweler Turnquest's, Washington avenue. A Delightful Gift. Something in diamonds will please mostly anybody, and they're a sure money getter if ever you should want to realize on them.

President and Congress Endorsed. A regular meeting of the G. O. P. club, held last Friday night to discuss resolutions were presented and unanimously passed, and the same were ordered published and a copy ordered sent to Hon. J. A. Scranton, our representative in congress.

Resolved, That this post most heartily endorse the action of the president and congress and while sincerely regretting the interruption of the peaceful relations existing between England and this nation, the post expresses its clear conviction that in the present emergency, it is the duty of every loyal citizen of this great nation to demand a firm and patriotic stand on the part of the United States in relation to the aggression by England or any other nation, and to support the administration in every effort to maintain American rights and full recognition of the just demands of this nation with respect to non-interference by foreign nations with the affairs of the countries of this western hemisphere.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Death of Martin Kearney, of Fig Street, at the Moses Taylor Hospital. New Officers Chosen.

Martin Kearney, of Fig street, died at the Moses Taylor hospital Saturday at noon, and the remains were brought to his late home that evening. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, with a high mass of requiem at St. John's church and interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

The deceased was forty-five years of age and leaves a wife and seven small children. The case is one where the bereaved family is deeply sympathized with. Mr. Kearney was a well-known man, industrious and highly respected. Some months ago he became afflicted with tumors and it was necessary to submit to an operation, which he underwent two weeks ago at the Moses Taylor hospital. For a day or so after that his condition was so weak that his recovery was in grave doubt, but he rallied and grew stronger, and there were hopes that he would be restored to his former good health, but last Friday he relapsed and passed away.

At a regular meeting held yesterday afternoon at the Columbia Young Men's Institute, elected officers for the ensuing year. They are: President, Richard Sheridan; first vice-president, F. Coyne; second vice-president, Frank Brady; recording secretary, Will Daniels; financial secretary, M. F. Donahoe; corresponding secretary, John B. O'Malley; treasurer, Patrick J. Ruddy; executive committee, Morris Dutton, Paul Rommizer, Attorney M. J. Donahoe and Edward Durkin; delegates to district convention, P. H. Coyne, Paul Rommizer, P. J. Kelly, John B. O'Malley, John E. Coyne. It was decided to hold an entertainment on Wednesday evening, Jan. 15, and a "smoker" New Year's Day.

Injured at the Silk Mill. Miss Nellie Heffner, of Pittston avenue, an operative at the Saunnett silk mill, suffered an injury to the right hand Saturday, while at work. The injury is very painful and will cause her to remain idle for some time. The index and middle fingers of her right hand were caught in the machinery of the mill, and she was working and both were badly lacerated. Dr. J. A. Manley was summoned and dressed the wounds.

Shorter Paragraphs of News. John P. Donahoe returned Saturday to spend until Jan. 6 at home, on Stone avenue. He will graduate from the New York College of Pharmacy next April. William Morris, employed at the Casey & Kelly brewery, got his right hand severely bruised Saturday when he loaded three barrels. It will lay him idle for two or three weeks. The funeral of Tessa Richardson took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of James J. Keating, on Stone avenue. There was a large gathering of friends present. Interment was made in St. Michael's Catholic cemetery.

On Christmas Day the masses at St. John's church will be at 8, 9 and 10. The first and last will be high masses, masses at St. Joseph's church, 310 1/2, will be at 8, 9 and 10, the first and last high masses.

Rings at all prices. Turnquest. Shell combs and ornaments for the hair at Turnquest's, 205 Wash. ave. A Well Dressed Woman is careful to see that her jewelry is as much in fashion as her dress. The new Paris bonnet, Turnquest invites all ladies of fashion to look over his jewelry stock. It's all new, and he flatters himself that it will attract the bill to their highest expectations.

OVERPOWERED AN OFFICER. A Prisoner Taken Away from Patrolman Hawks by Two of His Pals. Patrolman Hawks arrested Michael Ford on Oak street at 3 o'clock yesterday morning for disorderly conduct and as he was taking him to the station house two of his pals, who were in which both companies will appear. The olio consists of a large number of the very best and most novel acts. The first and last will be high masses, masses at St. Joseph's church, 310 1/2, will be at 8, 9 and 10, the first and last high masses.

Engraved silver thimbles, 25 cents. Turnquest. LETTER TO SANTA CLAUS. Little Girl Sent One to the Old Fellow, in care of the Tribune. The following letter to "Santa Claus, 174 Icecicle street, Snow Town, care of Tribune office," was received at this office yesterday: "Dear Santa Claus—Will you please bring me for Christmas a doll with light hair, a ring with a diamond in it, a nice little horse, and a toy steam engine, and a copy of the Tribune, please. I am a very good girl, and I hope I will be a very good girl."

What's in a Name? Wife—Look, John, there's the tea set I'm going to send to mamma. Husband—What of it—where did you buy it? Wife—Why, at Turnquest's, just as you said. Husband—It's very pretty, but I don't know anything about them. If Turnquest said it was good, however, I know it must be.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES. A. W. Handley, of Danbury, Conn., called on Judge Hobbs, in the city, yesterday and procured a certified copy of the will of the late John Handley. The Danbury Herald says that he was a first cousin of the late Judge.

Attorney Cornelius Smith filed a petition in court Saturday morning asking for a rule to strike off the non-suit in the $100,000-repairs suit against the Lehigh Valley Railroad company. The rule was granted returnable at next argument court.

Application for a new trial was heard Saturday morning before Judge Archibald and Gunster in the case of William G. Davis against William P. Boland. This is a case where a horse and carriage were replevined. Attorney C. Comery appeared for Mr. Boland and Attorney Dishi for Mr. Davis.

Attorney R. A. Bourke argued before Judge Archibald on the rule to strike off the costs imposed by Judge J. J. the presiding judge in the case of B. Neville, of the West Side, against Messrs. Callahan & Fahy. The two young men whom he prosecuted for abusing a horse and negligence by bailiff, Judge Archibald struck off the costs and placed them on the county.

MEETING OF THE CAR MEN. A friendly meeting of the Conductors and Motormen's union of the Erie traction company was held from midnight Saturday night until 4:30 yesterday.
